

PREFACE

This collective volume is a preliminary attempt to assess the interaction of regional developments in several important areas of the world with the transition in international politics to dual multipolarity, as expressed in the political-military and economic triangles. Some readers may wonder why the book does not include a chapter on Europe. That area will be covered in part in a book that I am now completing on the Germanies and the socialist world.

I am most grateful to the Earhart Foundation and its president, Mr. Richard Ware, for the generous financial support that made this volume possible.
