

Index

- Abilities, bequests as, 204–206
- Academic credentialism, 169, 170, 171, 213
- Advanced countries vs. developing countries, income inequalities in, 12–14
- After-tax income, 93
- Age
and elderly poor, 76
and employment, 180
and source of income (pensions vs. wages), 91
- American dream, 33
- Americas, income inequality in, 13
- Anti-monopoly law, 49–50
- Asian countries, and income inequality, 12–13
- Asset income, 65–66
and aging population, 116
and income inequality, 95
- Assets
real and financial, 127 (see also Financial assets; Real assets) value of, 129–30
- Atkinson index, 77
- Australia
income inequality in, 26
poverty relief payments in, 121–22
wage differentials by sex in, 101
- Baby boom, postwar, 59–60
- Banking system, Japanese in Japan's rapid growth, 56 in postwar reforms, 44 regulation of, 139–40
safe financial assets in, 132, 133–34
- Bentham, Jeremy, 196
- Bequest motive, 138, 146–47, 149
- Bequests, 146–50, 218 abilities as, 204–206
and effort, 185
and inequality of opportunity, 188–89 policies on, 153–55
as savings, 138
taxation of, 185–86, 203–204 (see also Inheritance taxes)
and wealth distribution, 150–53, 154–55
- Beveridge Report, 35
- Blair, Tony, 36
- Bonus payments, 137
- Bowles, S., 32
- Britain. See United Kingdom
- Bubble economy in Japan, 64–66, 127, 142–43, 218 cause and effects of, 66 collapse of, 17, 66
inequality from, 26–27
and landholding, 51
and wealth distribution, 15–16, 143–45
- Canada, 26, 101
- Capitalist world vs. socialist world, in income distribution, 9–12
- Capital market and educational inequality, 28, 188 for home buying, 137–38
and income inequality, 74
- Causes of income inequality in Japan. See Income inequality in Japan, causes of
- Child care and household welfare vs. income, 117 subsidies to, 184
- China, communist market economy in, 11–12
- Class (stratum), 157–59

- Communitarianism, 195
Comprehensive Survey of Living Standards, 94, 97
- Condominiums, 132
- Consumption
 as indicator of economic condition, 3
 measurement of, 3
- Consumption level, as welfare measure, 88–90
- Consumption tax, 201–202
- Contribution
 as criterion of justice, 183–84
 and effort, 185
- Cooperative industrial relations, 52, 175
- Corporate principle of government, 40
- Credentialism, academic, 169, 170, 171, 213
- Credit markets, 138
- Cubic-curve hypothesis, viii, 73, 217
- Dalton measure, 77
- Debts, and income class, 140–42
- Deflation of prices, in Japan, 18
- Democratization in labor, 51–53
- Denmark
 conservative government in, 193
 education of workers in, 28
 as welfare state, 35
- Deregulation, and wage gap, 29
- Developing countries vs. advanced countries, income inequalities in, 12–14
- Difference principle (Rawls), 195–96
- Discrimination, 101, 180, 215
- Disposable income, 93–94
- “Double Incomes No Kids,” 116
- Dual economy, 59, 106
- Dual labor structure, 100
- Dutch tulip mania, 143
- Earnings, categories of, 93
- Earnings inequality. See Income inequality; Wage inequality
- Economic efficiency. See Efficiency
- Economic growth and income distribution (Japan), 21–24 period of rapidity of (Japan), 55–61, 75 rate of (Japan), 1, 17–18
 and strategy for equality, 124
- Economic history of Japan, references on, 56
- Economic inequality, spread of, 2. See also Income inequality;
- Economic and social reforms, postwar, 49–55
- Education economics of, 173–75
 and equality of opportunity, 28, 53–55, 181–83, 187–88, 211–13
 and income inequality, 23
 investments in, 150
 and job categories, 158
 and social mobility, 165–71
 and social mobility (and marriage), 171–73 wage differentials by, 107, 109–10
- Efficiency, 191
 and equality of opportunity, 182–83
- Efficiency-equity trade-off, 19–21, 24, 34, 192–94, 215, 218 and philosophical schools, 194–98
 and social security, 198, 199, 206–11, 218
 and taxation, 198–206
 and two strategies for equality, 124
 in UK and US, 25, 38
- Effort, as criterion of justice, 185
- Egalitarian approach to wage payments, 61–62, 106, 111
 and education, 109–10
 seniority principle as, 110–11
- Elasticity values, and effects of taxes and social security, 199
- Elderly poor, in Japan, 76. See also Age
- Employment rate, in Japan, 1
- Endogenous growth model, 22
- Enterprise unionism, 175
- Envy, and equity, 192
- Equality. See Equity
- Equality (or inequality) of opportunity, 157, 180–82 and class, 157–59
 vs. equality of outcome, viii, 32–34
 and intergenerational social mobility, 159–60
- Equality (inequality) of opportunity in Japan, 1 and bequests, 188–89
 and bequest tax rate, 203 and changed outlook, 179–80
 in comparison of Japan and other countries, 2
 in education, 53–55, 165–75, 211–13 and efficiency, 182–83 as endangered, 218
 and industrial relations, 175–78

- and inheritance tax, 154, 155
- and intergenerational social mobility, 160–65
- and outcome, 183
- Equality (or inequality) of outcome, 186–89, 218
- in comparison of Japan and other countries, 2
- vs. equality of opportunity, viii, 32–34, 180
- and performance-based wage system (Japan), 179
- as policy aim (Japan), 215
- and wealth distribution (Japan), 179–80
- Equity, 191
- and performance-based pay, 179
- Equity-efficiency trade-off. See Efficiency-equity trade-off
- Equity holdings, 144
- Equivalent scale, 77, 77–79
- Export-led economy, and industrialization, 22

- Fairness, 191
- and performance-based pay, 179
- Fair wage hypothesis, 34
- Families
 - change in composition of, 57–58, 112–18
 - and international income comparisons, 76, 77
 - in Japanese economic support, 37
 - and need criterion, 184
- Family Expenditure Survey*, 67–70, 81, 88
- Family Savings Survey*, 141
- Featherman-Jones-Hauser hypothesis, 160
- Feudal characteristics of Japanese society (pre-WWII), 44
- Financial assets, 128–29
 - as bequests, 152
 - safe, 132–35
- Financial market, and educational inequality, 28. See also Capital market
- Finland, education of workers in, 28
- Firms, reforms in, 213–15
- France
 - and class differences, 158
 - education and occupation in, 167, 168
 - income distribution in, 82
 - and income-inequality report, 80
 - top civil servants in, 171
- Gender, and wage distribution, 47–48, 52, 100–104, 215. See also Women

- Germany
 - East vs. West, 10, 11
 - education and occupation in, 167
 - and inequality, 124
 - and Kuznets hypothesis, 72
 - wage determination in, 177
- Gini coefficient, 4–5, 77
 - and adjustments, 78, 79
 - and bubble economy, 143, 145
 - for income inequality (1900 to 2000), 70
 - increase in, 5
 - in international comparison, 7, 12–13, 83
 - prewar and postwar, 45, 46, 58
 - for primary incomes and before-tax incomes, 68
 - and redistribution effects of tax and social security, 123, 125
 - for Russia, 11
 - for US and UK, 26
 - and wealth distribution, 14, 15, 16
- Globalization, and wage disparities in advanced countries, 27–28
- Great Britain. See United Kingdom
- Growth. See Economic growth

- Happiness
 - economic prosperity as measure of, 88
 - Sen's analysis of, 197
- Harrod-Dowar growth theory, 135
- Health care, reform of, 209–10
- Homeownership, 130–32
- Households Expenditure Survey*, 3
- Household structure, changes in, 112–18
- Housekeepers, and household welfare vs. income, 117
- Human capital theory, 109
 - and education, 173, 188
 - and occupational mobility, 167
- Imputed rents, 64–65, 66, 77, 131
- Incentive divide, 212–13
- Income, 93–94
 - after-tax, 93
 - as indicator of economic condition, 3
 - primary, 5, 93
 - redistributed, 5
 - uncertainties in measurement of, 90–91
- Income distribution
 - in capitalist vs. socialist world, 9–12
 - and economic growth, 21–24
- Income distribution in postwar Japan. See Postwar Japan's income distribution

- Income inequality in advanced countries, 26–32
 and education, 23
 as global issue, vii
 and income mobility, 92
 and Kuznets hypothesis, 72–73
 and Pareto optimum, 192 political consequences of, 80, 81 and redistribution through tax and social security (comparison by countries), 123–24, 187, 189 and technological innovation, 23–24
 in US and UK, 25–26
- Income inequality in Japan, vii, 85, 215, 217
 and bubble economy, 64, 66
 changes in over time, 3–5
 and developing countries, 12–14
 and economic growth, 21–24
 over hundred-year period, 70–71 international comparisons of, 6–9, 76–85
 and Kuznets hypothesis, 72–73
 and majority rule, 179
 prewar vs. postwar comparison of, 44–46, 49
 and prewar social distinctions, 44 and slow-growth economy, 18–19 and socialist world, 9–12 and stages of economic development, 74–76
 and taxes, 200–201
 as trend, 35, 217
 widespread acceptance of, 76, 177
- Income inequality in Japan, causes of, 87 changes in household structure, 112–18 changes in wages, 97–112 and limitations of statistical approaches, 87–93, 112
 and social security, 120–25
 and taxes, 118–20, 122–25
 and types of income collected by government, 93–97
- Income mobility, 91–93. See also Social mobility
- Income redistribution. See Redistribution
- Income Re-distribution Survey*, 3–4, 5, 7, 8, 67–70, 88, 93, 94
- Individualism, 115
- Industrialization
 and corporate financing, 138–39 and export-led economy, 22 and family structure, 113
 and income inequality, 21, 70
 and savings rates, 21–22
 and social mobility, 159–60
 trend toward, 104
- Industrial relations changes in, 175–78, 208 reforms in, 219
 and success story of 1970s and 1980s, 63
- Inequality
 causes of, 26–32
 policy changes to correct, 219
- Inequality of income. See Income inequality
- Inequality of income in Japan. See Income inequality in Japan
- Inequality of income in Japan, causes of. See Income inequality in Japan, causes of
- Inequality of opportunity. See Equality of opportunity
- Inequality of opportunity in Japan. See Equality of opportunity in Japan
- Inequality of outcome. See Equality of outcome
- Inequality of wealth. See Wealth inequality in Japan
- Inflation targeting, 18
- Inheritances. See Bequests
- Inheritance taxes, 153–55
 and asset price, 128
- Interest rates, 116
- Inter-firm mutual share holdings, 144
- Intergenerational occupational transfers, 2, 188–89
- Intergenerational replication, 168
- Intergenerational social mobility, 159–65
- Intergenerational wealth transfer, 131, 203 and inheritance taxes, 129, 154 and wealth accumulation, 146–55
- International comparisons, 2 difficulty in, 76–79 of income inequality, 6–9, 82–85
 and income mobility, 91
 and Luxembourg project, 79–80
 in OECD report, 80–81
- International trade
 and industrialization, 22
 and wage disparities in advanced countries, 27–28
- Inter-size wage differentials, 106–109, 112
- Japan
 corporate welfare services in, 37

- at crossroads, viii
- dual economy of, 59, 106
- dual structure of welfare in, 42
- education and occupation in, 167, 169–71, 173 (see also Education)
- efficiency vs. equity in, 20 (see also Efficiency-equity trade-off)
- and equality, 1
- as exporter of capital, 135
- and gender issue, 34
- and government intervention in public education and training, 29
- graduate programs in, 169
- growth rate in, 1, 17–18
- inequality in, vii, 31, 85, 180, 181, 215, 217 (see also Income inequality in Japan; Wage inequality; Wealth inequality in Japan)
- 1950s economic conditions of, 62
- poverty rate for, 32
- and poverty relief, 121–22
- powerful vs. powerless groups in, 19
- recession in, 1, 16, 17–18, 66–67
- regional price differences in, 89
- social mobility in, 160–65 (see also Income mobility; Social mobility)
- social security reforms needed in, 206–11 (see also Social security systems)
- tax and social security policies in, 198–200 (see also Taxation)
- top civil servants in, 171
- unemployment in, 17, 42, 67
- unionization in, 177 (see also Trade unions)
- unique characteristics of, vii, 2
- and United States, 31
- US occupation of, 2, 43, 49, 51
- wage inequalities in, 30
- and welfare state, 35, 37–38, 41–42, 63–64, 76, 136, 199–200, 218–19
- Japan, US occupation of. See US occupation of Japan
- Japan, postwar. See Postwar Japan's income distribution
- Justice, criteria of, 183–86. See also Equality of opportunity; Equity

- Keiretsu firms, 129
- Korean War, 55
- Kuznets, Simon, 72
- Kuznets inverted-U hypothesis, 21, 22, 59, 72, 73, 74, 75

- Labor
 - democratizing reforms for, 51–53
 - misallocation of, 23, 24
 - Labor force status, changes in, 99–100
 - Labor mobility, regional, 57
 - Labor relations. See Industrial relations
 - Labor unions. See Trade unions
- Laissez-faire market principle, 40
- Land
 - as asset, 131
 - and bubble economy, 142–43
- Land reforms, 50–51
- Large firms
 - and wage differentials, 59, 106–109, 214–15
 - and welfare services, 42
- Liberalism, 195–97
- Libertarianism, 194–95
- Life-cycle motive, 146–47, 148
- Life stages, in income measurement, 91
- Lifetime employment, 175, 176. See also Long-term service provision
- Lifetime incomes, as measure, 90–91
- Lipset-Zetterberg hypothesis, 159–60
- Long-term service provision, 60–61
- Luck
 - attribution of wage level to, 33
 - and incomes, 186–87
 - and wealth holdings, 25
- Luxembourg Income Analysis Project, 2, 6, 79–80, 82

- Manor capitalism, 37
- Market economies, vs. planned economies, 10–12
- Marriage, and social mobility, 171–73
- Marxian theory, and class analysis, 158–59
- Marxism (analytical), 197–98
- Media, and American individualism, 115
- Medical insurance program, reform of, 209–10
- Meiji Restoration, 1, 43, 72, 217
- Meritocracy (merit system)
 - and occupational mobility, 166, 167
 - vs. seniority system, 214
- Mill, John Stuart, 196
- Minimum wage, and wage gap, 29
- Moral hazard, from safety net, 38, 210
- Morality. See Efficiency-equity trade-off; Equity
- Myth of equality in Japan, 75, 81, 217
- Myth of owning land, 131

- Nakasone administration, 25, 120
 National Institute of Social Security and Population, 148
National Survey of Family Income and Expenditure, 3, 88, 94, 96, 125
 Native academic ability, effect of, 205–206
 Need, as criterion of justice, 184–85
 Neo-conservatism, 25
 New Zealand, 25
 Nobility of prewar Japan, 48
- Occupational classes, 157–58. See also Part-time employees; Self-employed workers
 Occupation structure, changes in, 104–106
 OECD
 income studies by, 6–7, 8–9, 80–81 poverty studies by, 31
 Oil crises (1970s), 63, 136
 Oil crisis (1973), 55, 62, 63 Opportunity, equality of. See at Equality of opportunity Outcome, equality of. See Equality of outcome
- Panel data, 91
 Pareto optimum, 191–92
 Part-time employees, 99–100, 103
 and egalitarian principle, 111
 and unionization, 178
 and wage inequalities, 112
 women as, 100, 102–104, 215
 Performance-based pay, 176, 179
 Philosophical schools
 communitarianism, 195
 liberalism, 195–97
 libertarianism, 194–95
 Marxism (analytical), 197–98
 Planned economies, vs. market economies, 10–12
 Postindustrialization period, 70, 73, 75–76
 Postwar Japan's income distribution, 218
 and bubble economy, 64–66
 and egalitarian approach, 61–62 and Förster and Pearson study, 83–85
 and hundred-year period, 70–71 and OECD report, 80–81
 in postindustrialization period, 73, 75–76
 and rapid economic growth, 44, 55–61, 75 and recession, 66–67
 and reforms of postwar years, 43–44, 49– 55
 and stagflation and turnaround period, 62–64
 studies on (prewar and postwar), 44–46 surveys on, 68–70
 and wage distribution, 47–48 Poverty, 31–32
 international comparison on, 90
 Poverty relief, 121–22, 210–11. See also
 Social security systems
 Price levels, international comparisons of, 89–90
 Primary income, 5
 definition of, 93
 Privatization, of public pension and health insurance systems, 207–208 Productivity
 as criterion of justice, 183–84
 increases in, 59
 and performance assessment, 214
 by selected skillful few, 178
 Progressive expenditure tax, 118, 201–202, 219
 Public offices, reforms in, 213–15
 Public pension, reform of, 208–209
 Puritan ethic, 33
- Race in US
 and education for black children, 182
 and views on equity, 33–34
 Rawls, John, 32, 195–96
 Reagan administration, 20–21, 25, 38, 119–
 20, 193, 195
 Real assets, 127–28
 as bequests, 152
 Recession, in Japan, 1, 16, 17–18, 66–67
 Redistributed income, 93–94
 Redistribution, 187
 and income mobility, 92–93
 in Japan, 42
 in Japan (from taxation), 94–95, 96–97
 from social security systems, 94–95, 120– 25, 179, 180, 189, 206–207
 and taxation, 42, 53, 94–95, 96–97, 118– 20, 122–25, 179, 180, 189, 207
 US disapproval of, 33–34
 in welfare state, 36, 41
 Regulated industries
 reform of, 214
 wages in, 188
 Reich, R. B., 32
 Rent control, 132
 Rents, imputed, 64–65, 66, 77, 131

- Replication, intergenerational, 168
- Romer, P.M., 32
- Russia, 11
- Safety nets, 36–37
and moral hazard, 38
and private sector entities, 37
- Saigo, Takamori, 155
- Savings and savings rates and income class, 140–42
as indicator of economic condition, 3
and industrialization, 21–22
in Japan, 134, 135–40
- Scandinavian countries. See also Denmark;
Sweden
efficiency vs. equity in, 193–94
income equality in, 82
and pre-distribution income inequality, 124 saving rates in, 136 welfare provisions in, 36, 41
as welfare states, 35
- Schor, J., 32
- Screening, 167, 171, 173–74, 182, 213
- Self-employed workers, 97, 99, 138, 200– 201
- Sen, A., 196–97
- Seniority system, 60–61, 91, 109, 175, 176, 177, 179
as egalitarianism, 110–11
reform of, 214
- Sex differentials. See Gender; Women
- Shoup, Carl, 53
- Slow-growth economy, 17–18
and equity vs. efficiency, 19–21
and income inequality, 18–19
- Small firms
and egalitarian principle, 111
and homeownership, 131
and unionization, 178
and wage differentials, 59, 106–109, 112, 214–15
and welfare services, 42
- Social-democratic principle of government, 40
- Social equality, and Japan, 1
- Social insurance, and welfare state, 39
- Socialism, and Japan, 106
- Socialist world vs. capitalist world, and inequality of income distribution, 7, 8, 9
- Social mobility. See also Income mobility
and education, 165–71
intergenerational, 159–65
and marriage, 171–73
- Social-norm theory of wage determination, 34
- Social security systems and change in family structure, 115 and efficiency vs. equity, 198, 199, 206– 11, 218
redistribution through, 94–95, 120–25, 179, 180, 189, 206–207
and savings rate, 135–36
and widows, 115–16
- Social welfare programs. See Welfare state
- Stagflation, 62, 81
- Statistical data, limits of, 3, 87–88
- “Stratum,” 159
- Suburban living in Japan, 132
- Supply-side economics, 20, 24, 119
- Survey on Financial Asset Allocations*, 147
- Survey on Living Standards of Middle-Age and Old People, and the Function of Social Security*, 147
- Surveys of income (international), 6–7, 80.
See also International comparisons;
Luxembourg Income Analysis Project
- Surveys of income (Japan), 3–4, 45–46, 67–70
- Sweden
education of workers in, 28
and income equality, 8, 9, 82
redistribution in, 123, 124
wage determination in, 177
wage differentials by sex in, 101
as welfare state, 10, 35, 38, 41
- Taxation on bequests, 185–86, 203–204 (see also Inheritance taxes)
and equity vs. efficiency, 20, 192–93, 198– 200, 218
and imputed rents, 66 income redistribution from, 42, 53, 94–95, 96–97, 118–20, 122–25, 179, 180, 189, 207 on land vs. financial assets, 131 prewar, 45
and savings rate, 139
- Shoup reforms in, 53
- Technological innovation (change)
and demand for skilled and educated workers, 27
and income inequality, 23–24

- Thatcher government, 20, 25, 36, 38, 119–20, 193, 195
- Theil measure, 77
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 33
- Trade unions, 51–53, 177–78
and deunionization in US, 29
- Treiman hypothesis, 160
- Tulip mania bubble (1630s Netherlands), 143
- Twin studies, and effect of native academic ability, 205
- Unemployment
in Japan, 17, 42, 67
and welfare state, 40
- Unemployment compensation, reform of, 210
- Unions. See Trade unions
- United Kingdom and class differences, 158
economic boom in, 24–26
education and occupation in, 167, 168
education and wages in, 109
income distribution in, 38, 82
inequalities in, 7, 8, 9, 25, 26
and Kuznets hypothesis, 72
national health services, 209
poverty relief payments in, 121–22
and progressive income tax rate, 119–20 supply-side economics of, 20, 24, 119
and wage changes, 99
and wage inequalities, 30, 111
welfare reduction in, 38
and welfare state, 35, 38–39
working-class students in, 212
- United States
and bequests, 151
economic boom in, 24–26
and education for black children, 182
education and occupation in, 167
education and socioeconomic status in, 165
education and wages in, 109
equity views in, 32–34
and government intervention in public education and training, 29 household financial assets allocation in, 132 income distribution in, 38, 82
inequalities in, 7, 8, 9, 25, 26, 81
and Japan, 31
and Kuznets hypothesis, 72
poverty in, 31
poverty relief payments in, 121–22
and progressive income tax rate, 119–20
redistribution in, 123
and size of firm vs. education in wage determination, 107 supply-side economics in, 20–21, 24, 119
twin studies in, 205
and wage changes, 99
wage differentials by sex in, 101
and wage inequalities, 29, 30–31, 111–12
wealth inequality in, 15
welfare reduction in, 38
and welfare state, 35, 38, 218
- US occupation of Japan and drive toward equality, 2, 49 labor laws introduced by, 51
rescue programs of, 43
- VAT (value-added tax), 118, 200, 201, 219
- Wage determination system, 60–61, 111, 175–76, 179, 214. See also Meritocracy; Seniority system
- Wage distribution in planned vs. market economies, 10–11 and union participation, 177 widening of, 27
- Wage distribution in Japan, 217–18 change in, 97–112
factors in, 106–107
and income inequality, 94, 95, 96
and labor shortage (1960s), 60
prewar and postwar, 47–48
and trade unions, 52
- Wage inequality, 25, 27, 29–31, 179
- Wage Structure Survey*, 3, 88, 100, 101, 112
- Wealth international comparison of, 2
measurement of, 3
real and financial, 127 (see also Financial assets; Real assets)
- Wealth accumulation and distribution in Japan, 218
and bubble economy, 143–45
changes in over time, 15–17
in international comparison, 14–15
and majority rule, 179–80
through safe financial assets, 132–35 and savings, 134, 135–41
- Wealth inequality in Japan, 35, 127, 144, 217

- and bequests, 152–53, 154–55
- and bubble economy, 66
- factors in, 129–30
- through homeownership, 130–32
- and intergenerational wealth transfers, 146–55
- and preference for safe assets, 134
- Welfare, consumption as measure of, 88–90. See also Happiness
- Welfare capitalism, 37
- Welfare state, 35–37
 - critics of, 20
 - and Japan, 35, 37–38, 41–42, 63–64, 76, 136, 199–200, 218–19
 - libertarianism opposed to, 194
 - vs. nonwelfare states, 38–41
 - and Rawls, 196
 - and social security systems, 115 (see also Social security systems)
 - and United States, 38, 218
- Women. See also Gender
 - educational reforms for, 54–55
 - and egalitarian principle, 111
 - factory wages of, 47–48, 52
 - in full-time workforce, 100
 - inequality of opportunity for, 187
 - as part-time workers, 100, 102–104, 215
 - and spouse allowance, 184
- Workers. See also Labor; Part-time employees
 - self-employed, 97, 99, 138, 200–201
 - skilled/educated vs. unskilled/uneducated, 27–28
- Zaibatsu*, 44
 - dissolution of, 49–50
 - extreme wealth of, 48–49