Index

Aberdeen Free Press, 199 Aberdeen, Marchioness of, 69, 195 and n Acland, Francis D., 66, 193 Acland, Mrs Francis, 92, 195 Act of Union (1800), 25-7, 29, 31, 32 Adamson, William, 62, 111 Addison, Christopher (Visct Addison), misgivings on Government policy, 131-3 Adkins, Sir Ryland, 84n Administration of Ireland, The (Street), 48n, 92 Æ, see Russell, George Aftermath, The (Churchill), 204 Allegiance to the Crown, question of, 154, 157-9, 169, 176, 177, 183, 184 Amery, L. S., 38 Amritsar incident (April 1919), 51n Anderson, Sir John (Visct Waverley), 129, 132-5: on Government policy (1921), 134-5 Angell, (Sir) Norman, 2011 Anglican Church, see Church of England Anglo-Irish conference (Oct.-Dec. 1921), 154-71: Irish acceptance of conference, 153-154; Irish lack of plan, 154; opening of conference, 154; Irish proposal of external association, 154, 156-7, 167, 169; Ulster and partition, 155, 157-70; 'Draft Treaty A' (Irish alternative proposals), 156; Irish reject dominion status, 157; British pressure on Ulster, 158-62; Griffith agrees to recommend recognition of Crown as head of proposed association of free states, 158-9, 167; Ulster rejects proposed all-Ireland parliament, 159-60; action of 'die-hards', 164, 166; Bonar Law's attitude, 165-6; Lloyd George proposes boundary commission, 168; British draft treaty, 169; treaty rejected in Dublin, 169-70; ultimatum to the plenipotentiaries, 170; Articles of Agreement accepted, 171 Anglo-Irish Treaty (1921), 84, 174, 178, 180, 183: draft treaty, 169-70; Articles of Agreement signed, 21, 171, 172; text of Articles, 187-91; Treaty approved in British Parliament, 21, 173; approved in Dáil Éireann, 21, 173 and n; differing conceptions of Treaty, 176-7; underlying weakness of settlement, 184-9 Annals of an Active Life (Macready), 45n, 47n, 48n, 56n, 131n, 179n, 204

Archer-Shee, Lt.-Col. M., 173 Asquith, Henry Herbert (Earl of Oxford and Asquith), Prime Minister, 1908-16, 17-19, 31-4, 52, 61, 66, 67, 69, 71n, 93, 96, 131, 149, 180, 183; and third Home Rule Bill (1912), 17, 30, 40, 104; forms Coalition Government (1915), 18, 33-4; authorizes Lloyd George to conduct negotiations (1916), 18, 33; and Government of Ireland Bill (1920), 111, 118; wins Paisley by-election (1920), 122; and dominion home rule, 19, 122-7 Asquith Liberals, see Independent Liberals Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen (ASLEF), and Mallow shooting incident, 68-9 Australia, dominion status of, 172, 173, 177, 184 Auxiliary Division ('Auxis'), 20, 50, 56, 85, 95-7: dismissal of cadets by Crozier, 96; Crozier's resignation, 96-7 Ayerst, David, 59n Balbriggan, 'sack' of (Sept. 1920), 19, 43, Balfour, Arthur James (Earl of Balfour), 122, 130-33, 167: and 1916 negotiations, 34-5; opposes federalism, 38 Baptist Union, 72 Barnes, Thomas, 59 Beaslai, Piaras, 85 Beaverbrook, Lord, 160n, 166n Beck, Dr G. A., 77n Belfast Northern Whig, 107 Bell, Alan, shot dead by I.R.A., 90, 94 Bell, Dr G. K. A., 76n Belloc, Hilaire, 69n, 77, 81 Benedict XV, Pope, 163 and n Bennett, Richard, 45n, 51n, 57n, 87n, 205 Berkeley, Captain George Fitz-Hardinge, 79, 150, 165: and Peace with Ireland Council, 65-66, 69, 70, 74; on Crozier, 96; list of principal speakers for Peace with Ireland Council, 193-5; papers in National Library of Ireland, 201 Bernard, Dr J. H., 77n Birkenhead, Visct (Earl of Birkenhead), Lord

Chancellor, 20, 44n, 94, 114, 130, 136, 138,

139, 170n: on Sinn Féin propaganda, 84 and n, 94; and Anglo-Irish conference, 159

Birmingham, Archbishop of, see Ilsley Birmingham Gazette, 199 Birmingham Post, 53, 116, 138, 146, 198, 199: on Ulster and the settlement, 161, 162 Black and Tans, 20, 50 and nn, 51n, 54, 56-9, 63, 65, 78, 90, 99, 183, 204 Black and Tans, The (Bennett), 45n, 51n, 57n, 87n, 205 Blake, Robert (Lord Blake), 204 'Bloody Sunday' (Nov. 21, 1920), 20, 56, 90, Bondfield, Margaret, 69, 195 Bonham Carter, Sir Maurice, 71n Bonham Carter, Lady, 69, 71n, 99, 195 Botha, General Louis, 128 Boundary commission proposal, 168 Bourne, Cardinal Francis, Archbishop of Westminster, 76n, 78-9: attitude on reprisals, 78-9; reissues Manning's pastoral on Fenianism, 78; under pressure from his clergy, 78-9; his pastoral on Ireland, 79 Boyd, General, 130 Breen, Dan, 43n Brennan, Robert, head of Sinn Féin press bureau, 84 and n; starts Irish Bulletin, 85 Britain Between the Wars (Mowat), 205 Britain in the Century of Total War (Marwick), 57n British League for Support of Ulster and the Union, 30, 104 British Political Facts (Butler and Freeman), 61n, 198 and n British Weekly, 72 Brixton Prison, Lord Mayor of Cork's fast in, Bromley, John, 68-9 Bryce, John Annan, 65, 193 and n Bryce, Visct, 70 and n Buckingham Palace Conference (July 1914), 17 Buckland, P. J., 140n Buckmaster, Lord (Visct), 66, 69, 81, 99, 194 Buckmaster, Margaret, 66, 195 'Bulgarian atrocities' (1876), 71 and n, 74, 80 Burke brothers, shot at Balbriggan, 51 Burrows, Dr L. H., Bishop of Sheffield, 75-6 Butcher, Sir John, 173 Butt, Isaac, 27 Buxton, Earl, 124 and n By-elections, 1918-22, 61 and n, 79-80, 122 Byles, Lady, 66, 195 and n

CABINET COMMITTEE ON IRELAND (1919), 44, 108-9, 115
Cabinet papers, 202-3

Callwell, Maj.-Gen. Sir C. E., 203 Cambridge Union Society, 81 and n Canada, Dominion status of, 123, 172, 173, 177, 184 Canterbury, Archbishop of, see Davidson Carlisle, Rosalind, Lady, 71n Carson, Sir Edward (Lord Carson), 17, 103, 105, 107 and n: and 1916 negotiations, 33, 105; on terms of the Treaty, 180 Case, L. M., 200n Catholic Emancipation, 26 Catholic Herald, 77 and n Cavendish, Lord Frederick, 181n Cavendish-Bentinck, Lord Henry, 63 and n, 81, 91, 94, 112, 193: and Peace with Ireland Council, 65, 66, 69, 70n, 71n, 193 Cecil, Lord Hugh (Lord Quickswood), 36, 63 and n, 71-2, 96-8, 100n Cecil, Lord Robert (Visct Cecil of Chelwood), 63 and n, 81, 98, 112: and Government of Ireland Bill, 118 Chamberlain, (Sir) Austen, 121, 129, 131, 133, 139, 145, 149, 158, 159, 163n, 170: accepts Home Rule on grounds of expediency, 36-7; and federalism, 38-9; on reprisals, 55; on partition, 113; on Ulster (Nov. 1921), 163, 166 and n; papers in Birmingham University Library, 203 Chamberlain, Neville, 170 Charnwood, Lord, 84n Chesterton, G. K., 69n, 77, 81, 99 Chicago Tribune, 78 Childers, Erskine, 65n, 84 and n, 163, 202: secretary to Irish delegation at conference, Church of England, 74-7: opposition to reprisals, 74-5, 93; Archbishop of Canterbury's protest, 76-7 Church of England Peace League, 75 Church of Ireland, disestablishment of, 26 Church Times, 75 and nn Churchill, Lord Randolph, 104, 166, 167 Churchill, (Sir) Winston, 22, 110, 128-9, 132, 133, 173-6, 181, 204; 'gendarmerie' idea, 50; on the King's Belfast speech, 136, 139; ultimatum to Provisional Government, 179, 183; on Free State army's attack on Four Courts, 179; on the treaty settlement, 180 Clarke, Basil, British press officer in Ireland, 87, 89 Clarke, Thomas J., executed, 18 Clarkson, J. D., 6on Clifford, Dr J., 72 Clune, Dr P. J., Archbishop of Perth, in peace talks (Dec. 1920), 129 Clutton-Brock, Arthur, 69n, 81

INDEX Clynes, J. R., 66, 79, 99, 107, 111, 149; and Government of Ireland Bill, 118 Coalition Government in First World War, 18, 33-4, 37-8 Coalition Liberals, 182: and reprisals (Nov. 1920), 131; criticisms of Government policy, 131-2 Coalition manifesto (Nov. 1918), and Home Rule, 25, 42 Cockerill, Brig.-Gen. Sir George, 63 and n, 64, 74, 84n, 119, 201: put in touch with Griffith, 129 Collins, Michael, 45n, 48, 91, 140, 154, 174, 178: at Anglo-Irish conference, 156n, 168, 169; agrees to sign Articles, 171, 174; leader of Provisional Government, 21, 179; and drafting of constitution, 176n Congregationalists, 72 and n Conscription: proposed extension to Ireland (1918), 18-19, 37; linked with home rule, 18, 19, 37, 41; resistance, 19, 44; proposal shelved, 19, 41 Conservative opponents of reprisals, 63-4 Constitution of the Irish Free State, The (Kohn), 176n Contemporary Review, 59 Coote, (Sir) Colin, 63n, 84n Cope, (Sir) Alfred, attempts to negotiate with Sinn Féin, 129 Cork City, part burnt by Auxiliaries (Dec. 1920), 20, 58, 62 Council of Action (T.U.C. and Labour Party), 64 Council of Ireland proposed (1920), 108, 111, 112, 114, 116 Craig, Sir James (Visct Craigavon), Premier of Northern Ireland, 20, 21, 110-11, 145, 163, 165-8: abortive meeting with de Valera (May 1921), 116; invited by Lloyd George to conference, 139; accepts but refuses to meet de Valera, 146; and British pressure on Ulster, 158-60, 162; rejects all-Ireland parliament, 159-60 Craigavon (Ervine), 16on Craik, Sir Henry, 36 and n Crewe, Marquess of, 167 Critical Historian, The (Kitson Clark), 200n Croal, J. P., editor of the Scotsman, 165 Croke Park shooting (Nov. 1920), 56 Crown colony government, preparations for (1921), 20, 132-4, 139 Crozier, Brig.-Gen. F. P., commandant of Auxiliaries, 50 and n, 96n; dismisses cadets for looting, 96; resignation, 96-7 Cunningham, Sam, 161

Curtis, Lionel, 176

133: and the Irish Convention, 35 Cushendun, Lord (Ronald McNeill), 117, 166 Dáil Éireann, 22, 43-4, 92, 174: constituted (Jan. 1919), 19, 43, 46, 47; proclaimed 'dangerous association' (Sept. 1919), 19, 47; takes responsibility for army actions (March 1921), 43-4, 92; second Dáil set up (May 1921), 116; rejects dominion status (Aug. 1921), 142, 146, 147; approves Treaty (Jan. 1922), 21, 173 and n; Publicity Department, 84-6, 88, 91, 92, 201-2 Daily Chronicle, 46, 113, 172: controlled by Lloyd George, 88, 198 Daily Express, 53, 116, 146, 162, 198, 200 Daily Herald, 51, 59, 85, 100, 125, 163, 198 Daily Mail, 33, 46, 89, 112, 153, 198, 200 Daily Mirror, 200 Daily News, 47, 51, 52, 58 and n, 59, 85, 93, 94, 96, 111, 116, 138, 140, 148, 151-3, 162, 198, 201 Daily Telegraph, 46, 106, 145-6, 198: on Ulster and the settlement, 161 Dangerous Estate (Williams), 2011 Dark, Sidney, 74 Darling, Sir William, 87 and n, 88, 91 Davison, Dr Randall, Archbishop of Canterbury, 76, 81, 84n, 89, 93, 94, 103 Decline and Fall of Lloyd George, The (Beaverbrook), 106n, 166n Derby, Earl of, 166 and n: clandestine visit to Ireland (April 1921), 129 De Valera, Eamon, 20-22, 83, 92, 163, 167, 174, 182: abortive meeting with Craig (May 1921), 116; invited by Lloyd George to conference (June 1921), 139; insists on truce before talks, 139-40; confers with Lloyd George (July 1921), 21, 140-45; rejects dominion status, 142-6; publication of correspondence (Aug. 1921), 144-6, 148, 150-151; letter from Smuts, 145, 149, 150; continued correspondence with Lloyd George, 150-52; offer of unconditional conference accepted, 152-3; theory of external association, 154 and n; telegram to the Pope, 163 Devolution, 38, 103; see also Federalism Diamond, Charles, 77n Dicey, A. V., 15, 23, 28, 29, 39, 40, 101, 107, 183-4: and dominion home rule, 123, 126 'Die-hard' Conservatives and the conference, 164, 166 Dillon, John, 4111, 115

Documents relative to the Sinn Féin Movement,

White Paper, 88, 90

Curzon of Kedleston, Earl (Marquess), 19,

Dominion home rule and dominion status, 19-20, 65n, 115, 122-8, 133, 135, 137, 138, 141, 157, 179-80, 183-5: supported by British public opinion, 123-4; example of Commonweath, 123: difficulties of definition, 124-5; question of separate foreign policy, 125; question of armed forces, 126-8; offered to Sinn Féin (July 1921), 142, 149, 150; rejected by de Valera, 142-5; reaction of British press, 145-7, 149, 150; reaction of public opinion, 148-51; discussion of its meaning after Treaty, 173; question of right of secession, 173-4 Donoughmore, Earl of, proposes motion in Lords for negotiation (June 1921), 136 Dreyfus affair, 80 Dublin Castle, replacement of hierarchy, 129. Dublin railway strike (1920), 67-8 Dudley by-election (1921), 80 Duff, Douglas V., 50n Duffy, Gavan, 169n Duncannon, Lord, 83 Durham, Bishop of, see Henson Durham Report, 113 Dyer, Brig-Gen. R. E. H., 51 and n

Eamon de Valera (Longford and O'Neill), 154n, 184n Easter Rebellion (1916), 13, 18, 32-3, 43, 45, 105, 116: execution of leaders, 18, 33 and n Eastern Daily Press, 119, 139, 146, 199 Elliot, Walter, 63 and nn England's Case Against Home Rule (Dicey), 23, English attitudes to Irish self-government, 28-40: national feeling, 28-9; religious objections, 28, 30; Unionist party, 30-40 English Catholics, The (ed. Beck), 77n English Unionists, see Unionist Party in England Ennistymon, reprisals at, 54, 56 Ervine, St John, 16on Essex County Standard, 199 Evangelical Churches of Wales, 73 Evans, Rev. J. R., 73 Evans, Rev. Picton, 73 Evening Standard, 198 Evolution of Sinn Féin, The (Henry), 32n External association, idea of, 154 and n, 156-7, 167, 169

FEDERALISM, 38-9 Fenians, the, 26, 30, 33, 78 Fermanagh, see Tyrone and Fermanagh Fermoy, reprisals at, 53n, 56

121, 140 Fisher, H. A. L., 44n, 55n, 121, 149, 176: misgivings on Government policy, 131-3; diaries, 203 Fisher, J. R., 107 Fisher, Sir Warren, 134 Fitzalan, Visct, Viceroy of Ireland, 20, 134 and n; on Government of Ireland Act, 136 Fitzgerald, Desmond, 84 and n Four Courts, Dublin, occupied by irregulars (1922), 22, 174, 178-9: Free State soldiers attack them, 22, 179 Four Glorious Years, The (Gallagher), 84n Free Church Council, see National Council of Evangelical Free Churches French, Visct (Earl of Ypres), Lord Lieutenant, 20, 44n, 47-8, 77n, 134n: attempt on

Fiscal autonomy for Ireland, proposals for, his life (Dec. 1919), 44-6 Friend, The, 73 GALLAGHER, FRANK ('David Hogan'), 84n, 93, 202 Galway, reprisals at, 53n Gardiner, A. G., 59, 81 Garvie, Dr A. E., 72, 77n, 194 Garvin, J. L., 200 Geddes, Sir Eric, 68 Gee, Major R., 80 'Gendarmerie' plan, 49–50 General elections (U.K. Parliament): 1886, 27 and n; 1892, 27; Jan. 1910, 30; 1918, 19, 25, 41-2, 61 George V, King, 51, 81, 145, 151-2, 157, 163n, 203n: on Lord Mayor of Cork's fast, 89; opens Northern Ireland Parliament and appeals for reconciliation (June 1921), 20, 136-9; enthusiastic response to his speech, 138-9, 141, 181, 182 'German plot' allegations, 88, 90 Gibbs, Sir Philip, 65 and n, 77, 94, 100-101 Gilmartin, Dr T. P., Archbishop of Tuam, Ginnell, Laurence, 84 and n Gladstone, William Ewart: and home rule, 14, 15, 27, 30, 39, 40, 103, 180; disestablishment of Church of Ireland, 26; land legislation, 26 Gladstone and the Irish Nation (Hammond), 59n Glasgow Herald, 53, 80, 117, 138, 199: on Ulster and the settlement, 161 Gooch, G. P., 81 Gore, Bishop Charles, 65 and n, 70n, 74-5, 77, 194 and n Gort, reprisals at, 56, 57 Gould, James C., 63n

Government of Ireland Bill (Act) (1920), 19-20, 110-12, 115, 116, 118-22, 128, 129, 131, 132, 136, 159, 166, 185, 203: provisions, 118; elections under Act, 114, 116 and n Grant, (Sir) James Augustus, 63 and n Green, Mrs I. R., 69n Greenwood, Arthur, 62-3 Greenwood, Sir Hamar (Visct Greenwood), Chief Secretary for Ireland, 47, 51, 83-7, 91, 97, 100, 130, 131-5, 140, 149n: on Balbriggan incident, 52 and n; on R.I.C. and reprisals, 54-5; and Irish Republican propaganda, 83-4; on I.R.A. terror, 92 Gregory, Lady, 57 and n: Journals, 50n, 57 Gretton, Colonel John, moves 'die-hard' resolution, 149n, 158, 164 Grey, Sir Edward (Visct Grey of Fallodon), 70n, 111-12: and dominion home rule, 19, 122-6 Griffith, Arthur, 22, 43, 154, 167, 174, 176, 178n, 179: founds Sinn Féin (1898), 32; arrested (Nov. 1920), 129; and Anglo-Irish conference, 156n, 157-9, 168-71; agrees to recommend recognition of Crown as head of association of free states, 158-9, 167; personal pledge to Lloyd George, 168, 169 and n; and the draft treaty, 164; agrees to sign Articles, 171; agrees to amendments to draft constitution, 177 Grigg, Sir Edward (Lord Altrincham), 137 Guardian (Ayerst), 59n Guardian, The (Church paper), 75 Guest, Frederick, 38n

HALL, H. DUNCAN, 125 Hammond, J. L., 59 and nn, 69n, 70n, 80 and n, 100, 113, 147, 167, 193, 201 Hancock, (Sir) W. K., 204, 205 Hankey, Sir Maurice (Lord Hankey), 48 Headlam, Maurice, 36 Healy, T. M., 150 Hedgman, C. H., 72 Hegarty, P. S., 13 Henderson, Arthur, 61-3, 81, 98, 148 Henry, R. M., 32n Henson, Dr H. H., Bishop of Durham, 76 Herbert, Lt.-Col. Aubrey, 63n, 107, 193 Hewart, Sir Gordon (Visct Hewart), 44n Hills, John, 36 and n Hoare, Sir Samuel (Visct Templewood), 36-7, 63, 112; proposals for Irish autonomy, 121 Hobhouse, Professor L. T., 65 and n 'Hogan, David', see Gallagher, Frank Holt, Edgar, 204 Home Government Association, 27

Guildford, Bishop of, see Randolph

Home rule: traditional concept, 14, 15, 39-41, 185: Coalition manifesto (Nov. 1918), 25; English attitudes, 28-30, 34-5, 40-41; linked with proposal for Irish conscription, 18, 19, 37, 41 Home Rule Bills: First (1886), 17, 28, 40, 103; Second (1893), 27, 40; Third (1912), 17, 27, 30-32, 40, 103, 104: amending Bill postponed (July 1914), 17; operation indefinitely suspended, 17, 31 Home Rule Problems (ed. Williams), 65n Horne, Sir Robert (Visct Horne of Slamannan), 44n, 133; on dominion status, 173 Horrors of Bolshevism, (The Times pamphlet), 90 Horton, Dr R. F., 66, 69 Hull, strike of Irish workers (April 1920), 66 Impressions and Recollections (Crozier), 96n

Independent Labour Party, 120
Independent Liberals, 1918–22, 61, 66, 112: opposition to Irish republic, 119
India as republic within commonwealth, 184n
Intercourse Between Bolshevism and Sinn Féin, White Paper, 88, 90
Ireland For Ever (Crozier), 96n
Ireland in Insurrection (Martin), 58, 95, 100, 201
Ireland in 1921 (Street), 87n, 116n, 163n, 205
Irish Bulletin, Sinn Féin propaganda magazine, 85–8, 115, 162, 201: distribution, 85–6; raided by Auxiliaries, 87; bogus issues by British, 87–8, 91–2; used as information in England, 93; and offer of dominion status, 110

Irish Convention (1917–18), 18, 35–6, 106, 111: boycotted by Sinn Féin, 35; Report, 19 Irish Convention, The (McDowell), 4111 Irish Dominion League, 65 and n Irish Free State: general election (June 1922),

22, 174-5, 178; constitution comes into force (Dec. 1922), 22; characteristics of constitution, 177-8; weakening of links, 186; Republic declared (1949), 186

Irish Labour Party, 66n

Irish Parliamentary Party, 13, 19, 31: holds balance of power at Westminster (1910), 30;

eclipsed at 1918 election, 41-2

Irish Provisional Government (1922), 21-2, 174: and election for Irish parliament, 174-5, 178; and draft Irish constitution, 22, 176; British reply to draft, 176; question of oath of allegiance, 176, 177; British Government's attitude after assassination of Wilson, 179; Free State Army's attack on Four Courts, 179

Irish Republic: demand for it, 119-20, 127, 130, 154, 180; English views, 119-21; Irish aim to smuggle it into Treaty, 157; Republic declared (1949), 186 Irish Republic, The (Macardle), 45n, 57n, 116n Irish Republican Army (I.R.A.), 13, 44, 45, 47-9, 51, 54, 55, 57: attempt on life of Visct French (Dec. 1919), '44-6; guerrilla warfare, 45; organization, 45; effective strength, 45n, 49 and n; and Irish public opinion, 45; terrorism, 90, 92, 94; operations in north of Ireland, 108, 174, 175; military pressure on them, 130-31, 140; assassination of Sir Henry Wilson, 178 Irish Republican Brotherhood, 32 Irish Self-Determination League of Great Britain, 83, 86; propaganda work, 86 Irish Situation Committee (1920), 48 Irish Struggle and its Results, The (Paul-Dubois), 204-5 Irish Struggle, 1916-26, The (ed. Williams), 153n, 169n Irish Trades Union Congress, 66 and n Irish Unionist Alliance, 35n Irish Volunteers, 17, 43, 119, 140: landing of rifles (1914), 17; split in party and formation

JELLETT, W. M., 127

John Anderson, Viscount Waverley (Wheeler-Bennett), 204

John Bull's Other Ireland (Shaw), 40

Johnson, Thomas, 66n

Jolly George, S.S., 67

Jones, Tom, 134n, 144, 158n, 160n, 168, 176, 204, 205

Jowett, F. W., 62

of National Volunteers (1914), 17; raids on police barracks (1917), 44; oath of allegiance to Republic (1919), 44; become I.R.A., 44

KEITH, ARTHUR BERRIEDALE, 15: on Government of Ireland Bill, 119; and dominion home rule, 123, 125, 173; suggestion of republic within commonwealth, 184
Kempthorne, Dr J. A., Bishop of Lichfield, 66, 74n
Kenworthy, Commander J. M. (Lord Strabolgi), 71n, 81, 90, 94, 193
Kerr, Philip (Marquess of Lothian), 110
King George V (Nicolson), 204
King's Shropshire Light Infantry, 36
Kirkcaldy by-election (1921), 80
Kitson Clark, G., 2000
Kohn, Leo, 176n

Labour and Nationalism in Ireland (Clarkson), Labour Party, British, 41, 61-3, 68, 70-71, 79, 111, 149: sends commission to Ireland (Nov. 1920), 62; report of commission, 93, 95, 98, 99, 201; campaign for peace in Ireland, 62-3, 79; and Council of Action, 64; press bureau, 85; opposition to republicanism, 119-20 Lahinch, reprisals at, 54 Lang, Dr C. G. (Archbishop of York), 74, 75 Lansdowne, Marquess of, 31: and 1916 negotiations, 34 Laski, Harold, 81 Last Changes, Last Chances (Nevinson), 59n Law, Andrew Bonar, 18, 44, 51, 104, 114, 144, 16on, 167, 182, 183, 204: support for Ulster Unionists (1913), 30; and 1916 negotiations, 34-5; Coalition manifesto (1918), 25; and exclusion of Ulster, 105; and dominion home rule, 146; champions Ulster (Nov. 1921), 165-6; papers in Beaverbrook Library, 203 Lawson, Lieut.-Gen. Sir Henry, 69-70, 92, 95, 193 Lawton, John, 63, 194 Leicester Mail, 199 Liberal Magazine, 119, 147 Lichfield, Bishop of, see Kempthorne Life, Journalism and Politics (Spender), 2011 Limerick, reprisals at, 53 and n, 54 Liverpool: strike of Irish workers (April 1920), 66; National Unionist Conference (Nov. 1921), 164-8 Liverpool Courier, 53, 114, 153, 199 Lloyd George, David (Earl Lloyd George), 14-15, 18-21, 37, 38n, 44, 47, 48, 51, 72, 73n, 74, 83, 85, 91, 101–2, 104–5, 110, 119, 129– 131, 134, 147, 149n, 155, 173, 178n, 200, 205: negotiations with Irish and plans for settlement (1916), 18, 33-4, 40, 105, 110; becomes Prime Minister (Dec. 1916), 18, 35; and Irish Convention, 18, 35; proposes extension of conscription to Ireland, 18; Coalition manifesto (1918), 25 on reprisals, 55 and n, 56 and n, 97-8, 100; and trade unions, 67, 68; and C. P. Scott, 80n, 203-4; jeers at protest movement, 81: and Sinn Féin propaganda, 83; and Government propaganda, 88; controls Daily Chronicle, 88, 198; and Lord Mayor of Cork. 89n; distinction between Sinn Féin and 'murder gang', 92; and police indiscipline, and Ulster, 106, 107n; and county option, 112; on partition, 113; and Government of

Ireland Act, 114, 141; rejects fiscal autonomy

for Ireland (Oct. 1920), 121; and dominion home rule, 122, 126-8, 133, 141, 149; opposes truce (May 1921), 132-3; and George V's Belfast speech (June 1921), 137, 130, 181-2; invitation to de Valera and Craig, 139-40; confers with de Valera (July 1921), 21, 140-45; publishes correspondence with de Valera and Craig, 144-6, 148; continued correspondence with de Valera, 150-152; offer of unconditional conference accepted, 152-3 and Anglo-Irish conference, 155, 156n, 157-165, 167-70: obtains concessions from Griffith, 158-9; pressure on Craig, 159-60; proposes boundary commisssion, 168; Griffith's pledge to him, 168-70; and draft treaty, 169-70; issues ultimatum to plenipotentiaries, 170, 173; on the Articles of Agreement, 172; and Ireland after the Treaty, 175-7; questions to Griffith on Irish draft constitution, 177 and public opinion, 179-83: obliged to seek terms through revolt of British conscience, 180-81; failure to follow trends of public opinion, 181; beset by other problems, 181; influence of Conservatives in Coalition, 182-183; on position of the Crown, 183 Lloyd George papers, 199, 203-4; biographies, 204 Long, Walter (Visct Long of Wraxall), 39n, 48n, 109, 121, 122: and 1916 negotiations, 34; and federalism, 38; Chairman of Cabinet Committee on Ireland (1919), 44, 108-9; Chairman of Irish Situation Committee (1920), 48; on dominion home rule, 126 Longford, Earl of, 153n, 154 and n, 156n, 157, 169nn, 170n, 184n Lynd, Robert, 66, 69n

Macardle, Dorothy, 45n, 53, 54, 57n, 116n MacCarthy, (Sir) Desmond, 66 MacDonagh, Thomas, executed, 18 MacDonald, Ramsay, 66: loses Woolwich East by-election, 80 MacDonnell, Lord, 71n, 77 McDowell, R. B., 41n McGrath, Sean, 86 Maclean, Sir Donald, 119 MacMahon, James, 122 MacNeill, Eoin, 17 McNeill, Ronald, see Cushendun, Lord MacPherson, (Sir) Ian (Lord Strathcarron), 44n, 47n Macready, General Sir Nevil, Commanderin-Chief in Ireland, 45n, 47 and n, 52, 54, 56, 98, 130, 131 and n, 132, 134-5, 140, 204: on martial law, 48n; and need for reinforcements, 49 and n; and Government propaganda, 86; memoranda on military situation (1921), 135; delays attack on Four Courts. MacSwiney, Terence, Lord Mayor of Cork. fasts to death in Brixton Prison, 76, 89 MacVeagh, Jeremiah, 78 Malcolm, Sir Ian, 37 and n Mallow: reprisals at, 56, 89; shooting of railwaymen (Feb. 1921), 68 Manchester Guardian, 39, 40, 46, 51, 52, 54, 59, 72, 85, 90, 91, 93, 94, 98, 146-8, 178, 198-201: and Government of Ireland Bill, 111 Manning, Cardinal, condemns Fenians, 78 Mannix, Dr Daniel, Archbishop of Melbourne, refused entry to Ireland, 78, 79 Mansergh, Nicholas, 42, 104 Martial law, 47, 98, 134 and n, 135: established in eight counties (1920-21), 20, 48 Martin, Dr Alex, 77n Martin, Hugh, 58 and n, 59 and n, 81, 89, 95, 100, 111, 112, 118, 119, 140, 181, 201 Marwick, A., 57n Massingham, H. W., 72, 74 Maud, Dr J. P., Bishop of Kensington, 74 and n, 194 and n Maurice, Maj.-Gen. Sir Frederick, 138 Melbourne, Archbishop of, see Mannix Methodist Recorder, 72 Midleton, 'official reprisal' at (Jan. 1921), Midleton, Earl of, 35n, 140n Military Service Act (1918), 19 Milltown Malbay, reprisals at, 54 Milner, Visct, 104 Miners' Federation, 67 Mitchell, (Sir) Peter Chalmers, 70n Montagu, E. S., misgivings on Government policy, 131-3 Monteagle, Lord, 71n, 193: and dominion home rule, 122 Morgan, Dr K. O., 182 Morley, John (Visct Morley of Blackburn), 27n Morning Post, 33, 51, 81, 90, 94, 95, 149, 163, 198 Morris, Lord, 71n Mosley, (Sir) Oswald, 63 and n, 64, 70n, 98-9, 140, 193: honorary secretary of Peace with Ireland Council, 63-6 Mowat, C. L., 205 Munro, Robert (Lord Alness), 133 Murray, Gilbert, 70n, 80, 81, 112, 201 My Fight for Irish Freedom (Breen), 43n My Life (Mosley), 63n

Nation, 46, 59, 63, 72-4, 80, 85, 91, 101, 111, Council of Evangelical Free National Churches, 73 and n National Review, 51, 81, 120 National Union of General Workers, 67 National Union of Railwaymen (N.U.R.), 66-68: Dublin (North Wall) strike, 67-8 National Unionist Conference, Liverpool (Nov. 1921), 164-8 National Volunteers, 17 Nevinson, H. W., 58-9, 66, 69n, 79, 89, 98, 194, 201 New Statesman, 33, 39, 46n, 52-3, 63, 68, 93, 111, 115, 147-8, 194 New York Nation, 76 New Zealand, dominion status of, 172, 173, Newman, Cardinal John Henry, 78 News of the World, 47 Newspaper Press Directory, 198 Newspapers, 197-201; provincial, 198-9 Nicolson, Sir Harold, 204 Nightingale, Rev. Thomas, 73 Nineteenth Century, 121 No Other Law (O'Donoghue), 45n Nonconformists and the 'Nonconformist conscience', 71-4, 99: failure to take lead against reprisals, 71-3; Free Church Council, 73; division of opinion, 73 Northamptonshire Regiment, 58 Northcliffe, Visct, 33, 80 and n, 200 Northern Echo, 119, 199 Northern Ireland Cabinet, accepts offer of talks (June 1921), 140n Northern Ireland Parliament, 20, 116-17, 136-9, 185: elections for (May 1921), 20, 116 and n, 132, 133; opened by George V (June 1921), 20, 137-9; address to Crown praying for exclusion from jurisdiction of Irish Free State (Dec. 1922), 22 Northumberland, Duke of, 81 Nottingham Journal and Express, 199

O'Brien, Art, 83, 86: papers in National Library of Ireland, 202
O'Brien, Dr C. C., 101
Observer, 33, 39, 89, 112, 113, 139, 174, 178, 198, 200
O'Connell, Daniel, 27
O'Donoghue, Florence, 45n
O'Higgins, Kevin, 173-4, 178n
O'Neill, T. P., 154n, 156n, 184n
Opportunity Knocks Once (Stuart), 86n
Orchard, Dr W. E., 72

Owen, Frank, 100n, 204 Oxford Union, 81 and n

PAGE-CROFT, BRIG.-GEN. H. (Lord Croft), 81 Paisley by-election (Feb. 1920), 122 Pall Mall Gazette, 198 Parliament Act (1911), 30, 104 Parnell, Charles Stewart, 27, 174, 180 Partition of Ireland, Englishmen and, 103-117: proposal for two Irish parliaments, 108-9; creation of six-county area, 109-10, 112-13; Government of Ireland Bill (Act), 19, 20, 110-12, 114, 116, 118, 119; Council of Ireland proposed, 108, 111-12, 114, 116 Paul-Dubois, Louis, 204-5 Peace by Ordeal (Longford), 156n, 169nn, 170n, 184n Peace with Ireland Council, 63-6, 69-71, 74, 76, 80, 96, 99, 140, 147: organization of meetings, 69-70; list of principal speakers, 193-5 Pearse, Patrick, 18, 32: executed, 18 Peel, Sir Robert, 27 Penistone by-election (1921), 80 Peterborough, Bishop of, see Woods Pettigo incident (May 1922), 175, 176 Phillips, Alison, 178n Phoenix Park murders (1882), 181n Plunkett, Sir Horace, 65n, 71n, 193 Political Diaries of C. P. Scott, The (ed. Wilson), 81n Pollock, Sir Frederick, 70n Pope, the, see Benedict XV Postgate, Raymond, 100 Primitive Methodist Leader, 72 Propaganda, 82-102 Sinn Féin, 82-9, 93-4, 100-101; press bureau, 84; Dáil Publicity Department, 84-86, 88, 91, 92; Irish Bulletin, 85-8 British propaganda organization, 86-9; bogus issues of Irish Bulletin, 87-8, 91-2; White Papers, 88, 90-91; complaints of Government failure in propaganda, 90-93 Propaganda and Psychological Warfare (Qualter), Protest in Arms (Holt), 204 Protestant church leaders' protest on Government policy (May-June 1921), 76-7, 97-8, 100, 119 Public Mind, The (Angell), 2011 Public opinion, use of phrase, 15 Punch, 30, 33

Qualter, T. H., 201 Quarterly Review, 63 INDEX 25 I

Queenstown, reprisals at, 56 Quinn, Professor D. B., 28

Randall Davidson (Bell), 76n Randolph, Dr J. H. G., Bishop of Guildford, 74 and n Rathbone, Eleanor, 70n

Records and Reactions, 1856-1939 (Midleton), 35n

Redmond, John, 30-35, 180: calls on Irish Volunteers to join British army (1914), 17; lack of control over new nationalism, 32; and 1916 negotiations, 33-4; agrees to Irish Convention, 35; and 1916 negotiations, 33-4; death, 18

Redmond, Capt. W. A., 41n

Reprisals: Balbriggan incident (Sept. 1920), 19, 43, 51-4; British press reaction, 52-3; Government views, 55-6; 'Bloody Sunday', 20, 56, 90, 94; 'official reprisals', 56, 98; estimates of casualties, 57n; journalists' reports, 58-9; protests by British politicians, 61-4; Peace with Ireland Council, 63-6, 69-71, 74, 76, 77; attitude of trade union movement and T.U.C., 64, 66-9; views of the churches, 71-9, 93, 97-100, 119; Government and R.I.C., 95-8

Restoration of Order in Ireland Act (1920), 19, 48

Revolution in Ireland, 1906-23, The (Phillips), 178n

Riddell, Lord, 47, 181, 200n Roberts, Dr J. E., 72

Roman Catholicism, English views of, 28, 30,

Roman Catholics in England, 77-9: Committee for Reconciliation between Great Britain and Ireland, 77; opposition to reprisals, 77, 79, 99; Cardinal Bourne's attitude, 78-9 Rosebery, Earl of, 27-8

Round Table, 34, 51, 79-81, 98, 102, 105, 113, 123, 152

Round Table group, 38

Royal Irish Constabulary (R.I.C.), 43, 48-52, 68, 94-8: recruiting in Great Britain, 49 and n; and reprisals, 54-6, 95-8; see also Auxiliary Division and Black and Tans

Russell, Bertrand (Third Earl Russell), 81 Russell, Second Earl, 71n Russell, George (Æ), 69n, 129

Salisbury, Marquess of, 29, 36, 37 Salvidge, Sir Archibald, 128, 164-6 Salvidge of Liverpool (Stanley Salvidge), 170n Saye and Sele, Lord, 71n Scotland, and England, 29

Scotsman, The, 53, 127, 138, 145, 165, 199: on Ulster and the settlement, 161

Scott, A. MacCallum, 63n

Scott, C. P., 59, 81 and n, 107n, 115, 147, 200, 201: and Lloyd George, 8on, 203-4; and Government of Ireland Bill, 111; memoranda, 203-4

Selborne, Earl of, 35, 39n: resigns over Lloyd George's 1916 plan, 34

Sell's Dictionary of the World Press, 198

Shandon, Lord, 121

Shannon, R. T., 74

Shaw, George Bernard, 14, 40, 66, 180, 184n: on the Easter Rebellion, 33

Sheffield, Bishop of, see Burrows

Sheffield Telegraph, 53, 127: on Ulster and the settlement, 161

Shinwell, Emanuel, 120

Simon, Sir John (Visct Simon), 66, 94: speaks for Peace with Ireland Council, 69, 81 and n, 194

Simon, Lady, 66, 81n

Sinn Féin, 13-15, 19, 20, 33, 41, 47, 53, 55, 57, 63, 65, 71, 75-6, 78, 81, 90, 91, 95, 97, 98, 101-2, 114-16, 122, 123, 127-9, 136, 138-9, 147, 167, 180-83: founded by Griffith (1898), 32; origin and rise, 32n; boycotts Irish Convention (1917), 35; and 1918 general election, 19, 41 and n, 42, 43; members ignore Westminster, 43, 106; constitution of Dáil Éireann, 19, 43; Sinn Féin declared illegal organization (Aug. 1919), 47; prisoners in Wormwood Scrubs, 66; propaganda, 82-9, 93-4, 100-101, 201; demand for Republic, 130; all candidates returned unopposed to Southern Ireland parliament (1921), 20, 116 and n, 133; Lloyd George's invitation to negotiate (June 1921), 139-41; offer of dominion status rejected, 142-5, 149-151; new offer of unconditional conference accepted, 152-3; Sinn Féin and the conference (Oct.-Dec. 1921), 157-9, 161, 162, 165; Publicity Department, see Dáil Éireann Publicity Department

Six-county area, creation of, 109-10, 112-13 Smuts, General Jan Christiaan, 137, 141, 146, 203, 204: and George V's Belfast speech, 137; letter to de Valera, 145, 149, 150 So It Looks to Me (Darling), 87n

Society of Friends, 72

'Soldier's Song, A', Irish Republican anthem,

Soloheadbeg ambush (Jan. 1919), 43 South Africa, dominion status of, 123, 145, 172, 173, 177 South Wales News, 199

Southern Ireland Parliament, 1921 elections, 20, 116 and n, 132, 133 Southern Irish Unionists, 35n, 105, 106, 109, Spectator, The, 51, 81, 90, 94, 108, 144 Spender, J. A., 32, 2011 Stamfordham, Lord, 137 Star, The, 151, 198 Steed, Wickham, editor of The Times, 59, 129, Stevenson, Frances (Countess Lloyd George), 159, 16on, 168 Stopford, Edith, 69n, 70n: papers in National Library of Ireland, 201 Strachey, St Loe, 108, 120, 161-2 Street, C. J. C., 48n, 87n, 92, 116n, 129, 141, 151, 163n, 202, 205 Strickland, General, 130 Stuart, Sir Campbell, 86n Sturgis, Mark, diaries of, 52, 71n, 87, 89, 96, 129, 130, 134, 140, 202, 204 Survey of British Commonweath Affairs (Hancock), 205 Sword for Hire (Duff), son Sykes, Lady, 69, 70, 92, 194 and n Tablet, The, 77 Talbot, Lord Edmund, see Fitzalan, Visct Talbot, Dr E. S., Bishop of Winchester, 66, 74, 77n Taylor, A. J. P., 197, 200 and n Tempestuous Journey (Owen), 100n, 204 Temple, Dr William, 75 Templemore, reprisals at, 53n, 56

Thomas, J. H., 63, 68, 120, 149: and Dublin railway strike, 67, 70-71; and Government of Ireland Bill, 118-19 Thomson, Brig.-Gen. C. B. (Lord Thomson), 62, 194 and n Thomson, D. C., 167 Thomson, Malcom, 204 Thurles, reprisals at, 53n Times, The, 19, 25, 27n, 31, 33, 51, 59, 69, 73n, 76, 80, 81, 86n, 88, 90, 92-4, 99, 112-13, 117, 121, 129, 145, 146, 152, 153, 173, 174, 183, 198-201, 202n: on 'Papists', 30; and reprisals, 53 and n, 57; and Government of Ireland Bill, 119; on George V's Belfast speech, 138; on Ulster and the settlement, 161-3 Tipperary, reprisals at, 60

Trades Union Congress (T.U.C.) and trade union movement, 64, 66-9, 79, 111, 118: and Council of Action, 64; Irish Congress, 66 and n; links with Ireland, 66-7; Dublin

66 and n; links with Ireland, 66-7; Dublin railway strike, 67-8; Mallow shooting incident, 68-9; and Irish republicanism, 120 Triple Alliance (trades union), 67 Truce proposals (March-April 1921), 131-2; defeated by Cabinet majority, 132-3; agreement on truce (July 1921), 139, 140 and n Tuam, Archbishop of, see Gilmartin Tuam, reprisals at, 53n Tudor, Maj.-Gen. Henry Hugh, 49n, 50 and n, 51n, 56n, 87, 130: differences with Crozier, 96

Tyrone and Fermanagh, problem of, 155
ULSTER COVENANT (Solemn League and Covenant), 17, 30, 110

Ulster Protestants, 14, 28, 102-4, 112, 146: violence between Protestants and Roman Catholics, 107-8, 112

Ulster question, the, 103-17: pre-war history, 103-5; proposals to exclude Ulster from home rule, 104-5; wartime situation, 106-8; British lack of interest, 103; outbreaks of violence, 107-8, 112; proposals of Long's Committee, 108-9, 115; decision to establish Ulster parliament, 109; creation of sixcounty area, 109-10, 112-13; Government of Ireland Bill (Act), 19, 20, 110-12, 115, 116, 118, 119; partition, 114-17

Ulster Unionists, 15, 30, 103–10, 112–16, 118, 185: and the Irish Convention, 106; Unionist Council, 18, 105, 113; Liberal and Labour attitude towards them, 107; and civil strife, 107–8; and creation of six-county area, 109–10, 112–13; establishment of Northern Ireland Parliament, 20, 116–17, 136–9; and 1921 negotiations, 143–4 and the conference (Oct.–Dec. 1921), 155, and the conference (Oct.—Dec. 1921), 155, 157–70: pressure by press on Ulster, 161–2; 'die-hards' and Ulster, 164; Bonar Law's attitude, 165–6

Ulster, use of word, 16

Ulster Volunteer Force (U.V.F.), 14, 96 and n, 103, 107: landing of rifles (1914), 17 Ulster's Stand for Union (Cushendun), 117 Union Defence League, 37n

Unionist Party in England, 30-40: support for Ulster Unionists, 30; and 1916 negotiations, 33-4; and Coalition Government, 33-4, 37-8; argument of expediency, 36-7; views of younger members, 36-7; and federalism, 38-9

United States of America: entry into war (1917), 18, 35; and Irish question, 35; Anglo-American relations, 99
United Textile Workers, 67

VICARS, SIR ARTHUR, former Ulster King-at-Arms, shot by terrorists, 94 Victorian England, Portrait of an Age (Young),

WADSWORTH, A. P., 59 and n, 81 Wales: and England, 28-9; Evangelical Churches, 73 Wales, University of, protest by professors and lecturers, 99 Waller, Rev. Bolton Charles, Secretary of Peace with Ireland Council, 69n, 147, 148, 150, 165, 194 War Diary, 1914-18 (Riddell), 200n Webb, Beatrice, 81 Webb, Sidney, 66, 81, 120 Weekly Summary, Dublin Castle publication, Western Daily Press, 199 Western Mail, 127, 199 Western Morning News, 119, 145, 199 Westminster, Archbishop of, see Bourne Westminster Gazette, 51, 52, 95, 99, 114, 116, 138, 146, 147 and n, 152, 198, 201 Wheeler-Bennett, Sir John, 204 Whitehall Diary (Jones), 134n, 158n, 159n, 16on, 205 Williams, (Arthur Frederic) Basil, 65 and n, 6on, 81 Williams, Francis (Lord Francis-Williams), Williams, T. Desmond, 153n, 169n Willoughby de Broke, Lord, 104 Wilson, Field-Marshal Sir Henry, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, 47, 49, 50, 83, 98, 130, 135, 136, 180, 181, 203: on Black and Tans, 54; assassinated (June 1922), 22, 178, 179; diaries, 203 Wilson, Sir Leslie, 163 and n Wilson, Trevor, 81n, 204n Winchester, Bishop of, see Talbot Winter, General Sir Ormonde, 132 Wood, Edward (Lord Halifax), 36 and n, 63 Woods, Dr F. T., Bishop of Peterborough, 69, 74 and n, 77n Woolwich East by-election (Feb. 1921), 80 Wormwood Scrubs, Sinn Féin prisoners in, Worthington-Evans, Sir Laming, Secretary of State for War, 44n, 121, 133, 135, 136, 164, Wylie, W. E., 122

YORK, ARCHBISHOP OF, see Lang Yorkshire Post, 39, 113, 116, 127, 145: on Ulster and the settlement, 161 Young, G. M., 26-7, 71n Younger, Sir George (Visct Younger of Leckie), 163 and n, 164, 166n, 170