

General Index

- Absences. See also Facts, negative; Void and abnormality criterion, 295
of absences, 283
as background conditions, 173–175
and biff, 284–285, 288, 448–449
cannot be causes, 25, 34–36, 49, 53, 281, 291–308
and causal explanation, 291, 293–294, 301, 304–306
and two concepts of causation, 253
as causes and effects, 99–102, 108–109, 112, 248–249, 341
as causes and effects on Lewis's original analysis, 19, 24–25, 144–145, 447
common sense and causation by, 294–297, 300, 306–307
and intrinsic character of causation, 240–241, 244, 248–252
location of, 243, 248–249
moral norms and the causal status of, 293, 296–299, 306 and the nature of causal relata, 48–49, 77, 100, 151, 281–282, 314
and neuron diagrams, 232
and nonrelational view of causation, 100, 283, 292, 298–300, 304
ontological status of, 49, 100, 145, 248, 254, 281–283, 304, 448
and probabilistic causation, 376
and production, 226, 256, 260
spurious cases of causation by, 298, 301
and transitivity of causation, 198–199, 252
- Accommodation, rule of, 405
- Action at a distance
and causation at a distance, 85
and double prevention, 29, 184, 198, 242–243
as a far-fetched case, 38, 422
excluded from analyses of dependence and production, 226, 232, 258–259
and intrinsic character of causation, 240
in interaction diagrams, 439
and Lewis's treatment of early preemption, 24, 33, 373
and Locality thesis, 238, 242–243
and trumping preemption, 65–66, 215
- Actual causation, 404, 410, 416
- Agency, 60–61
- Agency theory of causation, 449, 455
- Albert, David, 8
- Alterations of an event, 88–96, 99, 103–104, 146, 215–221, 345
- Ancestral dependence maneuver
and backtracking, 234
and causation as influence, 51, 93, 95–96, 216–217
and the fragility strategy, 88
in Lewis's original analysis, 22, 39, 79, 121, 141–142, 206, 267, 310, 420, 445
and trumping preemption, 67–70
- Armstrong, D. M., 13, 32, 48, 50, 59, 63–64, 319
- Aronson, J., 456
- Aspect analysis of causation, 43, 52–53, 186–189, 197, 205–222, 330, 345, 365
- Australian rules football, 286
- Background conditions, 52, 143–144, 146, 169, 172–178, 190, 403. See also Normal conditions
- Backtracking
and aspect analysis of causation, 220
and contrastive causation, 352
and contrastive explanation, 149–150, 177
and Dependence thesis, 181, 200
and Lewis's original analysis, 17–19, 78, 141, 233–235, 445
and naive counterfactual analysis, 326
and neuron diagrams, 435
and production, 262
and similarity of worlds, 5–9, 165
and spurious causation, 163
and transitivity of causation, 247
- Backup systems, 421–423, 428, 451
- Backward causation, 6–12, 17, 38, 226, 232, 240, 258–259, 388, 390, 393, 400
- Barker, Stephen, 401
- Beebee, Helen, 25, 34–36, 48–50, 53, 401
- Bennett, Jonathan, 20, 96, 130–131, 229–231, 253, 330, 335
- Berkovitz, Joseph, 417
- Biff, 53, 283–288, 448–449
- Blocker. See Screener
- Blueprint strategy. See Production
- Bohm, David, 415
- Byrne, Alex, 380
- Canberra plan. See Causal functionalism
- Carroll, John, 63–64
- Cartwright, Nancy, 12, 158, 403
- Causal
action (see Biff)
functionalism, 76, 279–287, 452–453
models, 158–166, 170–178
process theories (see Physical connection accounts of causation)
relevance, 359–380
relevance neutralizer (see Neutralizer)
tendencies, 404, 410, 416
- Causation at a distance, 85, 240, 388. See also Action at a distance
- Centering principle, 141, 162, 164, 166
- Ceteris paribus conditional probabilities, 411
- Ceteris paribus laws. See Laws

- Chance, 7, 359, 377. See also Probabilistic causation; Probability background, 387–388, 391–392 overall world (ow-), 55, 387, 391–398
 Chance-raising analyses of causation, 387–401
 Charleston, Rob, 401
 Chisholm, Roderick, 3, 348–349
 Chrisley, Ron, 401
 Coady, David, 46, 54, 226
 Collingwood, R. G., 144
 Collins, John, 26, 51–52, 75, 115, 272
 Common effects problem, 261
 Commonsense causal judgments, 197, 295–296, 299–301, 305–307
 Comparative similarity. See Similarity
 Conceptual analysis and synthesis, 30–39, 159
 Conserved quantity theory of causation. See Physical connection accounts of causation Context dependence of causation, 5, 31, 139, 141–142, 327, 331, 341–345, 348, 441
 of causal judgments, 178, 274–275, 341
 of counterfactuals, 5, 78, 141, 178, 341, 348
 of explanation, 345
 of sentences in general, 346
 Context of inquiry, 143
 Context of occurrence, 143
 Contrastive account of causation, 42, 54, 330, 341, 351, 363–364, 405
 Contrast situation, 341–343, 346–347, 352–353
 Control, 440
 Control conditional, 167, 169
 Conway, John H., 424–425, 428
 Cotenability, 4
 Counterfactual covariation, 51, 61, 257. See also Influence, causation as Counterfactual dependence
 and absences, 254, 294, 296, 298
 of alterations of the effect on alterations of the cause, 91
 and ancestral maneuver (see Ancestral maneuver) of aspects, 213
 asymmetry or symmetry of, 388, 419
 and causal explanation, 270
 and causation, the basic idea, 3
 as one of two concepts of causation, 53, 200, 225–227, 257
 and two concepts of causation, 287
 defined, 1, 109, 279
 and difference-making, 166
 difficult cases to classify, 271–274
 kinds of, other than whether–whether, 86–88, 92–93, 113, 146
 and naive counterfactual analysis, 326, 336
 noncausal, 101, 332
 not intrinsic, 279
 not necessary for causation, 67, 181, 419–420
 not transitive, 39, 202
 in Lewis’s original analysis, 15–16, 22–23, 141, 387
 probabilistic, 280
 without production, 253, 256, 268
 and production often coincide, 265–266
 and simple counterfactual analysis, 206
 sufficient for causation (see Dependence thesis) and switching, 191
 and vagueness, 219–220
 Counterfactuals
 causation, do not settle facts about, 424–426 and chance, 7
 context dependence of (see Context dependence of counterfactuals)
 defined, 2
 Dowe, 448–449
 Hume, 419–429, 436–440
 intransitivity of, 93
 Kvart semantics for, 376–378
 metalinguistic theory, 153
 natural divergence, 377
 nonmonotonicity, 3–4
 Stalnaker–Lewis semantics for, 4–7, 90, 219, 234, 321, 348–349
 tacit premise view, 349
 vagueness of, 219–220, 349
 Counterlegals, 163, 278–279
 Covering law analysis. See Deductive-nomological analysis
 Cutting, 81–82

 Davidson, Donald, 16–17, 209, 212, 291, 301, 310–314, 321
 Davidsonian account of causation, 16–17
 Decision making, 269
 Decreaser. See Increaser
 Deductive-nomological analysis of causation, 77
 De facto dependence analysis of causation, 52, 126–135
 Default settings, 160
 Delaying or hastening, 35, 86–87, 89, 92, 130–133, 229–230, 373
 Dependence (as opposed to production). See Counterfactual dependence Dependence modulo G, 122–124, 132, 134
 Dependence prevention, 51, 110–112, 117
 Dependence thesis. See also Counterfactual dependence
 and absences, 198–199
 conflicts with Intrinsicness, 226, 241–242, 244–246, 256, 258–259

- conflicts with Locality, 241–243, 256
- conflicts with Transitivity, 182–184, 193, 195–202, 241–242, 246–248, 256, 267
- cornerstone of counterfactual analysis, 226, 253
- paired with Omissions, 226, 256–257
- stated, 52, 181, 225
- Determinism, 309–310
- Difference-making, 52, 39–140, 143, 151–154, 161–162, 166–167, 169–178
- Differentiators, 366–370
- Dispositions, 114–117
- Dorr, Cian, 117, 401
- Double preemption. See Double prevention
- Double prevention
 - and absences, 85
 - no causal process in, 184
 - causal relation extrinsic in, 83, 85, 110, 285
 - vs. causation, 41, 198
 - contrasted with probabilistic cases, 394, 400
 - and counterfactual covariation, 257
 - and delaying, 87
 - and Dependence thesis, 226, 241–242, 252–253
 - in detailed workings, 273, 286, 438
 - examples of, 28–29, 84–85, 241–242, 263–264, 374–375
 - excluded from blueprint strategy, 258, 263
 - and explanation, 195–196, 253
 - laws that do/do not permit, 243
 - and persistence, 268
 - preemptive, 102
 - and preemptive prevention, 116, 272
 - and probability-raising analysis, 374–375
- Dowe, Phil, 13, 91, 294, 401, 411, 417, 448–449, 456–457
- Dretske, Fred, 63–64, 405
- Ducasse, C. J., 152
- Duplication, 259, 263
- Edgington, Dorothy, 380
- Eells, Ellery, 403–404, 413–414, 417
- Effects, problem of, 388
- Egalitarian concept of causation, 227–230, 388
- Ehring, Douglas, 13, 350
- Elga, Adam, 7, 8
- Enabling conditions, 119–120
- Enfeeblers, 126–127, 132, 134
- Ennoblers, 119–120, 122, 126–127
- Entropy, 8
- Epiphenomena, problem of, 388
- Events
 - as causal relata, 44, 211, 140, 227, 310–314, 329, 342, 388
 - distinctness of, 44, 325, 228
 - extrinsic, 332
 - individuation of, 21, 22, 45–48 (see also Fragility)
 - Kim's theory of, 212
 - no negative events, 49, 291, 314–315
 - nonoccurrence of, 20, 21
 - precise specification of, 411–412 (see also Fine-grained event analysis)
 - profligate theory of, 329–330, 334
- Evidence, causes as, 62
- Experimental-and-control contrast, 152–153, 167
- Experimental conditional, 167, 169
- Explanation
 - and absences, 291
 - absences can figure in causal explanation without being causes, 54, 293, 304–305
 - not all causal explanations report causation, 34, 301–302
 - contrastive, 147–150, 176–178
 - Davidson and Mellor on, 301
 - and double prevention, 195–196, 253, 267
 - and egalitarian concept of causation, 231
 - pragmatics of, 306–307
 - process and program explanation, 303, 306
 - roles of dependence and production in, 270
 - and switching, 188
 - and trumping preemption, 60
- Explanation test, 188, 195–196
- Extrinsic absence of disabling factors problem, 245, 250–251
- Extrinsic presence of enabling factors problem, 245, 250, 252
- Extrinsic properties, 155–157
- Factors, 151
- Facts
 - aspects are as fine-grained as, 221
 - as causal relata, 49, 54, 227, 254, 292, 301–302, 306, 310–316, 321, 330
 - are not causal relata, 100
 - as causal explainers, 304
 - individuation of, 313
 - negative facts, 49, 54, 254, 314–316, 319–320
 - negative facts cannot have effects by being related to them, 317
 - negative facts are located, 320
- Fair, David, 13, 91, 283, 456
- Fales, Evan, 454
- Fallback scenario, 125, 127–129, 132, 135–136
- Far-fetched examples, 37–39, 65–67, 113, 422
- Field, Hartry, 97, 119, 183, 336, 342, 350
- Fine, Kit, 6
- Fine-grained event analysis, 45, 205, 207–211, 354–355, 411–413
- Finkish dispositions, 115, 121

- Finkish trumping, 52, 116–117
 Fodor, Jerry, 157
 Fragility
 and alterations of an event, 88, 99, 146, 216
 of events, 45, 205, 211, 328
 and late preemption, 45–47, 85–87, 331–333, 420
 and proliferation of spurious causes, 46, 88–90, 206–207, 229–230, 328–330
 of propositions, 87–88
 and trumping preemption, 70–71, 333–335
 Frankfurt, Harry, 95
 Future similarity objection, 6–7
- Ganeri, Jonardon, 133, 401
 Garfinkel, Alan, 147
 Giere, Ronald, 158
 Goldman, Alan, 380
 Goodman, Nelson, 3, 348
 Goosens, William, 422
 Grice, H. P., 147, 151
- Hall, Ned, 75, 117, 222, 380, 401
 and aspects, 44
 and backtracking, 18
 and two concepts of causation, 31–32, 50, 53
 and double prevention, 28–29, 84, 92, 110, 374, 438
 and preemptive prevention, 103–104
 and switching, 136
 and transitivity of causation, 41, 44, 52, 97, 349–350
- Hart, H. L. A., 143–144, 167–170, 295
 Hastening. See Delaying or hastening
 Hausman, Daniel, 343, 354, 417
 Heathcote, Adrian, 455
 Heinlein, Robert, 95
 Hempel, Carl, 150, 177–178
 Hilpinen, Risto, 380
 Hitchcock, Christopher, 27, 55–56, 222, 330, 342, 363–364, 371, 380
 Holes, 282
 Holland, 342
 Honore, A. M., 143–144, 167–170, 295
 Horwich, Paul, 326
 Hume, David, 1, 75–77, 119–120, 169, 379, 419, 454
 Humean supervenience, 446
 Humphreys, Paul, 403, 406–409, 416–417
- Immanent causation, 447
 Increases, 360–362, 364, 366–376
 Indeterminism. See Probabilistic causation
 Indirect causation, 285
- Inertial behavior, 436–437
 Influence, causation as, 91–96, 103, 113, 146, 205, 215–221, 345
 Inhibitors of inhibitors, 394, 400. See also Double prevention Interaction diagrams, 439, 441
 Interfering factors, 157–158, 160, 162–167, 169–170, 175–176
 Intervention, 144, 157, 164–167
 Intrinsic character of causation. See also Intrinsicness thesis
 and absences, 240–241, 249–252
 not given a priori, 285
 and biff, 285
 and the blueprint strategy for production, 258–259, 262
 and causal functionalism, 279–281
 and two concepts of causation, 53, 253, 256–257, 285
 and causation at a distance, 85, 240
 and double prevention, 29, 83–85, 110, 226, 244–245, 252
 and late preemption, 82, 237–239
 more or less strict senses of ‘same intrinsic character’, 239–240, 244, 258–259
 as an overhasty generalization, 85, 101, 282
 and quasi-dependence, 82–85, 110
 and singular causation, 456
 and switching, 188
 and trumping preemption, 83
 Intrinsicness thesis
 and blueprint strategy for production, 258–259, 262
 bundled with Locality and Transitivity, 253, 256–257
 conflicts with Dependence, 226, 241–242, 244–246, 256, 258–259
 conflicts with Omissions, 248–252
 first stated, 225
 more carefully formulated, 239–241, 244
 Intrinsic properties, 155–157, 159, 161
 Intuitions about cases, 200–201, 242
 INUS conditions analysis of causation, 53, 432
- Jackson, Frank, 116, 303
 Johnston, Mark, 115
 Joseph, Geoffrey, 157
- Keller, Simon, 93
 Kim, Jaegwon, 22, 78, 101–102, 155, 207–209, 211–212, 325, 342, 354
 Kinds (vs. concepts) of causation, 255–256, 285–286
 Kripke, Saul, 115
 Kripkean necessity, 456

- Kvart, Igal, 27, 38–39, 55, 183–184, 187, 194, 413, 417
 Kvart's counterfactual analysis of causation, 379–380
- Lange, Marc, 380
 Lawful entailment, 218–221
 Lawlike generalizations, 432–434
 Laws of nature
 and absences, 260, 316
 and action at a temporal distance, 243
 and biff, 288–289
 and causal models of systems, 158–167, 170–172, 177
 causes subsumed under, 60
 ceteris paribus, 157–158, 166–167
 and deductive-nomological analysis of causation, 77
 determining truth of causal claims, 421–429, 441
 determining truth of counterfactuals, 5, 279, 377, 445, 448
 and Dowe counterfactuals, 449
 Dretske–Tooley–Armstrong account of, 63–64, 319, 446, 455
 dynamical, 262
 exceptionless, 166, 279
 of inertia and deviation, 14, 56, 430–431
 and intrinsic character of causation, 110, 198, 239, 244, 252
 in Lewis's original analysis, 16, 232
 as link between counterfactuals and causation, 420–442
 Mill–Ramsey–Lewis account of, 62–64, 425, 429, 446
 and nomological entailment accounts of causation, 14–15
 and physical connection accounts of causation, 449, 456
 physicalism about, 432
 primitivism about, 63–64, 432
 probabilistic, 19, 26–27, 38, 79, 388, 392
 quasi-Newtonian, 431–442
 realism about, 432
 reductionist accounts of, 12
 and regularity analysis of causation, 205, 214, 218
 singular causation as instantiation of, 455–456
 and systems, 156, 159
 in Tooley's antireductionist argument, 34
 and the void, 278
 zero-force, 161
- Lear's maxim, 315, 318, 448
 Lewis, David, 117, 222, 355, 457
 and absences as causes, 19, 24–25, 36, 77, 79, 99–104, 145, 281–284, 288, 292–294, 447–448
 and absences of absences, 283
 and action at a distance, 85, 422
 and alterations of an event, 88–96, 99, 103–104, 146, 215, 345
 and ancestral maneuver, 22–24, 68, 79, 88, 93–96, 121, 129, 141–142, 216–217, 310, 373, 445
 and asymmetry of counterfactual dependence, 388
 and background conditions, 144, 146, 169
 and backtracking, 5–8, 17–19, 78, 141, 149, 176–177, 233, 445
 and backward causation, 6–7, 388, 390
 and biff, 53, 283–289
 and cases difficult to classify, 286
 and causal functionalism, 76, 279–287
 and causal relata, 77–78, 100, 102, 140, 145, 151, 281–283
 and causation at a distance, 85, 388
 and causation without causal relata, 48–49, 53, 282–283, 292
 and centering principle, 141, 162, 166
 and conceptual analysis, 30, 33
 and context dependence of causation, 141–142, 144
 and context dependence of counterfactuals, 78, 141
 and context dependence of explanation, 172
 and counterfactual dependence, 86–88, 91–93, 101, 113, 146, 166, 287, 279, 292
 and counterfactual variance, 61
 and counterlegals, 279
 and delaying and hastening, 35, 86–87, 89, 92, 229–231, 329
 and difference-making, 139
 and dispositions, 115–116
 and double prevention, 83–85, 87, 102, 285–286, 400
 and egalitarian notion of cause, 388
 and events, 101–102, 140, 208, 211–212, 328–329, 342, 354, 388
 and explanation, 100–101, 142, 147–151, 172, 177, 293, 302–304
 and extrinsic events, 332
 and facts as causes, 100
 and far-fetched examples, 422
 and fragility, 70, 85–88, 89–90, 99, 146, 208, 229–231, 328–329, 333–335
 and future similarity objection, 6
 and holes, 282
 and Humean supervenience, 446
 and indeterministic causation, 376, 387
 and indirect causation, 285
 and influence, 2, 39, 51, 55, 91–96, 102–103, 113–114, 146, 205, 215–218, 237, 345

- Lewis, David (cont.)
 and intrinsic character of causation, 82–85, 110, 238–239, 279, 281, 285
 and kinds vs. concepts of causation, 285–286
 and laws of nature, 12, 62–63, 279, 288–289, 425, 429, 446
 and limit assumption, 166
 and mark transmission, 91
 and mereology, 282
 and miracles, 7–11, 78, 445
 and missing relatum problem, 281–283
 and natural kinds, 286
 and neuron diagrams, 231–232, 291, 336, 435, 446
 and nomological entailment accounts, 15, 77, 80
 original analysis of causation, 1, 15–24, 140, 320–321, 371, 387, 419
 and overdetermination, 120
 and perceiving causation, 75–76
 and possibility, 278
 and possible worlds, 445
 and pragmatics, 36, 142, 147, 346
 and preemption, 23, 79–92, 96, 120–121, 129, 142, 146, 217, 327, 336, 372–373, 388
 and preemptive prevention, 102–104
 and probabilistic causation, 19, 24, 55, 79, 370, 376, 387–393, 404, 407–409, 414, 416, 449–450
 and problems of effects and epiphenomena, 388
 and profligate causation, 139–140, 143, 145, 147, 208–209
 and quasi-dependence, 68, 82–85, 109–110
 and redundant causation, 75, 80, 146, 208–209, 326–327, 332–336
 and regularity analyses, 1, 419
 and reification of absences, 282
 and rule of accommodation, 331, 336
 and semantic satisficing, 280, 283
 and semantics for counterfactual conditional, 3–4, 20–21, 90, 93, 164, 166, 321, 348, 445
 and similarity, 4–11, 141, 154, 162, 164, 176–177, 335, 349, 445
 and simple counterfactual analysis of causation, 67, 75–78, 80, 279, 325, 327, 336
 and simultaneous causation, 388
 and singular causation, 388, 446–452
 and spoils to the victor, 32
 and spurious causation, 70, 88, 216, 219–220
 and supervaluation, 330
 and supervenience, 283–284, 287–288
 and temporal asymmetry, 7–8
 and theoretical entities, 452–453
 and transitivity of causation, 41–42, 68, 78, 93–94, 96–99, 102, 141, 201, 216–217, 309, 379, 388, 390
 and trumping preemption, 80–82, 92–93, 113, 333
 and the void, 277–278, 281–282, 289, 306, 315–316
 Life, game of, 424–432
 Limit assumption, 166
 Locality thesis
 bundled with Intrinsicness and Transitivity, 257
 conflicts with Dependence, 226, 241–243, 248
 conflicts with Omissions, 248–249, 252
 and late preemption, 238
 stated, 225
 Lombard, Lawrence, 229–231
 Lowe, E. J., 310
- Mackie, John
 and difference-making, 143, 151–153, 162–167, 178
 and experiment-and-control contrast, 152–153, 167
 and explanation, 170
 and field of normal conditions, 160, 167, 178
 and INUS conditions account, 53
 and regularity analysis of causation, 1, 15, 22, 77, 258, 261
 Mackie, Penelope, 87
 Macrotaxonomy, 432–435
 Malcolm, Norman, 446
 Mark transmission. See Physical connection
 accounts of causation
 Martin, C. B., 115
 Masking, 52, 114–115
 Maslen, Cei, 5, 42, 54, 117
 Matching. See Duplication Maudlin, Tim
 and concepts vs. kinds, 255
 and extrinsic events, 332
 and laws of inertia and deviation, 14, 56
 and laws as primitive, 63–64
 and preemptive prevention, 26, 37
 and third-factor account of causation, 16, 56
 and philosophical trench warfare, 227
 and semantics for counterfactuals, 234, 326
 McDermott, Michael, 457
 and double prevention, 84, 110
 and minimal counterfactual sufficiency, 68, 70–71
 and preemptive prevention, 102, 107–108, 112, 272, 435–438
 and profligate theory of events, 329
 and transitivity of causation, 96, 183, 186–187, 201, 390
 McGrath, Sarah, 25
 Mellor, Hugh, 10, 48–49, 54, 292, 301–302, 306, 389
 Mental causation, 178, 221

- Menzies, Peter, 457
 and absences as causes, 48–50
 and background conditions, 52
 and causal functionalism, 279–283, 287
 and continuous processes, 67–68
 and difference-making, 50, 52
 and intrinsic character of causation, 278–279
 and perception of causation, 454
 and probabilistic causation, 406, 413–414
 and singular causation, 452–452, 454–455
- Mereology, 186, 207–208, 282, 325
- Methodology, 30–39, 183, 200–202, 227–230, 254–257, 274
- Michotte, A., 454
- Mill, J. S., 144, 147, 151, 169
- Mimicking, 116
- Minimal-counterfactual sufficiency, 68–71
- Minimal-dependence sets, 68–70
- Minimal sufficiency, 260–266
- Miniworlds, 153–154
- Miracle, 5–11, 78, 166, 435, 445
- Morgenbesser, Sidney, 7
- Naive counterfactual analysis of causation
 and backtracking, 232–234
 not refuted by standard preemption cases, 54, 325–336
 and preemption, 120
 and production, 258
 stated, 120, 225, 233
 target of the analysis, 227–228
- Natural kinds, 159, 286
- Neta, Ram, 355
- Network model of causation, 291–294, 302, 307
- Neuron diagrams, 17–20, 231–232, 335–336, 434–435, 441, 446, 448
- Neutralizers, 55, 365–375
- Newtonian mechanics, 421–430
- Nomological entailment accounts of causation, 13–15, 77, 80
- Noordhof, Paul, 133, 401
- Normal conditions and worlds, 50, 160–167, 170–177
- Normative considerations and causation, 25, 54, 296–297
- Objectivity of causation, 441–442
- Occasionalism, 284
- Omissions. See Absences
- Omissions* thesis
 conflicts with Intrinsicness, 248–252, 256, 258–259
 conflicts with Locality, 248–249, 252, 256
 conflicts with Transitivity, 248 252, 256
 paired with Dependence, 226, 256–257
 stated, 226
- Opacity. See transparency assumption
- Ordinary language, 453
- Overall world chance (ow-chance). See Chance
- Overdetermination, 32–33, 51, 109, 120, 129–130, 258, 327, 336, 387
- Papineau, David, 401
- Parascondola, M., 408
- Pargetter, Robert, 116
- Paul, L. A., 75, 117, 417
 and aspect causation, 43–44, 52–53, 186–187, 189, 197, 330, 345
 and delaying or hastening, 87, 132, 237
 and transitivity, 43–44, 52–53, 186–187
- Perceiving causation, 56, 75–76, 453–454
- Persistence through time, 268, 447
- Pettit, Philip, 303
- Physical connection accounts of causation, 13–14, 91, 283–284, 411, 449, 456
- Physicalism, 159
- Pietrowski, Paul, 158
- Platitudes. See Causal functionalism
- Plato, 119–120
- Polarity problem, 123
- Pragmatic considerations, 36–37, 147, 405
- Precision assumption, 71
- Prediction, 440
- Preemption
 and alterations of an event, 88
 and ancestral dependence maneuver, 96, 121, 129, 146, 234
 and aspect analysis of causation, 219–220
 and causation as influence, 92, 95–96, 216, 237
 and contrastive causation, 341
 and cutting, 81–82
 and deductive-nomological analysis, 79–80
 and de facto dependence, 128
 and delaying or hastening, 131, 237
 and dependence modulo G, 123
 double (see Double prevention)
 vs. double prevention, 198
 early, 23, 80–82, 96, 214, 234, 262–263, 372–373, 388
 and fragility, 46, 85–87, 328
 late, 23, 82, 85–87, 146, 214–215, 219–220, 235, 237–239, 263, 371
 and overdetermination, 109, 120, 327, 336
 and preemptive prevention, 26
 and probabilistic causation, 55, 359, 371–374
 and probability-raising without causation, 406
 and production, 262–263

- Preemption (cont.)
 and quasi-dependence, 83, 238–239
 simple counterfactual analysis not refuted by, 325–336
 and spurious causation, 89–90, 219–220
 and transitivity of causation, 35
 trumping (see Trumping preemption)
 and would-be dependence analysis, 111–112
 Preemptive prevention, 26, 37, 51–52, 102–104, 107–117, 272, 435–438
 Prevention. See Absences as causes and effects;
 Double prevention
 Prior, Elizabeth, 116
 Probabilistic causation. See also Chance;
 Probability
 and causal functionalism, 280, 455
 and causal processes, 410–411
 causal relevance account of, 359–380
 and contrastive causation, 341–342, 405
 and event specification, 411–412
 and far-fetched cases, 38
 and Lewis's original analysis, 19, 24, 403–404
 as nomological entailment, 15
 problems for, 26–27, 55, 79, 403–409
 and quantum mechanics, 415
 and singular causation, 449–451
 Probabilistic relevance, 366–368
 Probability
 increase (or decrease), 359–376
 lowering causes, 55, 359–360, 403–405
 pool, 55, 407–408, 413, 416
 raising noncauses, 27, 55, 79–80, 370, 403, 406–409 Processes
 and causation by absence, 307
 continuous, 68–70
 and double prevention, 85, 184
 and interaction diagrams, 439
 and intrinsic character of causation, 238–239, 456
 and physical connection accounts of causation, 91
 and preemption, 237
 and probabilistic causation, 410–411
 and production, 200, 260–261
 and switching, 188, 191, 193–198
 Production
 analyzed as ancestral of proximate causation, 265
 ancestral of dependence, typically coincides with, 254, 265–266
 blueprint strategy for, 257–265
 causal explanatory role of, 270
 vs. dependence, 53, 200, 225–227, 231, 240, 267
 without dependence, 253, 256, 269
 difficult cases to classify, 271–274, 438
 irrelevant to decision making, 269
 required for persistence, 268
 transitivity of, 264
 Profligate causation, 139, 142–143, 185, 249
 Properties, 213, 220
 Property causation, 221
 Property instances. See Aspect analysis of causation
 Proximate causation, 258, 265, 438
 Pure causal history, 265
 Quantum mechanics, 415
 Quasi-dependence, 67–69, 82–85, 109–110, 113
 Quine, Willard V. O., 1, 5, 348
 Ramachandran, Murali, 27, 55, 68–70, 82, 133
 Ramsey, Frank, 317
 Reductionist accounts of causation, 12–16, 19, 27, 30, 31, 34
 Redundant causation
 and causation as influence, 146, 205
 defined, 80, 109, 111, 326–327
 and difference-making, 140
 and fine-grained events, 208
 and fragility, 332–333, 335–336
 and simple counterfactual analysis, 75
 Regularity analysis of causation, 1, 19, 205, 209, 214–215, 218, 220, 342, 449, 455
 Reichenbach, Hans, 91
 Relata, causal
 absences as, 77, 226
 aspects as, 43, 48, 205, 211–212, 219, 221
 causation without, 49, 53, 282–283
 events as, 44–48, 78, 102, 140, 151, 206, 218, 220, 227, 291
 factors as, 151
 facts as, 49, 54, 227, 254, 292, 301–302, 306, 310–316, 321, 330
 problem of missing, 100, 281–283
 Relational/nonrelational views of causation, 292–300, 304–306, 313, 317–321
 Remote causation, 439–440
 Responsibility, 440
 Reverser. See Increaser
 Rey, Georges, 158
 Rice, Hugh, 132
 Risk analysis, 408
 Robustness. See Fragility
 Rosen, Deborah, 404
 Rosen, Jacob, 114, 117
 Rule of accommodation, 331, 336
 Russell, Bertrand, 345, 447
 Saliency, 189–191, 197, 230–231, 345
 Salmon, Wesley, 13, 91, 404, 411
 Schaffer, Jonathan, 75, 117, 222, 417

- and double prevention, 438
- and trumping preemption, 28, 34, 50–51, 113–114, 134, 257, 401
- Schiffer, Stephen, 158
- Screener, 367–376
- Second-class causation, 430
- Selection function, 219, 349
- Semantic satiscfing, 280
- Semifactuals, 378–379
- Shoemaker, Sydney, 12, 318, 322
- Short-circuit structure, 182, 187, 192–195
- Similarity
 - and backtracking, 177
 - and causal models, 160, 162–165, 178
 - and centering principle, 141, 162
 - context dependence of, 154, 156, 178, 300, 348–349
 - future, 6–7, 335
 - metric, 299
 - and Stalnaker–Lewis semantics for counterfactuals, 4–9
 - and vagueness, 220
- Simple counterfactual analysis, 109, 206, 423. See also Lewis, original counterfactual analysis; Naive counterfactual analysis
- Simultaneous causation, 9–10, 17, 388
- Singular causation, 56, 75, 388, 446–456
- Skyrms, Brian, 403
- Slingshot argument, 301, 311, 313
- Sober, Elliot, 404
- Special sciences, 433–435
- Spoils to the victor, 32–33, 59, 422
- Spurious causation, 70, 88–89, 100–101, 163, 173, 210, 216, 218–220, 249
- Spurious correlations, 403
- Stalnaker, Robert, 4, 93, 346
- States of affairs, 213
- Statistical mechanics, 7–8
- Steward, Helen, 291
- Stockholm syndrome, 123–124
- Subjunctive conditional. See Counterfactual conditional
- Subtraction test, 188, 196–197
- Supervaluations, 330
- Supervenience of laws on occurrent facts, 62–63
- Suppe, Fred, 158
- Suppes, P., 404
- Sustaining causation, 175
- Swain, Marshall, 233
- Switching, 40, 134–136, 182–183, 187–202, 217, 220–221
- Systems, 154–166, 172, 177
- Temporal asymmetry, 5–12, 17, 233
- Third factor, 420
- Thomson, Judith, 42
- Threats, 436–438
- Tichy, Pavel, 349
- Time travel, 9–11. See also Backward causation
- Tooley, Michael, 13, 27, 31, 34, 63–64, 451
- Tort law, 408
- Transeunt causation, 447
- Transfer (of energy or momentum etc.). See Physical connection accounts of causation
- Transitivity of causation
 - and absences as causes and effects, 198–200, 252
 - and ancestral maneuver, 23, 39, 68, 93–95, 141, 309, 234–235
 - and aspect analysis, 43–44, 53, 186–189, 197, 205–206, 210–220
 - assumed by Lewis, 141, 388
 - assumption a mere prejudice, 318
 - as bedrock datum, 35, 39, 181
 - and two concepts of causation, 50, 182–183, 200, 226, 252–253, 256
 - and causation as influence, 93–96
 - contrast analysis of alleged counterexamples, 42, 54, 351–354
 - alleged counterexamples to, 29, 40–43, 52, 119, 182–202
 - defended, 39–40, 96–99, 181, 349
 - denied, 341–342, 379, 390
 - and double prevention, 29, 50, 183–184, 198, 246–248
 - and fine-grained event analysis, 210, 354–355
 - and preemptive prevention, 102–103
 - problem for probabilistic analysis, 394
 - and production, 200, 226, 253, 256–258, 264
 - and short-circuit structure, 182, 193–197
 - structure of alleged counterexamples to, 182–202
 - and switching, 187–197
 - and tracing of causal chains, 78
- Transitivity* thesis. See also Transitivity of causation
 - and blueprint strategy for production, 258, 262
 - bundled with Intrinsicness and Locality, 253, 256–257
 - conflicts with Dependence, 182–184, 193, 195–202, 241–242, 246–248, 256, 267
 - conflicts with Omissions, 248 252, 256
 - stated, 225
- Transparency assumption, 313–314, 318
- Trench warfare, 227, 239
- Tropes, 213
- Trumping preemption, 59–71
 - and causation as influence, 92–93, 113–114
 - and covariation without dependence, 257
 - and de facto dependence account, 133–134
 - examples of, 27–28, 50–52, 214–216
 - finkish (see Finkish trumping)

- Transparency assumption (cont.)
 - and fragility of events, 333–335
 - and hidden mechanisms, 3
 - left well alone, 401
 - as preemption without cutting, 80–83
- Type causation, 376

- van Fraassen, 147, 158, 330, 333, 345
- Variation test, 189, 194, 196–197
- Void, 188, 277–278, 281–282, 292, 304, 306, 315–316, 322

- White, Morton, 16, 77
- White, Nick, 355
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 446
- Woodward, James, 406, 409–410, 417
- Would-be-dependence analysis of causation, 51, 112–113

- Yablo, Stephen, 42, 52, 222, 237