Index

A Afghanistan, 105
alliance formation to augment offensive capabilities, 201 to balance against threatening enemy, 199–200 bandwagoning, 202–203 to create aggregate power, 200 effect of states’ competing prescriptions, 206–207 obstacles to, 204–205
with offensive intentions, 201–202 as response to threats from neighboring states, 200–201 with threat of rogue state’s WMD, 209–213 with uncertainty, 208–209 Andre, David, 151
anthrax vaccinations, 4
Art, Robert, 84
Arunachalam, V.S., 127–128
Aspin, Les, 191n2, 192
Aum Shinrikyo cult, 3–4, 77, 83
Aziz, Tariq, 175, 179

B
Baker, James, 175, 179, 181 ballistic missiles
as carriers of WMDs, 57n10
Iran’s acquisition of, 110, 113
U.S. attacks during Gulf War on, 131–132
See also Scud missiles
Beg, Mirza Azlam, 129–130
Berlin crisis (1958), 43
Bhabba, Homi, 29–30
Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), India, 32–33 biological weapons countries developing, 61 home defense against attack by, 79–80 potential for use of, 4 Soviet and Russian programs of, 60
taboo against using, 81–85
use in warfare, 58, 60
Bosnia, 105
Bush, George, 171–172, 177, 179, 182–183
Butler, Lee, 296
chemical weapons
effect against military forces, 59 effective use of, 59
Iran’s capability to produce, 113–114 use by Iraq, 176, 178
Cheney, Richard, 171, 176–177, 181–183
China
development of atomic bomb, 21–22, 54, 67 as supplier of nuclear technologies, 118
U.S. concerns about WMD acquisition by, 198 Clinton, Bill, 79
coalition formation in response to rogue states’ acquisition of WMD, 213–219 states’ rationale for, 199–203 states’ reasons for not forming, 205–206 by U.S. to contain rogue states with WMDs, 221–226 Cold War
circumstances for military forces in Japan and Germany, 231–232 debate about nuclear weapons during, 270 deterrence model, 227–230, 238–241 deterrence theory of, 52 effect of nuclear deterrence on, 64 effects of end of, 55–56 influence of nuclear weapons during, 63–64 near-war crisis (1962), 76 nuclear deterrence model during, 6, 71 post–Cold War incentives to acquire WMDs, 55 command and control system, Iraqi, 132 comparative advantage of WMDs, 58 compellence, 78–81
Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty (CTBT), 5 reflecting intent, not proscribing, 69 shift in U.S. escape clause position, 47 containment policy, U.S., 221–226 Counter-Proliferation Initiative (CPI), U.S., 5, 191 counterproliferation policy, U.S. effect in North Korea, 186 Iran’s resistance to, 118 against Iraq, 186
as post–Cold War policy, 55 as preparation for NBC attacks, 273–274 response to countries’ proliferation incentives, 167–170 strategy toward Iran, 119–121 Cuban crisis, 43

decision-making domestic politics model of nuclear weapons development, 27–37 norms model of nuclear weapons development, 37–49 security model of nuclear weapons development, 20–27 de Gaulle, Charles, 41, 43–44 de Klerk, F.W., 23–24, 33–34
Department of Defense (DOD), Office of Counterproliferation Policy, 192n4 Desert Shield crisis. See Persian Gulf War deterrence alternatives to, 78–81
during Cold War, 63–64
Cold War deterrence model, 238–241 effect of nuclear, 71
of nuclear weapons in India and Pakistan, 198 superpower mutual, 75
deterrence, intrawar in actual U.S. planning for Desert Storm, 175–179 Cold War, 239–240
with a nuclear–armed Iraq, 178
U.S. plan from 1990 perspective, 174–175 uses for, 179
deterrence theory applied to biological and chemical weapons, 76–77, 83 of Cold War, 52, 63–64
logic of, 65–72
of utopian realists, 84
Domenici, Pete, 4

E
Eagleburger, Lawrence, 171 electromagnetic isotope separation (EMIS) estimates of time to repair bomb-damaged, 137–138 impact of U.S. bombing on devices and processes, 136–137 Iraqi enrichment facilities, 137 manufacture of devices in Iraq, 135–138 ethnic minorities, Iran, 106

F
Feldman, Shai, 66
foreign policy, Iranian, 99–102, 108 foreign policy, U.S. advantages in dealing with Iran, 118–119 containment policy, 118, 221–226 See also counterproliferation policy, U.S.
France
development of nuclear weapons, 21, 41–44, 56, 67

G
Gandhi, Indira, 30–31
Germany
disarmed at end of World War II, 231 military forces in occupied, 231–233 non-nuclear status, 232–233 Germany (continued)
post–World War II reform of, 236–238 punishment for World War II actions, 233–236
WMDs not permitted in, 232
Goldstein, Avery, 22
Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) basis for founding, 101 concerns related to Iran’s actions, 102–3 Gulf War Air Power Survey (GWAPS) analysis of air campaign against Iraqi Scud missiles, 131

H
hegemony
Iran’s quest for regional, 101–102, 108, 117

I
Iklé, Fred, 246, 247, 266–267, 271
India development and detonation of nuclear weapons, 6, 22, 28–29, 54, 57, 67, 85, 128, 195 domestic politics related to nuclear weapons, 28–33 economic sanctions against, 70 events prior to 1998 nuclear tests, 32–33 nuclear weapons as deterrent, 198 nuclear weapons relations with Pakistan, 129–130 International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) inspection of Iraqi EMIS installations, 137 inspection of suspected Iraqi nuclear program, 133–134 monitoring and enforcement incentives of, 37 safeguards for nuclear materials, 19
Iran
accountable regime of, 112–113 advantages in resisting counterproliferation policy, 118 demonization of the West by, 96–97, 100, 114–115 intent to export revolutionary ideas, 103–104 national myth of, 89–90 need for foreign investment and technical assistance, 118–119 nuclear technologies supplied by China, 118 quest for regional hegemony, 101–102, 108, 117 as rogue or backlash state, 191
Iran-Iraq War
Iran’s military strategy in, 113 use of chemical weapons, 59–60 Iraq
actual behavior during Persian Gulf War, 144 benefits from seizing Kuwait, 197 coalition against, 204
with hypothetical nuclear weapons (1990), 139–144, 172–173
hypothetical objectives in using hypothetical nuclear weapons, 144–151
Iran’s military defense against, 110
Iran’s relationship with, 102
Israel destroys Osirak reactor (1981), 75, 135
manufacture of EMIS devices, 135
under NPT, 69
as rogue or backlash state, 191 sources of uranium ore and enriched uranium, 135–136 U.S. planning reversal of Iraqi aggression from 1990 perspective, 173–179
U.S. targets during Gulf War, 131–144
WMD capability, 72, 195
Israel
destroys Iraqi nuclear reactor (1981), 75, 135
nuclear program, 6, 67

punishment for World War II actions, 233–236
Self-Defense Forces, 232–233
WMDs not permitted in, 232

K
Kahn, Herman, 246, 267–269
Kecskemeti, Paul, 241
Kennedy, John F., 53
Keynes, John Maynard, 57
Khalilzad, Zalmay, 193
Khatami, Muhammed, 109–110, 115, 119
Kohl, Wilfred, 43
KTO. See Kuwait Theater of Operations (KTO)
Kuchma, Leonid, 45
Kuwait
in hypothetical Iraqi attack using hypothetical nuclear weapons, 144–151, 158–159
U.S. view of Iraqi conquest of (1990), 160–167
Kuwait Theater of Operations (KTO) effect of bombing in, 184 intense military operations within, 180

L
Lake, Anthony, 87
Latin America
nuclear weapons–free zone, 24 law enforcement model, 227 Lebanon, 105
Libya, 191
Lugar, Richard, 4
McKinley, William, 285
Marshall Plan, 235
Martin, Michael, 43
Mendes-France, Pierre, 41 military sector
Iranian capability in, 108–112
Iranian strategy in Iran-Iraq War, 113
Iran’s nuclear and conventional modernization programs, 118
South Korea, 166
Taiwan, 166
missiles with nuclear warheads, 139–140 Molander, Roger, 193 mutual assured destruction, 51n1

national myth of intuitive states, 282 Israeli, 114
of a state, 88–89
national myth, Iranian concept of Islamic justice, 104 in development of U.S. counterproliferation policy, 119–120 dress code, 98
effect on relations with other Arab countries, 102 pre-Islamic Persian, 89–91, 103 revolutionary myth, 98–99, 108–109 Shi’ism as part of, 91–95, 113 strategic personality related to, 99 view of foreign policy and national security through, 99–100 NBC (nuclear, biological, and chemical) weapons aggressor’s choice to use, 249–252, 271 aggressor’s response to U.S. response to use of, 262–263 continued proliferation of, 3–7 countries trying to obtain, 3 creation of defenses against, 5 developing public awareness of need to counter NBC weapons, 6 initiatives to slow proliferation of, 4 means to deny NBC weapons to proliferators, 5–6 policies to prepare for use in potential war, 272–273 potential effect of proliferation, 4 potential for attacks by, 6 potential influence of United States on aggressors using, 289–299 predicting end of regional war, 272 spread of, 3
termination of warfare, 245, 247–249 U.S. response to aggressor’s use of, 252 vulnerability of U.S. military forces to attacks by, 273–274 See also WMDs (weapons of mass destruction) new institutionalism, 38 nonproliferation influence of domestic politics on U.S. policy, 35–36 treaties proscribing weapons, 69–70 norms
within international regimes, 39–40 of new institutionalism, 38 North Korea
 effect of U.S. counterproliferation policy in, 186
under NPT, 69
 nuclear program, 67
as rogue or backlash state, 191
 violation of NPT, 63
 NPT. See Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) nuclear commitments, first-use policy, 25 nuclear deterrence effect on Cold War, 64 logic of utopian realism, 70–78 Soviet-U.S. relationship, 6 Stability-instability paradox, 162
 Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) Article IV, 70n28, 186–187 conditions for violation of, 165 in domestic policy model, 36–37 extension (1995), 4 influence on proliferation norms, 41, 45–47 North Korea’s violation of, 63 nuclear and non-nuclear states under, 25–26, 44, 166, 232–233 potential for emerging norms against nuclear weapons, 48–49 promotion of development of power reactors, 19 reflecting intent, not proscribing, 69 treaty review conferences, 18, 187 U.S. commitment under Article VI, 37, 48 violation by North Korea, 63 nuclear power construction or operation of reactors, 19 Iran’s declaration to develop peaceful, 115–116 nuclear restraint
 Argentina and Brazil, 24, 35, 74 cause of, 25
 of most European countries, 42
 South Africa, 24, 33–35
 Ukraine, Kazakhstan, and Belarus, 24 nuclear technologies China’s as supplier to Iran, 118
 nuclear weapons
 disadvantages to acquisition of, 54–55 elements in countering Iran’s strategy for, 114 nuclear weapons (continued) hypothetical deterrence of Iraqi (1990), 139–144 hypothetical question of use in Gulf War, 144–151 hypothetical U.S. problems related to use of hypothetical, 144–151 international norms concerning acquisition of, 37–38 Iran’s constraint related to use of, 114–115 Iran’s incentives to pursue, 115 as political objects, 18, 59 potential for use in Persian Gulf War, 174–179 in regional conflict, 125–126, 157 sources of political demand for, 19 South Africa’s plan for use of, 130
taboo against using, 81–85
U.S. policy response to use of, 151–156
U.S. retention of, 236
See also India; nuclear weapons programs; Pakistan nuclear weapons–free zone (NWFZ), Latin America, 24 nuclear weapons programs cases of reversals of, 23–25 dedicated, 57
domestic politics model of states’, 18, 27–37 estimates of time to repair Iraq’s bomb-damaged facilities, 133–139 IAEA inspection teams, 133–134
Iran, 110–15
norms model of states’ acquisition and development, 18, 37–49 as political tools, 18 security model of states’, 18, 20–27, 49 as symbolic functions, 40, 42–44, 48 theories for why states develop, 18–20 U.S. Gulf air war against Iraqi, 132–139 U.S. suspension of testing, 4–5 nuclear weapons proliferation consensus view of causes of, 18 history of, 21
influence of NPT norms on, 41 initiatives to slow, 4 issues in developing response to, 88 liberals opposed to, 68–69 of NBC weapons, 3–7 shift in norms related to, 40–41 waves of concern (1960s, 1970s, 1990s), 55
See also counterproliferation policy
Nunn, Sam, 4

O
Office of Strategic Services, Economic Objectives Unit, 133 oil and gas reserves, Iranian, 116 Pakistan development and detonation of nuclear weapons, 6, 22– 23, 54, 57, 74, 85, 195
economic sanctions against, 70
Iranian ties with Islamic resistance in, 105
nuclear weapons as deterrent, 198
nuclear weapons relations with India, 129–130
Persian Gulf War
hypothetical Iraqi behavior with hypothetical nuclear weapons, 144–151
hypothetical question of nuclear weapons used during, 144–151
inferences from, 170–173
Iran’s neutrality in, 116
Iraqi behavior during, 144
U.S. targets in Iraq during, 131–144
Pickering, Thomas, 171
Poland
as NATO member, 56
policy issues domestic politics model of nuclear weapons development, 35–37, 50
of norms model of nuclear weapons development, 47– 50 related to actions if war comes, 272–273
of security model of nuclear weapons development, 25– 26, 50
U.S policy related to use of nuclear weapons, 151–156
See also foreign policy, Iranian; foreign policy, U.S.
Posen, Barry, 126
Powell, Colin, 172, 177–178, 181, 182
preemptive attack conditions for, 77
likelihood of, 76
U.S. preparation for (1962), 76
preventive war
conditions for, 77
incentives for, 76
probability of, 75–76
See also preemptive attack proliferation. See counterproliferation policy, U.S.; nonpro-liferation; Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT); nuclear weapons proliferation
Q
Questa, George, 266
R
Rafsanjani, Hashemi, 109, 115
RAND Corporation
survey of U.S. policy response to nuclear weapons use, 151–156, 157n2
rogue or backlash states with acquired WMDs, 191– 193 characteristics of, 194–199 containing, 209–226 perceived threat from, 196 rogue or backlash states (continued) potential for development of WMDs, 62–72 threats to use WMD, 209–226
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 285
Ross, Dennis, 171
Rusk, Dean, 198

S
Sagan, Scott, 64–65, 73
Sarabhai, Vikram, 30 Saudi Arabia
in hypothetical Iraqi attack using hypothetical nuclear weapons, 145–151 relationship with Iran, 102–103 support for direct intervention in Iraq, 182 Schwarzkopf, Norman, 177, 182
Scowcroft, Brent, 170, 177 Scud missiles attacks against Iraqi launch sites (1990–91), 131–132, 185 security, national interests shared by Iran and United States, 116 Iranian policy and strategy for, 99–100, 112 threats to U.S., 191n2
Shastri, Lal Bahadur, 29–30
Shi’a Islam, 104
Shultz, George, 20–21
Singh, Jaswant, 75
South Africa
domestic politics related to nuclear weapons, 33–35 nuclear weapons program, 23–24, 54 strategy for nuclear weapons, 130
South Korea
response against nuclear aggressor, 166 Soviet Union
development of nuclear weapons, 21
disintegration of, 267
as rogue state, 197
Stalin, Josef, 21 states alliance to create aggregate power, 200 augmenting offensive capabilities, 201 bandwagoning behavior, 202–203 characteristics of extroverted, 281–282, 284 characteristics of feeling states, 282–283 characteristics of intuitive, 282 circumstances for not forming coalition, 205–206 coalitions in response to threats from neighboring states, 200–201 coalitions to balance against threats, 199–200, 204–205 with offensive intentions, 202–202 See also rogue or backlash states states, non–nuclear Germany, Japan, Ukraine, Iraq, 44, 72, 166, 232–233 in NPT, 25, 44, 69–70, 166, 232–233 states, nuclear
in NPT, 25–26, 69–70, 232
nuclear weapons doctrine in new, 127–131
See also China; France; India; Pakistan; South Africa; United Kingdom; United States strategic personality potential influence on NBC aggressor of U.S, 289–299 types based on characteristics, 281 of United States, 280–289, 294 Suez Crisis (1956), 41–42
Sundarji, K., 127–129, 247–248
Sunni Islam, 105
Syria, 102

T
Taiwan, 166
terrorist groups
as exception to utopian realism, 77 potential use of WMDs by, 77–78
Thatcher, Margaret, 172
Tolubko, Volodomyr, 45
Turkey, 182

U Ukraine
bartering of nuclear weapons for economic aid, 56 nuclear restraint, 24, 44–47, 188
uncertainty
in assessing threat by rogue state, 219–220 as reason for alliance formation, 208–209 unipolarity supplants bipolarity, 267–268
United Arab Emirates (UAE), 102 United Kingdom
development of nuclear weapons, 21, 67
United Nations
IAEA inspectors operating in Iraq under, 134 program to root out Iraq’s NBC programs, 4 United States
ability to form and lead coalitions, 203–204 advantages in dealings with Iran, 118–119 commitment under Article VI of the NPT, 37, 48 counterproliferation efforts, 111–112, 118 creation of defenses against NBC weapons, 5 decision not to intervene directly in Iraq, 182 development of atomic bomb, 21 dual containment strategy, 118 efforts to isolate Iran and Iraq, 206 as hypothetical cowardly wimp, 269, 274 as hypothetical nuclear bully, 268–269, 274 United States (continued) hypothetical problems and actions related to hypothetical nuclear weapons use, 144–151, 158–160, 167– 170
influence of NPT norms on nuclear policy, 47
interventions in Iranian internal affairs, 96
missile with nuclear warhead, 139–140
nuclear first–use doctrine, 47– 48 planning reversal of Iraqi aggression from 1990 perspective, 173–179
policy under operation Earnest Will, 161
potential influence on NBC– armed aggressor, 289–299 predictions of behavior of, 286–289
retention of nuclear weapons by, 236
strategic personality of, 280– 289 support for states facing threats of rogue state, 212 suspension of nuclear testing,
4–5
targets in Iraq during Gulf War, 131–144
using its stewardship in man-ing crises, 270–271 view of Iraqi conquest of Kuwait (1990), 160–167
as winner of WMD war and peace, 267–268
as world’s premier military power, 267
U.S. Air Force
effectiveness measurements, 132–133
V
Vajpayee, Atal, 23, 129
W
Waltz, Kenneth, 52, 64–66, 71, 73, 77, 80–81
war, conventional between India and Pakistan, 198
between nuclear-armed adversaries, 162–165
wars
final outcome, 266–267
military outcomes of NBC, 263–266
termination by United States, 266
winning, 267
Western European Union
Treaty (1955), 232–233
Wilson, Peter, 193
Wilson, Woodrow, 285 WMDs (weapons of mass destruction) acquired by rogue, or backlash states, 191–192, 195– 199 biological weapons as, 60–61 CW as least efficient, 59–60 effect of continued proliferation of, 280
effect of widespread development of, 70
if used by renegade state, 241–244 not permitted in former Axis states, 232 nuclear, biological, and chemical, 57–58 overestimation of spread of, 54 post–Cold War incentives to acquire, 55–57 probable response to deployment of, 77 rate of spread of, 57–68 reasons for wanting, 61–68 states with incentives to acquire, 56–57, 61–63, 72–73, 195–199 what if they are used?, 81–85
See also NBC (nuclear, biological, and chemical) weapons Wolfowitz, Paul, 182

Y
Yost, David, 41

Z
Ziemke, Caroline, 280, 281, 289