Accelerationism, 82–84
Aggregate demand. See Unemployment, and aggregate demand policies
AID (Agency for International Development), 590
Antitrust policy, 637
Asset markets, and interest rates, 102–105
Auction markets, 79, 85, 110–111, 131, 138
in absence of auctioneer, 86–87, 123
and customer-auction economy during inflation, 97–106, 112–113
efficiency of, 122–123
and implicit contracts, 123–124
and product standardization, 138–139

Balance of payments formulation of policy on, 590 in 1960s, 228-230 and price stability, 8-9
Balance of Payments Cabinet Committee, 589-590
Balance sheets and fiscal policy, 256-257 and inflation, 12-14 and monetary and debt policy, 255-258, 380
Barter, 106
Bonds

cost of living escalated, 40–41 interest rates on, 260–268, 270–273, 275–277, 279–283, 286–288 and monetary policy, 289–290 Budget, federal. See Federal budget Burget Burget, 587–589 Business cycles, 131–132, 425–426 and cyclical stabilization, 499 and misperceptions, 133–134, 135–138 postwar, 496–497 turning point predictors of (see Forecasts)

Cabinet Committee on Price Stability, 590-591 Capital, access to, 602-603, 617-618 Capitalist economy and democracy, 595, 598, 603-605, 625-629, 632, 638 description of, 595-605, 613-614 ethical considerations in, 599-604, 616, 638-640 government's role in, 633-635, 640-641 Career labor markets, 90-97, 112 Chronic inflation. See Inflation, chronic Competitive efficiency, 243, 635-638. See also Efficiency Construction, residential, 486–487, 561

alternative to, 108

Consumer demand, and personal tax convertibility with gold, 228-230 surcharge 1968-1970, 338-374 valuation of, 111 Consumer groups, 604, 642 as yardstick, 56-57, 108, 502 Consumer price index, 3–4 Consumption Econometric forecasts, 522, 562-568, in 1974 recession, 482, 484-485 570-574 permanent income hypothesis of, Econometric models 345-348 choice of the last known quarter in, and personal tax surcharge, 341-371 369-371 and Revenue Act of 1964, 407-408, coefficient of effectiveness statistic in, 410-411, 413-416, 419, 436 368-369 of windfall income, 346-348 in forecasts, 522, 562-568, 570-574 Corporate profits. See Profits Klein-Goldberger model of, 522 Cost of living adjustment, 40–42 of personal tax surcharge, 352–355, indexation as, 108-110, 128 358-359, 361-366 Council of Economic Advisers, Economic expansion, 424–425 579-580, 584-585, 587-589 in 1940–1960, 431, 499 in 1960s, 223-224, 225, 227-231, in 1960s, 431, 433-447 233-234 Economic slowdown, inflation cured Customer markets, 85-90, 106-107, by, 20-27 Education, access to, 603, 616-617 and auction-customer economy during Efficiency, 596, 599, 602, 604 inflation, 97-106, 112-113 competitive, 243, 635-638 Cycles. See Business cycles and costs of achieving equality, 614, 615 Debt management government's role in, 634-635, Federal Reserve policy on, 255-258 640-644 in fiscal policy, 256 and inequality, 617-619 and interest rates, 260-268, 270-273, Efficient markets theory, 122–123, 139 275–277, 279–283, 286–288 Election campaign financing, 603-604 Employment. See also Unemployment Treasury policy on, 255–258 Democracy. See also Equality of blacks, 166–167, 602 and capitalist economy, 595, 598, and career labor markets, 90-97, 112 603-605, 625-629, 632, 638 and demographic shifts in high preference for equality in, 608-610 pressure economy, 193, 195, 198-200 Department of Agriculture, 590 discrimination in, 602, 618–619 Department of Commerce, 590 federal policies on in 1960s, 221-231, Department of Defense, 590 233-234 Department of State, 590 full, 35, 54, 145–146 Depression, 427, 503 and inflation, 53 Discrimination in employment, 602, and layoffs, 137 618-619 in 1960s, 221–231, 233–234, 438–439, Disposable income. See Personal 445-446 disposable income and potential output, 148-158 Dollar and prices and wages, effect on, 6, 22 - 23

and monetary policy (see Monetary and productivity bonus, 174–176 policy) in 1950s, 430-431, 497 and quits, 137 in 1960s, 221–231, 233–234, 431, 433 structural deterioration in (see in 1969–1971, 27–33, 450–452, Unemployment) of teenagers, 165-167, 172 457-466 in two tier labor market, 201-208, president's role in formulating, 210-216 577–582, 584, 586–587 and upward mobility in high pressure and prices, 27–33 for stagflation, 50, 58-62 economy, 172, 178–181, 186–189, and unemployment, 159-170 192–193, 195, 198–210 of women, 164, 172, 602 and wage-price guideposts, 64-66, Employment Act of 1946, 584 244-247 Equal rights, 595-605. See also and wage-price policy 1969–1971, Democracy 457-458, 463-466 costs of achieving, 613-617 Federal Reserve, 395, 589 and inefficient inequality, 617-619 monetary and debt policy of, 255-258 preference for, 607-613, 616 in 1960s, 440-444, 498 Ethics and capitalism, 599-604, 616, in 1969–1971, 454–456 638-640 in 1969-1974, 477-479 Exchange rates, pegged, 463 Firms and career labor markets, 90-97 and customer-supplier relationship, Federal budget, 5-6, 15, 591 87-90 balancing in 1960s, 222–224, 436, 453 and demographic shifts in high and full employment surplus (see Full pressure economy, 193, 195, 198-200 employment surplus) in recessionary periods, 498 and implicit contracts theory, 120-124 investment intentions of, 553-561 stabilization policies implemented by, as price makers, 86-87 surplus or deficit in, 304, 305 as price takers, 139 Federal debt and profits (see Profits) and interest rates, 260-268, 270-273, and quantity takers, 86-87 275-277, 279-283, 286-288 and tax based incomes policy, 69-75 wage and price controls by, 15, 17, and monetary policy, 289-290 Federal policy, 428, 430 52 - 53Fiscal policy, 63-64, 111-112, 375-378, budget used to implement, 430 467 and cost raising, 57-58, 60 and efficiency, 634-635, 640-644 activist, 396-399 and balance sheets, effect on, 256-257 ethical considerations in, 595, 616, and "credible surplus," 453 638-640 and fiscal policy (see Fiscal policy) vs. debt management distinguished, formulation of, 584-591 256 and inflationary expectations, 37-41, evaluation of, 390-393 and forecasting, 389-390, 393 and manpower programs, 208-210, formulation of, 587-589 233–234, 240–243 and full employment surplus,

306–308, 331, 333, 335, 386–389

Fiscal policy (cont.) and implicit contracts, 126-127 and inflation, 5-6, 17, 21 and interest rates, 256 and monetary policy, 440, 443, 498-499 in 1960s, 440-442, 444-445 in 1969-1971, 452-454, 466-467 and nominal GNP, 500 in recessionary periods, 498 restraining action of, 385-386 side effects of, 377 in stabilization policy, 382–389 for stagflation, 50, 59-62 stimulative action of, 376-377, 385-386, 389, 440 and timing of initiatives, 386 and unemployment, 159-170 Fixprice, 132, 139-140 Forecasts accuracy of, 525-526, 528, 545, 551, business failures indicator used in, and cyclical turning point predictors, 525-551 diffusion index used in, 542 and durations of past cycle phases, 528-529, 534 econometric, 522, 562-568, 570-574 evaluation of, 523, 525 in fiscal and monetary policy, 389-390, 393 forecast month scoring in, 548, 549-551 income expenditure method of, 508 of inflation, 500-501 of inventory expectations, 560 of investment intentions, 553-561 judgmental, 562, 566-568, 569-570 leading indicators used in, 534-535, 537, 542, 545, 548, 549, 550 median remaining length model used in, 529, 534, 542, 548 naïve model used in, 528-529, 542,

545, 548, 549 in 1955, 510-514 in 1956, 514, 516–518 in 1957, 518, 520-522 in 1971, 458-459 in 1974 recession, 489 premature signals in, 545, 548-550 of residential construction, 561 of sales expectations 554-556, 557-558 turning point, 525-551 Full employment surplus, 386–389, 452-453 defined, 305 fiscal impact of, 331, 333, 335 in 1955-1969, 327, 331 and output, 315-316, 320-322 in price adjustments, 315–321 quantification of, 308–310 and taxation, 333, 335 timing in, 313-315 and unemployment, 321–322 and uses of, 305-308 weighting components of, 310-313

Gold, and convertibility with dollar, 228–230
Government debt. See Federal debt
Government policy. See Federal policy
Gross national product (GNP)
deflator of, 3–4, 308
forecasts of (see Forecasts)
nominal, 62, 500
and postwar economic activity, 499
potential, 54–55, 145–158
and unemployment, 7
Growth oriented policies, 381
Guideposts. See Wage-price guideposts; Wages, guideposts for High pressure economy, 171 See also Upward mobility demographic shifts in, 193, 195, 198-200 productivity in, 174-178

skill and wage differentials in, 173 224-225 upward mobility in, 172, 178-181, and unemployment in 1960s, 225-228, 186–189, 192–193, 195, 198–210 230–231, 233–234 and unemployment in 1970s, 234-240 Implicit contracts, 120-130, 139-141. variable rates of, 42-46 See also Prices; Wages and Vietnam War, 51 Income inequality, 595–605, 610, 617, vulnerability to, 503 619 and wages, 95-96 Income redistribution, 614–615, 628 Inflationary expectations, 23-24 Income tax. See Taxation and federal policy, 37-41, 46-47 Indexation, 108-110, 128 and personal tax surcharge, 344 Inflation, 3–6, 79–84 Information costs, 84 and balance sheets, 12-14 in customers markets, 87, 106 chronic, 79, 84, 119-120, 500-502 and misperceptions, 133-134 and cost raising policies, 57-58 in Walrasian model, 133 cures for, 6-7, 15, 17-18, 20-27 Interest rates in customer-auction economy, 97-106, and asset markets, 102-105 112-113 on federal debt, 260-268, 270-273, defined, 3-5 275–277, 279–283, 286–288, and employment, 6, 53 476-479 expectations of (see Inflationary and fiscal policy, 256 expectations) and inflation, 58 and fiscal policy, 5-6, 15, 17, 21, and monetary policy, 258, 289-290, forecasts of, 500-501 380, 395 vs. gradual disinflation, 7-8, 19-20 in 1969–1971, 455–456 hedges against, 56, 502 in 1974 recession, 487, 491 and implicit contracts, 124-130 on private assets, 283, 285-286 and "inflation backlash," 58 Inventory, 137 and interest rates, 58 expectations of, 560 and monetary policy, 5-6, 15, 17, 21 and full employment surplus, 324 in 1960–1980, 500–502 in 1970s, 472, 487-488, 491 in 1970s, 471–472 overbuilding of, 427 and output, 6, 53 and Revenue Act of 1964, 417-418 and poverty, 19 Investment and prices, 15 intentions, surveys of, 553-561 and real income, 6, 9-12 in 1960s, 434 and recession, 20-21 in 1974 recession, 487-488, 491 and retirement benefits, 9-10 and Revenue Act of 1964, 416-420, and saving, 13, 21 436 social costs of, 36-37, 41 Invisible handshake, 119-130 and spending, 21-22, 53-54 and stagflation (see Stagflation) Keynesian inflation theory, 79-81 steady, 40, 108 Keynesian model of short run income and unemployment, 24-25, 35-36 determination, 253-255 and unemployment in 1940-1960, Korean War, financing of, 497

Labor. See Employment; Labor unions; Unemployment
Labor unions and tax based incomes policy, 70–71 wage and price controls by, 15, 17, 52–53
Leaky bucket. See Efficiency, and costs of achieving equality
Legal services, access to, 603, 604
Lobbying groups, 604

Macroeconomics, 131–132 and postwar economic activity, 496-503 Manpower programs, 208–210, 233-234, 240-243 Market clearing, 84, 133, 138–139 Microeconomics, 131-133 Misperceptions. See Rational expectations with misperceptions Models, in policy formulation, 562-574 Monetary policy, 63-64, 375-378, 468, 471 activist, 396-399 aggregative, 159-170, 395-396 and balance of payments, 381 and balance sheets, 380 and Federal Reserve (see Federal Reserve) financial dislocation caused by, 380-381 and fiscal policy, 440, 443, 498–499 in forecasting, 389-390, 393 and full employment surplus, 307 for growth, 381 and implicit contracts, 126-127 and inflation, 5-6, 17, 21 and interest rates, 258, 289-290, 380, 395 in Keynesian theory, 253–255 in 1950-1970, 440-445, 497 in 1969–1971, 454–457, 468 and nominal GNP, 500 and output, 377-380

in recessionary periods, 498

recommendations for, 476–480 restraining action of, 394–395 side effects of, 377–382 in stabilization policy, 382, 393–394 for stagflation, 50, 59–62 stimulative action of, 375–376, 381, 394–395, 442–443, 445 and the Treasury (see Treasury) Monopoly, 637

National economic policy, formulation of, 584-591
National goals, conflicting, 221-249
Natural law philosophy, 622-623

Oil prices, 479, 637–638 and forecasts during 1974, 490-491, 493 increases in, 474, 476 and price levels, 127-128, 138 "Okun's law," 145–158 Output and cyclical productivity patterns, 137 final demand for, 427 and full employment surplus, 315-316, 320-322 in high pressure economy, 176-178 and inflation, 6, 53 and monetary policy, 377-380 in 1960s, 427, 445 in 1970s, 472 and productivity bonus, 174-176 and unemployment, 54-56, 159 and Vietnam War, 26

Payments, balance of. See Balance of payments Pensions. See Retirement benefits
Permanent income hypothesis, 345–348
Personal disposable income in 1960s, 427
in 1974 recession, 482, 484–486
and Revenue Act of 1964, 406, 408–411, 413–416, 419
Personal tax surcharge, 366–368

and consumption, 341–371 econometric models of, 352–355, 358–359, 361–366 empirical test of effects of, 348–355, 358–359, 361–366 full effect of, 349–351, 355, 358, 359, 361, 362, 363, 364 and inflationary expectations, 344 and permanent income hypothesis, 345–348 and saving, 343–344 statutory basis of, 339–340 zero effect of, 349–351, 358, 359, 361,	and fixprice, 132, 139–140 and full employment surplus, 315–321 guideposts for, 64–66, 225–228, 244–247, 439 and implicit contracts, 122–126, 127–130, 139–141 and inflationary expectations, 23–24, 46 and labor demand, 22–23 misperceptions of (see Rational expectations with misperceptions) in 1960s, 225–228, 438 in 1969–1971, 27–33, 457–458,
362 Phillips curve, 81–82, 132, 163, 206,	463–466 in 1974 recession, 492
500–501	and oil (see Oil prices)
Policymaking institutions and	and price levels, 127–130
procedures, 463, 468-469	in recessionary periods, 464-465, 492
Council of Economic Advisers (see	reduction of, 243-244
Council of Economic Advisers)	stability of (see Price stability)
and fiscal policy, 466–467 (see also Fiscal policy)	in stagflation policies, 53
and forecasting models, 571–573 (see	in tax based incomes policy, 61, 74–75
also Forecasting)	and wages, 94
and formulation of national policy,	Price stability, 27 and balance of payments, 8–9
584–591	and Cabinet Committee on Price
government's role in, 621-623 (see	Stability, 590–591
also Federal policy)	Private property rights, 625–627
and monetary policy, 468 (see also	Production. See Output Monetary policy)	Productive contribution, rewards for,
president's role in, 577-582, 584,	620-621, 623-625
586–587	Productive efficiency. See Efficiency
Portfolios, 502	Productivity, and GNP, 155-158
multiplicity of assets in, 258-260	Product markets, and inplicit
short and long securities in, 262	contracts, 121-122
Poverty and antipoverty programs, 19, 601–602	Product standardization, 138–139
Presidential leadership in policymaking,	Profits, 138
577–582, 584, 586–587	and full employment surplus, 323-327 and 1960s, 427
Price indices, 3–4	and Revenue Act of 1964, 406
Prices, 15, 17–18, 51–53	Prosperity expectations, 24
in customer markets, 86-90	Public policy. See Federal policy and federal spending, 591	- F
and firms as price makers, 86-87	Quantity making, 139
and firms as price takers, 139	Quantity taking, 87, 139

Rational expectations with misperceptions, 131, 133-134, 141 and business cycles, 133-134, 135-138 missing information in, 134-135 Real income and inflation, 6, 9-12 and unemployment, 8 Recession, 424-427 fiscal policy during, 498 and inflation, 20-21 monetary policy during, 498 in 1950s, 427, 431, 433 in 1970s, 472-474 in 1974, 482–495 and unemployment, 464 wage-price inflation during, 137-138, 464–465 Residential construction, 486–487, 561 Retirement benefits, 601-602 cost-of-living adjustments to, 40-41 and inflation, 9-10 Revealed preferences, 606-607 Revenue Act of 1964, 408-410, 436-437 and consumption, 406, 408, 410-411, 413, 414–416, 419, 436 corporate tax in, 410, 419-420, 436 effects of, 405–408, 413, 420, 422 and induced investment, 416-420, 436 and inventory investment, 417–418 and personal disposable income, 406, 408-411, 413-416, 419 pure consumption multiplier in, 410-411, 413-416 Revenue and Expenditure Control Act of 1968, 338-341 Reward TIP. See Tax based incomes policy (TIP)

Sales expectations, 554-556
Sales tax, 60-61
Saving
and inflation, 13, 21
in 1974 recession, 482, 485
and personal tax surcharge, 343-344
Slowdown, costs of, 7-8

Social equality. See Equality Social security benefits. See Retirement benefits Special Trade Representative, 590 Stabilization policy, 433, 479, 497 for cyclical stabilization, 499 federal budget used to implement, 430 federal funds rate for, 476-477 fiscal actions in, 382-389 monetary actions in, 382, 393-394 in 1969–1971, 451–452 Stagflation, 50 federal policies for, 50, 53, 58-62 persistence of, 79 Structural deterioration thesis, 163-164 Supply and demand, 86 and monetary policy, 395-396 and unemployment, 159-170 in wage-price policies, 52 Supply shocks, 501 Sustained prosperity, 424–449

Taxation changes in rates of, 348, 384-385 and fiscal stimulation, 440 and full employment surplus, 333, 335 and implicit contracts, 128-130 in 1960s, 435-436, 452 in 1974 recession, 486 and personal tax surcharge (see Personal tax surcharge) and price-wage restraint, 61 rates of (temporary and permanent), 348 and Revenue Act of 114 (see Revenue Act of 1964) and sales tax, 60-61 and tax cuts, 407 Tax based incomes policy (TIP), 61, 67-75 Tax Reform Act of 1969, 348 Tax surcharge. See Personal tax surcharge; Taxation, and personal tax surcharge TIP. See Tax based incomes policy and interest rates on Treasury bills, 260–268, 270–273, 275–277, 279–283, 286–288, 476–479 monetary and debt policy of, 255-258, 289-290

Treasury, 587-590

Unemployment, 7, 84, 173-174 and aggregate demand policies, 159-170 of blacks, 166, 231 and career labor markets, 112 cushions against, 41 and full employment, 35, 54, 146 and full employment surplus, 321-322 hardcore, 167-169, 231 and inflation, 6, 24-25, 35-36 and insurance benefits, 497 and layoffs and quits, 137 in 1940-1960, 224-225 in 1960s, 225-228, 230-231, 233-234, 428, 436–437 in 1970s, 234-240, 471-472 and output, 54-56, 148-159 and real income, 8 in recessionary periods, 464 reductions in, 173-174 and relative supplies, 165-166 and structural deterioration in labor markets, 163-164, 230-231, 233-234 of teenagers, 231, 233 Upward mobility, in a high-pressure economy, 171-220

Vietnam War economic effects of, 24-26, 39, 51, 227 financing of, 51

Wage-price guideposts, 63-66 Wages and career labor markets, 90-97 control of, 15, 17-18, 52-53 cost of living adjustments to, 40-41 determination of, 94-95 differentials in, 137, 172-173 guideposts for, 63-66, 112, 225-228, 244-247, 439

in high-pressure economy, 173 and implicit contracts, 120-126, 140-141 indexation of, 108-110 and inflation, 95-96, 124-126 and inflationary expectations, 24 and labor demand, 22-23 in 1960s, 225-228, 438 in 1969-1971, 457-458, 463-466 and prices, 94 in recessionary periods, 137-138, 464-465 in stagflation policies, 53 tax based incomes policy for, 61, 68 - 75Walrasian general equilibrium, 106, 131, 133 Welfare and implicit contracts, 106-107 and inflation, 30-37

Welfare reform, 602