INDEX

Ability, and job transition, 74
Absences, as evidence of stress, 64–66, 139
Acceptance
apprehension about, 73–74
of mixed sex environment, 96
Achievement, emphasis on, 118
“Action research,” 7–8
Administrative positions, men in, 25. See also Management Affirmative Action programs, 38, 90, 135
Airline pilots, women as, 21
Alderfer, C., 106
Ambition, 27, 118–123
Anticipation, and job transition, 70–71. See also Expectations Anxiety and entry into groups, 105
of job loss, 136
about job transition, 88, 97
Appropriateness, of job, 214–215
Attitudes toward changing places, 72–74
of female employees, 44
of New Type men, 130
of Same Types, 161–162
work group, 31
Backward elimination technique, 52
Bakers, 3
Bartenders, 3
BCO, 37–39
Behavior
intergroup, 121 (see also Groups)
of New Type men, 130
in sex-atypical positions, 78
sex-related, 128
teasing, 83–86
tribal, 122
work group, 31
Behavioral science, 148
Biological determinism, 13
Blue-collar positions, 40
Blue-collar workers, 136
Busdrivers, 3
Caplow, T., 12
Career development planning, 140
Child care, men in, 22
Clerical positions
male-female proportions in, 169 men in, 59, 91–92, 117, 121, 146
in research sample, 39–40
women in, 3, 44, 60, 121, 146
Cluster sampling techniques, 155
Cognitive dissonance theory, 121, 122
Computers, 147
Corporate management
women in, 20–21. See also Management Counterstress, 63, 99, 127. See also Stress
Cronbach, E., 149, 150, 152
Culture
and concept of occupations, 14
and sexual division of labor, 12
Cutbacks
and absences, 139
and position of women, 67, 90
Data collection of, 155–156
sources for, 158
Depression, regression analysis of, 210–211. See also Anxiety Deviance, fear about, 77–78
Dictionary of Occupational Titles, 1, 2, 142
Distress, 27. See also Stress
DOT, 3
Douglass, J., 150
Dropouts, 93
Economics
and concept of occupations, 14
and social change, 142
Effeminacy, 27
Elementary school education, men in, 22
Employees
depression of, 210–211
development planning for, 140
expectations of, 110–113
female New Type, 44–45
female Same Type, 44
JDI work scores for, 54
and making it, 93
male New Type, 45
Employees (continued)
male Same Type, 43
New Type, 29–32, 61
questionnaire for, 162, 163–164
Employment. See also Jobs and choice factor, 46
length of, 45–46
Ephron, Nora, 5, 6, 11
Epstein, C., 19, 20, 21
Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 139
Equal opportunity, concept of, 138
Expectations, 109
after-job, 115
job, 110–113
and job transition, 29
of New Type men, 130, 133
of New Type women, 131
and occupational transition, 28
and Same Types, 161–162
sex-role related, 128
and sex-typed occupations, 15–16
Experimental control, 152
Federal government civil rights concerns of, 2 and promotion practices, 109 Feelings. See also Attitudes and job perceptions, 47
and job transition, 34
Femininity, 27
Feminists, 13, 22
Future
of New Types, 135
perceptions of, 109, 113, 114–116
and threat of cutbacks, 139
Gera, Bernice, 5, 11
Goffman, E., 151
Government, and social change,
142. See also Federal government
Gray-collar jobs, 41
Green, Ernest, 1–2, 142
Group, host
anticipation of, 75–77
and New Types, 77–78
and peer welcome, 80–83
and supervisor’s welcome, 78–80 Groups
boundary definitions in, 103
and cognitive dissonance, 121– 122 definition of, 101–102
Hennig, M., 20, 21
Hierarchy, organizational, 120, 122,
135. See also Organizational structure
History, and sex-typed occupations,
16
Hughes, E. C., 32
Hughes, Everett, 28–29, 96–97, 98, 99, 104
Index, job descriptive, (JDI), 54–57, 163
Intergroups
dynamics of, 102
embedded, 106
relationships, 105
theory, 101
Interviewers, 156–158
Interviews, 159
descriptive questions and scales, 165–166
order and sequence for, 159
pretest, 157
and questionnaire, 158
Janitors, 136
Job change. See also Occupational change
anticipation of, 70–71
process of, 28
and supervisors’ attitudes, 79
Job Diagnostic Index (JDI), 54–57, 60, 163, 206
Job Diagnostic Survey, 163
Job loss, 137
Jobs
appropriateness of, 214–215
and choice factor, 46
expectations about, 110–113
hierarchy for, 120, 122
identification with, 36
length of time on, 45–46, 52
and New Type versus Same Type, 206
self-perceived fit, 212–213
sex-typing of, 136
Job titles, changes in, 2
INDEX

Joking, 75–76, 77, 85
Junior crafts jobs, 40, 66–67
Junior planning technician, male-female proportions in, 169
Junior technician jobs, 41

Kadushin, A., 25
Kanter, Rosabeth, 18, 29, 30, 98, 104

Labor division of, 32
sexual division of, 11, 12, 17
Labor force
changes in, 2
male-female mobility in, 218 women in, 3, 14–15 (see also Women)
Law, women in, 19–20, 27, 28
Leaving, reasons for, 99–100
Lee, M., 78
Legitimacy, 31
Levi-Strauss, Claude, 12
Lewin, Kurt, 8
Librarians, 3
Librarianship, men in, 22
Locke, E., 62

“Maleness,” 119
Management
expectations about, 117
women in, 20–21, 141
Marginality, 29
Marshall, Ray, 2
Masculinity, 70–71
Mass media, and social change, 4
Mead, Margaret, 11, 12
Men
attitudes toward women, 73, 75
extra pressure on, 87
in female occupations, 22
in New Type positions, 114, 130–131
peer welcome for, 82
in sex-atypical positions, 86, 102
and upward mobility, 122
in women’s occupations, 18, 60
Methodology, 37, 42–46, 153 instruments and measures, 158 multiple regression analysis, 50–51, 57 (see also Regression analysis)
t-test, 48
work satisfaction model, 51–57
Meyer, H., 78
Minority groups, civil rights of, 2
Mobility, 29
blocked, 123
male-female, 218
organizational, 215–217
patterns of, 158
self-view of, 215–217
upward, 109, 122
Model, work satisfaction, 51–57
Motivation
job, 111–112
for male nurses, 24–25
of New Types, 116
in work transition, 5
Multiple regression analysis, 51, 57.
See also Regression analysis
Networks, occupational, 19
Newcomers, and peer behavior, 80–83
New types, 29–32, 126
arrival of, 75
attitudes of, 130
career development planning for, 140
expectations of, 111, 114
extra pressures on, 89–95
means and standard deviation for, 206–207
movement patterns of, 95
occupational movements of,
129–130
questions for, 160
versus Same Types, 48–50
Norms
sex-role related, 128
and sex-typed occupations, 16
Nurses, 4
Nursing, men in, 22, 23, 24–25, 28

Objectivity, 8
Occupational change. See also Job
change
media coverage of, 4–5 reasons for, 5–7
Occupations
conceptions of, 14
identification with, 36
Occupations (continued)
  segregation of, 32–33
  sex differentiation and, 11–15
  sex-typing of, 15
  stereotypic view of, 24
  women's, 14–15
Organizational structure, 135
  hierarchy of, 120, 122
  and research, 150–151
  and work situations, 47

Participants, in research project, 43–46

Peers
  training of, 134
  welcome of, 80–83
Perceptions, work-related, 47
Performances, 151–153, 212–214
  "Pink-collar" jobs, 40, 130
  "Pink-collar" workers, 135
Prejudices, stereotyped, 96
Pressure. See also Stress counterpressure, 99
  and job transition, 86–95
  measurement of, 61–63
Prestige
  and job transition, 33
  in male vs. female occupations, 26
Principal Components Analysis, 165
Promotion, 112. See also Mobility

Questionnaire
  employees', 158, 163–164
  supervisor's, 164
Questions
  interview, 159–160, 165
  for New Types, 160–161
  for research sample, 42, 69–70
  for Same Types, 161

Race car drivers, women as, 21–22
Regression analysis of absences, 64–65
  of depression, 209–210
  of job appropriateness, 214–215
  of organizational mobility, 215–217
  of social support, 210–212
  of work satisfaction, 208
Research. See also Methodology

Salaries, 158
Same Types, 126
  attitudes of, 161–162
  male, 141
  means and standard deviations for, 206–207
  movement patterns of, 95
  versus New Types, 48
  questions for, 161
Sample, research, 39–42, 43, 145
  changes in, 147
  selection of, 153–155
Satisfaction, job, 113–114
  measurement of, 53–57, 60, 61–63, 64
  and stress, 58–61, 127
  variation in, 56
Scale development, 164–165
Schein, E., 27–28, 30, 141
Schreiber, C., 141
Scott, George C., 23
Segal, B., 23
Segregation, occupational, 17, 18, 97
Self-perception, 34
Self-performance, evaluation of, 212–214
Self-view, and New Type versus Same Type, 206
Selye, H., 63, 66, 67, 127
"Semiprofessions," 19
Senior crafts jobs, 40–41
Senior planning technician, male-female proportions among, 169
Senior technician jobs, 40–41
Sex, division of labor by, 32
Sex roles, 128
Sexuality, apprehension about, 77
Socialization, sex-role, 123
Social support, 52
and job transition, 34–35
and New Type versus Same Type, 206
regression analysis of, 209–212
of supervisors, 78–80, 209–212
Social work, men in, 22, 23, 24, 25
Spearman-Brown reliability coefficients, 165
Status
inconsistency in, 122–123
and job change, 28–29, 33
in male versus female occupations, 26 and sex-typed occupation, 17–18
“Status incongruencies,” 121
Status inconsistency, 130
Stereotypes, sex-role, 104
Stress, 31, 126
absences as, 64–66, 139
conditions of, 50–51
counterstress, 63, 69, 127
and job loss, 136
and job transition, 38
measurement of, 61–63, 162–164
and occupational transition, 28
and satisfaction, 58–61
study of, 147
theory, 127
Supervisors, 52
attitudes of, 35
and employee mobility, 216–217
and New Type versus Same Type, 206
questionnaire for, 164
social support from, 209–212
training of, 134
welcome of, 78–80
Systematic correlation, 152

Target group, interview questions for, 160. See also Sample Teasing, 83–86
Technology
and personnel, 146
and social change, 142

Telephone operators, 3
Television, job stereotyping on, 23
Tokens, 29
pressure on, 98
role of, 30, 104
Training, on-the-job, 41, 154
T-test, 48
Turnover, 93
Usefulness, measurements of, 53, 55–56

Values, and sex-typed occupation, 17–18
Van Maanen, J., 27–28, 30
Victim, blaming, 100

Wetherby, Terry, 21, 26
White-collar workers, 135–136
Women, 86
attitudes toward men, 76
civil rights of, 2
in clerical positions, 3, 40, 60, 121, 146
and division of labor, 12
extra pressure on, 87–88
in high-status male occupations, 18
in male occupations, 19–22, 26
in management, 20–21, 141
in men’s jobs, 69–70
New Type, 116
peer welcome for, 80–82
perspectives on future, 119
in sex-atypical positions, 102
token roles for, 104
and upward mobility, 122
in workforce, 3, 14–15

Work
identification with, 36
and intergroup relationships, 106
sex-typed, 15–18

Workers, 93
blue-collar, 136
gray-collar, 41
JDI work scores for, 54
pink-collar, 40, 130, 135
in research project, 42–46
Workers (continued)
white-collar, 135–136
Work force, male-female mobility
in, 218. See also Labor force Work group. See also Groups composition of, 132
optimal sex composition of, 134
Work places
changes in, 125
interviews in, 159
Work satisfaction, regression model for, 208. See also Satisfaction