Index

Accidental trauma, 87
“Adopted grandparents,” 165
Advertising, 178, 189
Agricultural areas, health personnel in, 115
Alaska, health care in, 117
Alaskan natives, death rate of, 90
Allergies, 57
Ambulance drivers, inadequately informed, 87
Ambulatory clinics, nurses in, 102
American Nightmare, 93
Annual checkup, value added by, 62-63
Arthritis, 84
Artificial hearts, implantable, 70, 71
Artificial kidneys, 69, 155
Asepsis and anesthesia in surgery, 2
Atherosclerosis, 84
Audiotapes, for health information, 161
Automated Multiphasic Health Testing, 64, 159
Automatic dialers (Magic Call), 169
Automation of clinical laboratories, 61
Babies, newborn, 84
Bacterial infestations, 56
Bell Telephone Company, 169
Benefit, levels of, 51. See also Cost/benefit Biochemical determinations, 62
Bloom, Bernard, 72
Blue Cross-Blue Shield, 169
Bronschiectasis, in native Americans, 91
Brown, J. H. U., 62
Cable television, 189
Cardiac arrhythmias, hazardous, 72
Careers in health, 109-112
Categories of ailments, 49-51
Census, U.S. Bureau of, 55
Center for Health Statistics, U.S.P.H.S., 150
Children, accidental deaths of, 84
Cholera, 55
Chronic-care clinics, 155
Chronic disability, 35
Clarke, Arthur C., 12
Common colds, 55, 57
Common ills, 35, 36
Common symptoms, 192
Communicable diseases, 53
Communications networks for health care, 117, 118
Comprehensive health planning, 127
Computers, storage of medical data in, 195, 196
Congenital anomalies, 60
Controls for mobility and manipulation, 167
Coronary care, 71-72
Coronary-care units, effectiveness of, 72
Cost/benefit, 47-56
Cost-effectiveness, 51-55, 63, 64
Cost-plus economics, 29
Costs, factors contributing to, 25-30
Curable diseases, 53, 54
Cystitis, 56
Deafness, 85
tests for, 86
Death anticipation of, 94 common causes of, 76-81
with dignity, 73, 94
Decision trees, 9, 10. See also Protocols
Definitive therapy, value added by, 61-62
Delphi Technique, 10
Dental defects in children, 187
Depersonalization in mental hospitals, 92
Diagnosis, value added by, 61-62
Diagnostic carrels, in Straub Clinic, 105
Diabetes, 84
Dickson, James, 62
Diphtheria, 55
Disease and disability categories of, 34-36
preventable, 49
Diseases
most favored, 68
responsibility sectors for, 37-42
Diversification of health personnel, 103, 104
Doctor-patient relationship, 1, 22, 61
Doctors
allocation of, 98-99
number of, 190-191
Doctors (continued)
shortage of, 21, 98
Doing something, value added by, 65–66
Down’s syndrome (mongolism), 84
Drugs, over-the-counter, 178
Dying, process of, 94
Easter Seal Aid Society, 171
Economic significance of treatment, 58
Economy, incentives for, 141–142
Education, health, 189–203 lifelong, 202–203
   maternal, 186–188
   “prime time” for, 184–186
   in schools, 189–192
Emergencies, 35, 39
Emergency services, misuse of, 112–113
Empty beds, 29, 30
Environmental ills, 35
Environmental threats, 53
Epidemic ills, 35
Eradic-ailments, 35, 39
Euthanasia, 95
Exploring Childhood, 194
Extendi-Care Company, 141
Failure of imagination, 12
Failure of nerve, 12
Fetter, Robert, 138
Forecasting, limits to, 12
Functional bowel disease, 56
Futures, creation of, 18
Futures research, 6–11
Gatekeepers, 105–109
Geller, Harvey, 75
General hospitals, small, elimination of, 132
General practitioners, as health guides, 105
Genetic disturbances, 84
Goals for health care, 18, 20, 75
Goodwill Industries, 174
Group consensus, 10
Group Health Cooperative of Puget Sound, 142
Health, definitions of, 30–36
Health and Community Services of Honolulu, 171
Health and hygiene, high-school courses on, 191
Health-appraisal facilities, 159
Health care availability of, 22–23 costs of, 69–72
distribution of, 89, 118
effectiveness of, 2 for different races, 90 for senior citizens, 92 home-based, 150–176
humanizing of, 153–155
maldistribution of, 113 neglected opportunities for, 113 paradoxical problems in, 4 patient-oriented, 179–180 minimal standards for, 181–182 problems of, 22–25
Health Insurance Plan of Greater New York, 144
Health Maintenance Organizations (HMO’s), 144–145
Health personnel, 23
categories of, 101
distribution of, 99, 113, 115, 117, 120
diversification of, 103, 104
See also Doctors; Gatekeepers; Nurses; Physicians’ assistants
Health priorities, criteria for, 75–83
Hearing defects, simulated, 192
Hearing impairment, 85
Hemodialysis, 69–71
Hemophilia, 70, 84, 156
Hernias, 60
Hill-Burton Act, 126
Home care, 151, 163–175
do-it-yourself kits for, 156, 157 and information and referral centers, 157 technologies for, 155–156
See also Health care, home-based Hormonal deficiencies, 60
Hospital hierarchies, 132
Hospitalization, cost of, 28–30
Hospitals, 123–141
causes of overuse of, 125 characteristics of, 123–124
diversification of, 145–147
numbers of, 126
organizations in, 124, 125
private ownership of, 141 proliferation of, 125–126 regional planning of, 128
Swedish prototype for, 129
Hydrocephalus, 84
Hypertension, 56, 61
Illnesses
- at different ages, 33
- incidence of, 55-57

Impersonalization, 23

Infections, 53

Influenza-like illness, 55, 57

Information, encapsulated, 111, 161

Information and referral centers, 157-159

Information gaps, in general public, 177

Innovations, unpredicted, 14

Intuition, 9

Irregular heart beat, alarm for, 170

Jobs, changing demand patterns for, 43-44

Kaiser-Permanente Medical Care, 142

Kubler-Ross, Elisabeth, 94

Laboratory tests, standard, 61

Lag times for technology, 14-15

Life expectancy, 75

"Living wills," 95

Long-range goals, definitions of, 18

Long-range planning, 18-20

Magraw, Richard, 21

Malaria, 55

Management agreements between hospitals, 136

Manpower, availability of, 43-45

Maternal indoctrination, 186-188

Maternal nutrition, 84

Maternity services, consolidation of, 138-139

Mathematical models, 8

Maxi-mals, 35, 39

McHale, John, 14

"Meals-on-wheels," 165

Medex program, 116

Medical sector, 39-40

Meditation, transcendental, 162

Mendi-mals, 35

Mental illness
- incidence of, 91
- responsibility for care of, 35, 41

Midi-mals, 35, 36

Midwives, 102

Mini-mals, 35, 36

Misinformation, in general public, 178

Mobility and manipulation, as needs of the handicapped, 165-168

Modeling and simulation, 10

Multiphasic screening, 39, 63-65

Myocardial infarction, 56

National Health Insurance, 43, 70

Native Americans, health problems of, 90, 91, 116

“Natural death,” 95

Nurse-midwives, 102

Nurse-practitioners, 39, 102

Nurses
- in ambulatory clinics, 102
- in coronary-care units, 99
- future role of, 99

Nutritional diseases, disappearance of, 53

Occupational ills, 35

Orthopedic defects, 85

Otitis media, in native Americans, 91

Pain, ischemic, 193

Pain syndrome, management of, 162

Paralysis, 61

- simulated, 193

Paraprofessionals in health care, 23, 102-115

Parenthood, preparation for, 194

Patient participation, 176-205

Patient sector, 36-39

People-power, 44

Perrone, Nicholas, 89

Personal health profiles, 196-197

Peterson, Osler, 72

Phenylketonuria, 92, 187

Physical therapy, 162

Physically handicapped, numbers of, 163

Physicians’ assistants, 39, 102-103

Physician’s family, health care in, 2, 181

Placebo effect, 53, 65

Postural reflexes, 193

Prenatal care, 84

Prepaid medical plans, 142-144

Preservation of life, 75

Preventable ills, 35

Prevention of disease, 58-60

Prevention of suffering, 75

Preventive maintenance, 63

Primary-care team, functions of, 23,
- 152-153, 156, 161, 162-163, 173

Problem list in personal health profile, 197

Productive life span, 75

Progressive relaxation, 162

Prophecy, hazards of, 12

Proprietary hospitals, 141

Protocols, 106-109

for low back pain, 107
Protocols (continued) for chronic diseases, 107 for upper-respiratory infections, 107
Psychosocial ills, 35
Public-health nurses, 102
Pulmonary disease, testing for, 159
Pupillary reflexes, 192
Quackery, definition of, 51
Quality of life, 75
Rapport between doctors and patients, 22
Reassurance, value of, 28
Records, personal health, 195-202 clinical data base, 199-200
  Medidata Card, 201-202
  Laboratory Data Profile, 200-201
Remedial management, 55
Remote areas, health care in, 116-117
Research resources, 49
Rh factor, 84
Rice, Dorothy, 93
Risk factors for infant illness, 90
Satellites, communication by, 118
Schizophrenia, simulation of, 92
Scribner, Belding, 69
Security requirements of the handicapped, 168-170
Self-fulfillment, 173-175
Self-help groups, 156
Self-testing, 160
Senior citizens, 71, 93
Service functions, growth of, 44
Service-oriented society, emergence of, 43-45
Shared support services, 139
Sickle-cell anemia, 84
Simulation and modeling methods, 7-9
Social needs of the handicapped, 170-173
Social Security Amendments for chronic renal disease, 69
Societal sector, 40-41
Socioeconomic disability, 31-33, 41
Southwest Research Laboratories, 168
Speech impairment, 85
Spina bifida, 73
Standard metropolitan statistical areas (SMSA), 55
Stockholm County, hospitals in, 132
Strang Clinic, 109
Straub Medical Research Institute, 105, 155

Suicide rate, 94
Sui-sickness, 35, 36, 38-39, 191-192
Supportive therapy, value added by, 54-55
Surplus people, 43-44
Sweden, hospitals in, 129
Swedish health-care prototype, advantages and disadvantages of, 134
Swedish Institute for Planning (SPRI), 132
Symptomatic management, 55
Symptoms and signs common, 183-184
  significance of, 182
Technical-support personnel, 104-105
Technological advances, 15, 69
Technological success, consequences of, 60-74
Teleclass service, 170
Telecommunications and health care, 119, 169-170
Telecontrol devices, 168
Television and health education, 177, 178, 202-203
Therapies, effectiveness of, 53-55
Third-party payments, 48, 49
Thompson, John, 138
Thorroughness, cost of, 27-28
Transportation systems for health care, 118, 120
Trauma, incidence of, 87-90
Treatment, nonscientific methods of, 161-163
Trend extrapolation, 7, 9
Typhoid fever, 60
Urban centers, 113
Value-added, 57-66
Venereal disease, 56
VIDA (alarms for heart irregularities), 170
Video cassettes, for health information, 161
Violence, 87
Visual disturbances, simulated, 192
Visual impairment, 85
Vital needs of the handicapped, 164
Williams, Robert, 73
Youth, health needs of, 87, 89