

Subject Index

- Accountability
government, 68–74, 94–95, 109, 112–113 local versus central government, 112–113, 114 local, democracies versus nondemocracies, 94–95 political, 109, 117
capture by elites, 114, 117
corruption, 114–115, 151
elections, 112–113
and yardstick competition, 113
Accountability mechanisms, need for, 151, 168, 260
Agency problems, 112, 113–114
Anticorruption campaigns, 158, 162
Authoritarianism and economic performance, 98
and local accountability, 94–95
- Bargaining model, 32, 35, 41–46
cooperative, 41
cooperative versus noncooperative, 42
noncooperative, 42
Bargaining problem, 31
as barrier to institutional change, 31–32
- Bribes magnitude, autocracies versus democracies, 147–148 magnitude relative to rents, 146–148
- Bureaucracy
accountability of, 74 erosion of its insulation, 99–100, 103 insulation of, 98–99
and credible commitment, 100
politicization of, 99–100 quality, central versus local, 110–111
- Business environment, predictability of, autocracies versus democracies, 97
- Capital
civic, 36–37
- Capture by elites, 18, 37, 95–97, 109, 114, 115–117, 120–122, 124–125, 259
determinants of, 130–136
and inequality, 96–97, 116, 117, 124, 132, 134–135
- Centralization
benefits of, 111–112
and economies of scale, 111–112
- Child labor, 265–266
- Collective action, 201–225
and inequality, 37–38, 201
and polarization, 36, 38 and social fragmentation, 21
- Collective-action problem, 30–31, 95–96, 143
as barrier to institutional change, 30–32, 35
- Colonialism, 11
and artificial boundaries, 180–181 and ethnic conflicts, 170
and origins of democracy in India, 89
- Colonial legacy impact on legal systems, 5
institutional impact of, 3, 4, 5
- Commitment mechanisms, 123–124 self-binding, 29, 30n4 and economic development, 29–30
- Common-pool problem, 201–202, 205–210
and aggregate wealth, 205 versus credible commitment problem, 203–204 and fiscal policy, 72
in Latin America, 201–202

- Comparative advantage, 255, 267
- Competition
interjurisdictional, 61, 123
- Conflict
interethnic and intraethnic, 182–183 over water, 236, 242
- Cooperation, 201–225
and aggregate wealth, 205, 207, 208, 210, 224
and exit options, 236, 242, 244–245 and government involvement, 235–236, 242, 244, 246 and group size, 231–234, 241, 244–245, 246
and inequality, 234, 237, 243–246
local-level, and its determinants, 229, 231–247 in local water management, 227–247 and rule obedience, 246–247
as self-reinforcing, 236–237
- Coordination failures, 2
- Coordination mechanism in bribe collecting, 147, 148, 151 local community organizations as, 18 markets as, 17–18
markets versus the state, 18–19
the state as, 13–17
- Coordination problems, and centralized financing, 13–14
- Corruption, 98, 118, 137–168, 196, 245, 246
bureaucratic, 109
and bureaucratic competition, 160–161 central versus local government, 122 centralized, 143–146
as part of a Coasean bargaining process, 140–141, 143 consequences of, 137
and democracy, 148
decentralized versus centralized, 139, 143–145 in Russia, 145
differential incidence, 151–157 at different levels of administration, 154–155 and dual track system, 151 economic, definition of, 138–139
economic versus political, 139
effects of, 141–142
as efficiency-improving, 139–143, 149 and impact on growth, 148–150 and impact on investment, 148–149 incidence versus perception, discrepancy between, 156 and initial conditions, 154 and internecine warfare, 150 local versus national government, 95–96 and market competition, 160
persistence of, 137, 153–157
and political competition, 151, 168
and privatization of state owned enterprises, 151 and red tape, 142–143
and regulation, 151–152, 158 and secrecy, 146
as a self-fulfilling equilibrium, 156 and social norms, 152–153
as “speed money”, 141, 142, 162 versus taxation, distortionary effects, 146 and wages of civil servants, 164–168
in weak versus strong states, 145, 168
- Credibility, tradeoff with flexibility, 65, 270
- Credible commitment, 15–16, 145, 168, 202, 259, 269 and accountability, 102–103
- Credible-commitment mechanisms, to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 191, 194, 200
- Credible-commitment problem, 29–30, 31, 55–85, 270–271 as a barrier to reform, 55, 74–85
and institutional solutions, 60–61, 62–64, 65, 68–74, 271–272 and reputational solution, 59–60, 63, 65–68, 271 strategic versus self-control context, 56–57
- Cultural protection, 249–250
- Decentralization, 105–127
to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 193–194
benefits of, 105–106, 107, 112–113, 125
versus centralization, 105–106, 111–118, 122–123
China versus Russia, 123–125
defining, 106–107
effects of, 118–125
efficiency versus redistribution, 109–110
and fiscal discipline, 202
and inequality, 96–97
and local business development, 123–125 and local democracy, 117–118 and need for accountability mechanisms in developing countries, 95–96, 109,

- 112, 114–117, 120–121, 123, 125–126, 129
- and redistribution, 109–110
- U.S. versus developing and transition countries, 108–111
- and yardstick competition, 113
- Democracy
  - as a check on corruption, 151, 168
  - and corruption, 96
  - and credible commitment, 101–102
  - and development, 87–88, 91–92, 97–98
  - and ethnic conflict, 183
  - and fiscal decentralization, 121
  - in India, 92–94
  - and local accountability, 94–95
  - Northern India versus Southern India, 93
  - origins of, India versus the West, 89–91
- Deregulation
  - as a means to fight corruption, 158–160
- Development banks, state-supported, 13–14, 17
- Dislocation, 197
- Distributive conflict
  - as impediment to institutional change, 27, 30–34, 35–38
  - as impediment to reform, 39–54, 74
  - and institutional failures, 37–38
- Drugs, making available to poor countries, 269–272
- Dual track system, and corruption, 151
- East Asian development model, 10, 13–17, 30, 98–99, 103
- Economies of scale, 111–112
- Efficiency wage theory, 164–165
- Ethnic conflict, 169–200
  - and appropriation of local commons, 196–197
  - and armament sales, 199–200
  - and civil organizations, 186
  - and electoral system design, 183–184, 191, 200
  - and failed economic policy, 176–177
  - and institutional solutions, 190–194
  - and intergroup economic competition, 171–176
  - and intragroup sanctions, 189–190
  - and land, 173, 179
  - and markets, 177–179, 200
  - and natural resources, 173
  - and solutions, 190–200
  - and structural adjustment programs, 177, 193–194, 197, 199
  - and urban inequality, 197
- Ethnic diversity, and local public-goods provisions, 189–190
- Ethnicity, 169–170
- Federalism, 124
  - to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 192–194
  - fiscal, 108, 110, 111–112, 114
  - India versus U.S., 91, 109
  - to prevent barriers to entry, 61–62
  - as solution to credible-commitment problem, 60–61, 63–64
- Financial crisis, East Asian, 16–17, 30
- Financial system, state-supported, 15–16
- Fiscal crisis, as a collective-action problem, 201–202
- Fiscal imbalance, as a common-pool problem, 207–210, 224
- Fiscal policy, and common-pool problem, 72
- Foreign investment, and pollution abatement costs, 268
- Free-rider problem, 31, 190, 216, 234
- Geography, and economic performance, 3
- Global economic integration, and ethnic separatism, 179–180
- Globalization
  - and capital flight, 249–251
  - defining, 249–251
  - and fiscal crises, 260
  - and impact on the poor, 249–273
  - and need for domestic institutional changes, 252–253, 259–260, 267–268, 272
  - opposition to, 249–250
  - and policies to aid poor workers, 258–260
  - and redistribution, 262
  - and taxation of capital, 261–262
- Government failures, 18
- Growth
  - impact on corruption, 150–151
- Hard budget constraint, 124
- Herd behavior, 188–189, 197–198
- Identity politics, 181–182
- Imperfect information, 12, 28
- Incentive payments, to fight corruption, 164–168

- Incomplete contracts, 46–47
and opportunism, 46–47
- Inequality and bargaining disputes, 38 and collective action, 36, 37–38 and cooperation, 204, 210–223, 224–225, 228
and enforcement costs, 38 and globalization, 251 and government response to macroeconomic crises, 35–36 and institutions, 32–33
and international trade, 255–257
- Infant-industry protection, 195 democracies versus autocracies in East Asia, 102 and time-inconsistency problem, 102
- Inflation-stabilization cycles, 205–207
as common-pool problem, 205–207
- Influence peddling, 98, 151
- Information asymmetry, 8, 111, 143
and ethnic conflict, 187
and power, 45, 54
- Information externalities, 13
- Institutional change, 29, 32
barriers to, 27, 30–33
and changes in distribution of power, 37 and evolutionary game theory, 28
and political competition, 34–35
- Institutional economics, 1, 2, 9–10, 27, 30, 35
new, 29, 30
- Institutional failure, and ethnic conflict, 186–187, 200
- Institutional impediments to development, 11–13, 27
- Institutions and capacity for development, 8 and colonialism, 4
as coordination mechanisms, 2 in developed countries, 6, 7–9, 13 in developing countries, 6, 8, 9–12
and economic performance, 3–4, 8
endogeneity of, 4, 21 and geography, 3 indigenous, 6, 11
inefficient and persistence of, 27, 33, 34n11 and legal origin, 6 to limit opportunism, 7–9, 47, 49–50 particularistic networks, drawbacks of, 10–11 particularistic networks versus state-mediated coordination, 16–17
persistence of, 4, 27, 31 property rights versus democratic political rights, 2–3, 19
and development, 2–3, 19–26
of punishment, 7, 10 relation-based versus rule-based, 10, 30 weak, 8
- Intergovernmental competition, 108
- Interlinked contracts, 47–48
- International community, as mediator in ethnic conflict, 198–200
- International economic integration, and poverty, 251–252
- International labor flows, 251
- International trade, and inequality, 255–257
- Interregional tax competition, 110
- Intraethnic tensions, 182–183, 184
- Intragroup sanctions, and ethnic conflict, 189–190
- Job reservation for minorities
and ethnic conflict, 194–196
and rent sharing, 196
- Labor market, ethnic segmentation of, 171
- Land reform, 33–35, 37, 247, 262
and shifts in power, 33–35, 37
- Land sales market, 33–34
- Learning by doing, 111, 195
- Legal systems and business environment, 5–6 common-law versus civil law, 5–6
- Lending, related, 12
- Local participatory development, 118–119, 126
- Local public goods, 37
and erosion of political support for, 37 institutional failures in their provision, 37
- Macroeconomic crises, Latin America versus East Asia, 35–36
- Market failures, 18
- Markets
ameliorating ethnic problems, 177–178 exacerbating ethnic problems, 178–179
- Merchant guilds, 8, 9
- Methodology
cross-country regressions, 1–2, 5, 6–7, 87–88, 137–138

- qualitative comparative historical analysis, 6–7, 88
- Monitoring, 8, 109
- Path dependency, 17, 27–28, 34
- Political competition
  - and institutional change, 34–35
  - and reform, 76–77
- Political parties
  - and ethnic conflict, 183–186
  - as mediators of ethnic conflict, 185–186, 200
  - as sources of ethnic conflict, 183–185
- Political rights
  - and development, 19–26
  - and ethnolinguistic fractionalization, 26
  - and literacy, 26
  - and population density, 26
  - and state antiquity, 26
- Political sustainability, 3
- Politics, ethnification of, 181–182
- Poverty, around the world, 251–252
- Power
  - absolute versus relative changes in, 35, 78–81
    - and barriers to reform, 78–80, 83
  - and asymmetric information, 44, 54
  - bargaining, 32, 42, 43
  - behaviorist view of, 39, 52–53
  - capitalist, 47–50
  - and creation of institutions, 40–41
  - and credible precommitment, 43–44
  - economic versus political, 39–40
  - in the employer–employee relationship, 47–50
  - exercise of, 40–41
    - and hold-up problems, 46–47
    - and incomplete contracts, 46–47
    - and inequality, 50, 54
  - market, 47
  - and predation, 50
  - quantifying, 41
  - of the state, India versus the West, 89–91
  - structuralist view of, 53–54
  - and “voluntary” transactions, 40, 51–52
  - of the weak, 48–49
- Power sharing, to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 191, 194
- Power preservation, as an impediment to as a reason to block institutional change, 32, 34, 35, 74–77, 80–83
- Power relations, dyadic versus triadic, 51–52
- Primary products, and economic vulnerability, 254–255
- Privatization of state-owned enterprises, and corruption, 151
- PROGRESA, 120, 266
- Public goods, 108–109
  - efficiency versus redistribution, 109–110
  - and spillovers, 111, 114, 115
- Public information, as palliative for ethnic conflict, 197–198
- Punishment, to induce cooperation, 221–223, 225
- Red tape, 142–143
  - as a screening mechanism, 142–143
- Redistribution, domestic barriers to, 262
- Reform
  - barriers to, 55, 56, 74–85, 90–91
  - economic and political instability, 55–56
  - to fight corruption and the potential drawbacks, 158–168
- Regional autonomy, to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 192–193
- Reputation
  - collective and corruption, 156–157, 162
  - and commitment, 43–44
- Reputation mechanisms
  - bilateral versus community responsibility, 8
  - bilateral versus multilateral, 8
  - to enforce cooperation, 208, 234
  - multilateral, 9
- Rights, group versus individual, 90
- Risk sharing, 11–12
- Rule of law, 19
  - and democracy, 97
  - and development, 19–26, 98
  - and economic performance, 21, 26
  - and ethnolinguistic fractionalization, 21
  - and life expectancy, 21
  - and literacy, 21, 26
  - and state antiquity, 21
- Sanctions, 198–199
  - and durability of power distribution, 52
- Secessionist movements, 174–175, 181
- Separation of powers, 69–74, 117
  - to ameliorate ethnic conflict, 191
  - and rent extraction, 69–74

- Separation of powers (cont.)
  - as solution to government accountability problems, 69–74, 117
- Separatist movements, 172, 175–176, 179–180, 185
- Side payments, to induce cooperation, 212, 219–220, 225
- Social capital, 195
- Social fragmentation, and collective-action problems, 21
- Social norm of cooperation, 211, 217–219
- Social sanctions
  - and ethnic conflict, 187–188
  - and group size, 231–234, 241, 242n, 244, 246
- Soft budget constraint, 61, 125, 193, 202
- Sweatshops, 263–265

- Targeting, 109, 120, 129
- Tiebout mechanism, 108
- Time inconsistency, 55–56
  - and bail-outs, 55, 58
  - and expropriation, 55, 58–59
  - in monetary policy, 55, 57–58, 59–60, 63, 65–66
  - and redistribution, 59, 78–79
- Township and village enterprises (TVEs), in China, 123–124
- Trade barriers, and poverty in developing countries, 253–254
- Trade boycotts, impact of, 265–266
- Trade liberalization
  - effects on politics, 263
  - environmental consequences of, 266–268
  - labor market effects of, 257–258
  - and market structure, 262–263
- Trade-related intellectual property rights, 268–272
- Tragedy of the Commons, 224
- Transaction costs, 28, 50, 112
  - and tradeoff with economies of scale, 7

- Uncertainty, individual, as barrier to reform, 83–85

- Vertical integration, 47
- Vested interests, 30
  - as barriers to institutional change, 30, 31–35, 262, 267–268, 273

- Wages
  - of civil servants, and corruption, 164–168
  - transnational versus domestic firms, 263–265
- War of attrition, 44–46
  - and power, 45
- Water management, by the local community, 227–231
- Wealth distribution, East Asia versus Latin America, 35–36