Ability, and job transition, 74 Absences, as evidence of stress, 64–66, 139 Acceptance apprehension about, 73–74 of mixed sex environment, 96 Achievement, emphasis on, 118 "Action research," 7–8 Administrative positions, men in, 25. See also Management Affirmative Action programs, 38, 90, 135 Airline pilots, women as, 21 Alderfer, C., 106 Ambition, 27, 118–123 Anticipation, and job transition, 70–71. See also Expectations Anxiety and entry into groups, 105 of job loss, 136 about job transition, 88, 97 Appropriateness, of job, 214–215 Attitudes toward changing places, 72–74	Clerical positions male-female proportions in, 169 men in, 59, 91–92, 117, 121, 146 in research sample, 39–40 women in, 3, 44, 60, 121, 146 Cluster sampling techniques, 155 Cognitive dissonance theory, 121, 122 Computers, 147 Corporate management women in, 20–21. See also Management Counterstress, 63, 99, 127. See also Stress Cronbach, E., 149, 150, 152 Culture and concept of occupations, 14 and sexual division of labor, 12 Cutbacks and absences, 139 and position of women, 67, 90 Data collection of, 155–156
of female employees, 44 of New Type men, 130	sources for, 158 Depression, regression analysis of,
of Same Types, 161–162	210–211. See also Anxiety work group, 31	Deviance, fear about, 77–78 Dictionary of Occupational Titles, 1
Backward elimination technique, 52	2, 142
Bakers, 3 Bartenders, 3	Distress, 27. See also Stress DOT, 3
BCO, 37–39	Douglass, J., 150
Behavior	Dropouts, 93
intergroup, 121 (see also Groups)
of New Type men, 130	Economics
in sex-atypical positions, 78	and concept of occupations, 14
sex-related, 128	and social change, 142
teasing, 83–86	Effeminacy, 27 Elementary school education, men tribal, 122	in, 22
work group, 31 Behavioral science, 148	Employees
Biological determinism, 13	depression of, 210-211
Blue-collar positions, 40	development planning for, 140
Blue-collar workers, 136	expectations of, 110–113
Busdrivers, 3	female New Type, 44–45
•	female Same Type, 44
Caplow, T., 12	JDI work scores for, 54
Career development planning, 140	and making it, 93
Child care, men in, 22	male New Type, 45

Employees (continued)	and cognitive dissonance, 121-male Same Type, 43	122
New Type, 29–32, 61	definition of, 101–102
questionnaire for, 162, 163–164
Employment. See also Jobs	Hennig, M., 20, 21 and choice factor, 46	Hierarchy, organizational, 120, 122, length of, 45–46	135. See also Organizational
Ephron, Nora, 5, 6, 11	structure
Epstein, C., 19, 20, 21	History, and sex-typed occupations,
Equal Employment Opportunity	16
Commission, 139	Hughes, E. C., 32
Equal opportunity, concept of, 138	Hughes, Everett, 28–29, 96–97, 98,
Expectations, 109	99, 104
after-job, 115
job, 110–113	Index, job descriptive, (JDI), 54–57,
and job transition, 29	163
of New Type men, 130, 133	Intergroups
of New Type women, 131	dynamics of, 102
and occupational transition, 28	embedded, 106
and Same Types, 161–162	relationships, 105
sex-role related, 128	theory, 101
and sex-typed occupations, 15–16	Interviewers, 156–158
Experimental control, 152	Interviews, 159
	descriptive questions and scales,
Federal government	165–166
civil rights concerns of, 2	order and sequence for, 159
and promotion practices, 109	pretest, 157
Feelings. See also Attitudes	and questionnaire, 158 and job perceptions, 47	lamitana 100
and job transition, 34	Janitors, 136
Femininity, 27	Job change. See also Occupational
Feminists, 13, 22	change
Future	anticipation of, 70–71
of New Types, 135	process of, 28 and supervisors' attitudes, 79
perceptions of, 109, 113, 114–116	Job Descriptive Index (JDI), 54–57,
and threat of cutbacks, 139	60, 163, 206
Gera Bernice 5 11	Job Diagnostic Survey, 163
Gera, Bernice, 5, 11 Goffman, E., 151	Job loss, 137
Government, and social change,	Jobs
142. See also Federal govern-	appropriateness of, 214–215
ment	and choice factor, 46
Gray-collar jobs, 41	expectations about, 110–113
Green, Ernest, 1–2, 142	hierarchy for, 120, 122
Group, host	identification with, 36
anticipation of, 75–77	length of time on, 45–46, 52
and New Types, 77–78	and New Type versus Same Type,
and peer welcome, 80–83	206
and supervisor's welcome, 78–80	self-perceived fit, 212–213
Groups	sex-typing of, 136
boundary definitions in, 103	Job titles, changes in, 2
•	- , - · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

Joking, 75-76, 77, 85 t-test, 48 Junior crafts jobs, 40, 66-67 work satisfaction model, 51-57 Junior planning technician, male-Meyer, H., 78 Minority groups, civil rights of, 2 female proportions in, 169 Junior technician jobs, 41 Mobility, 29 blocked, 123 male-female, 218 Kadushin, A., 25 Kanter, Rosabeth, 18, 29, 30, 98, 104 organizational, 215–217 patterns of, 158 Labor self-view of, 215-217 division of, 32 upward, 109, 122 sexual division of, 11, 12, 17 Model, work satisfaction, 51–57 Labor force Motivation changes in, 2 job, 111-112 male-female mobility in, 218 for male nurses, 24-25 women in, 3, 14-15 (see also of New Types, 116 Women) in work transition, 5 Law, women in, 19-20, 27, 28 Multiple regression analysis, 51, 57. Leaving, reasons for, 99-100 See also Regression analysis Lee, M., 78 Legitimacy, 31 Networks, occupational, 19 Levi-Strauss, Claude, 12 Newcomers, and peer behavior, Lewin, Kurt, 8 80-83 Librarians, 3 New types, 29-32, 126 Librarianship, men in, 22 arrival of, 75 Locke, E., 62 attitudes of, 130 career development planning for, "Maleness," 119 Management expectations of, 111, 114 expectations about, 117 extra pressures on, 89-95 women in, 20-21, 141 means and standard deviation for, Marginality, 29 206-207 Marshall, Ray, 2 movement patterns of, 95 Masculinity, 70-71 occupational movements of, Mass media, and social change, 4 129-130 Mead, Margaret, 11, 12 questions for, 160 versus Same Types, 48-50 Men Norms attitudes toward women, 73, 75 extra pressure on, 87 sex-role related, 128 and sex-typed occupations, 16 in female occupations, 22 Nurses, 4 in New Type positions, 114, 130-Nursing, men in, 22, 23, 24–25, 28 peer welcome for, 82 Objectivity, 8 in sex-atypical positions, 86, 102 Occupational change. See also Job and upward mobility, 122 in women's occupations, 18, 60 change Methodology, 37, 42-46, 153 media coverage of, 4-5 instruments and measures, 158 reasons for, 5-7 multiple regression analysis, Occupations 50-51, 57 (see also Regression conceptions of, 14 analysis) identification with, 36

Occupations (continued) in behavioral science, 148–149 data collection, 155-159 segregation of, 32-33 sex differentiation and, 11-15 design, 153 first findings, 46-47 sex-typing of, 15 methodology, 42-46 stereotypic view of, 24 sample, 39-42, 43, 145, 147 women's, 14-15 Organizational structure, 135 strategy, 37 "Role encapsulation," 30, 104-105, hierarchy of, 120, 122 and research, 150-151 118-119 "Role strain," 25 and work situations, 47 Rosenbaum, J., 141 Participants, in research project, Salaries, 158 43 - 46Same Types, 126 Peers training of, 134 attitudes of, 161–162 welcome of, 80-83 male, 141 Perceptions, work-related. 47 means and standard deviations Performances, 151-153, 212-214 for, 206-207 "Pink-collar" jobs, 40, 130 "Pink-collar" workers, 135 movement patterns of, 95 versus New Types, 48 questions for, 161 Prejudices, stereotyped, 96 Pressure. See also Stress Sample, research, 39-42, 43, 145 counterpressure, 99 changes in, 147 selection of, 153-155 and job transition, 86-95 Satisfaction, job, 113–114 measurement of, 61–63 Prestige measurement of, 53-57, 60, 61 - 63, 64and job transition, 33 in male vs. female occupations, 26 and stress, 58-61, 127 Principal Components Analysis, variation in, 56 Scale development, 164-165 Schein, E., 27-28, 30, 141 Promotion, 112. See also Mobility Schreiber, C., 141 Questionnaire Scott, George C., 23 Secrets, 152 employees', 158, 163-164 supervisor's, 164 Segal, B., 23 Segregation, occupational, 17, 18, Questions interview, 159-160, 165 Self-perception, 34 for New Types, 160–161 Self-performance, evaluation of, for research sample, 42, 69-70 for Same Types, 161 212-214 Self-view, and New Type versus Race car drivers, women as, 21-22 Same Type, 206 Selye, H., 63, 66, 67, 127 Regression analysis "Semiprofessions," 19 of absences, 64-65 Senior crafts jobs, 40-41 of depression, 209-210 of job appropriateness, 214-215 Senior planning technician, maleof organizational mobility, 215female proportions among, 169 Senior technician jobs, 40-42 217 Sex, division of labor by, 32 of social support, 210-212 Sex roles, 128 of work satisfaction, 208

Sexuality, apprehension about, 77

Research. See also Methodology

Socialization, sex-role, 123	Telephone operators, 3
Social support, 52	Television, job stereotyping on, 23 and job transition, 34–35	Tokens, 29 and New Type versus Same Type, 206	pressure on, 98 role of, 30, 104 regression analysis of, 209–212 Training, on-the-job, 41, 154
of supervisors, 78–80, 209–212	T-test, 48
Social work, men in, 22, 23, 24, 25	Turnover, 93
Spearman-Brown reliability coeffi-	that have a second of the cients, 165	Usefulness, measurements of, 53,
Status	55–56
inconsistency in, 122–123
and job change, 28–29, 33	Values, and sex-typed occupation, in male versus female occupa-	17–18
tions, 26	Van Maanen, J., 27–28, 30
and sex-typed occupation, 17–18	Victim, blaming, 100
"Status incongruencies," 121
Status inconsistency, 130	Wetherby, Terry, 21, 26
Stereotypes, sex-role, 104	White-collar workers, 135–136
Stress, 31, 126	Women, 86
absences as, 64–66, 139	attitudes toward men, 76
conditions of, 50–51	civil rights of, 2 counterstress, 63, 69, 127	in clerical postions, 3, 40, 60, 121, and job loss, 136	146
and job transition, 38	and division of labor, 12
measurement of, 61–63, 162–164	extra pressure on, 87–88 and occupational transition, 28	in high-status male occupations, 18
and satisfaction, 58-61	in male occupations, 19–22, 26
study of, 147	in management, 20–21, 141
theory, 127	in men's jobs, 69–70
Supervisors, 52	New Type, 116
attitudes of, 35	peer welcome for, 80–82
and employee mobility, 216–217	perspectives on future, 119
and New Type versus Same Type,	in sex-atypical positions, 102
206	token roles for, 104
questionnaire for, 164
social support from, 209–212	and upward mobility, 122
training of, 134	in work force, 3, 14–15
welcome of, 78–80	Work
	identification with, 36
Systematic correlation, 152	and intergroup relationships, 106
T	sex-typed, 15–18
Target group, interview questions	Workers, 93
for, 160. See also Sample	blue-collar, 136
Teasing, 83–86	gray-collar, 41
Technology	JDI work scores for, 54
and personnel, 146	pink-collar, 40, 130, 135
and social change, 142	in research project, 42–46

Workers (continued)
white-collar, 135–136
Work force, male-female mobility in, 218. See also Labor force Work group. See also Groups composition of, 132
optimal sex composition of, 134
Work places
changes in, 125
interviews in, 159
Work satisfaction, regression model for, 208. See also Satisfaction