Index

Aarhus Convention, 193-94, 251,	Annan, Kofi, 193
263n.76	Arato, Andrew, 147
Abbott, Jason, 69	Archibugi, Daniel, 180
Accountability	Arendt, Hannah, 116, 157
democratic, 92	Ashley, Richard, 24
in treaty negotiations, 216	Associative democracy, 283n.61
Administrative state, 241	Australia
democratic discursive designs in, 15	environmental cooperation resisted
Dryzek on, 163	by, 231
ecological critique of, 88-93	and French nuclear tests, 219, 234,
and Habermas on citizenship, 177	237
and liberal state, 14	Authoritarian state, and green state,
and transnational bonds, 185	xii, 1
Adorno, Theodor, 107	Autonomy
"Affectedness," principle, 16–17,	and affectedness principle, 173
173–74, 181, 186–87, 188, 190	and ambit claim, 114
and membership principle, 175	and cosmopolitanism of Held, 188
as restrictive, 187, 191	and critique of liberal democracy,
and transnationalizing of democracy,	104
193	and liberalism, 107-108, 166, 242
Agenda 21, 212, 229
Agents, and social structures, 24	Barkun, J. Samuel, 204
Ambit claim for ecological	Barnett, Jon, 227
democracy, 15–16, 111–15,	Barrow, Clyde, 61
128–29, 135, 137, 164–65, 171,	Barry, John, 119
174	Basel Convention on the Anarchy, international, 14, 241	Transboundary Movement of cultures of, 43–48, 250–51	Hazardous Waste, 233
eco-anarchists, 86, 89	Beck, Ulrich, 15, 60, 79, 88, 90, 97,
and "rationality" of states, 23	197
and state preoccupation with	Beetham, David, 40, 42
security, 21	Beitz, Charles, 184
in Westphalian system, 204	Bellamy, Richard, 200

Belongingness principle, 173–74, 186, limitation of (Young), 160 190, 193 and state, 154, 161, 162-64 Bernstein, Steven, 229, 230 Climate change negotiations, 32 Between Facts and Norms Club of Rome, 73 (Habermas), 144 Coercion, as explanation for action, Biosphere, and international state 37 - 38Cohen, Jean, 147, 157 system, 20 Blühdorn, Ingolfur, 73 Collective security communities, 45 Bohman, James, 128, 130 Commission for Sustainable Brundtland Report (Our Common Development, 212 Future), 72, 74, 101, 214, 291n.39 Common but differentiated Bull, Hedley, 5, 91, 239, 245 responsibilities, principle of, 214, Bureaucratic rationality, 90 229 Bush administration, second, 33, 39, Common good, republican 43 understanding of, 50 Buttel, Frederick, 61 Communicative action, 35, 46 Communicative communitarianism, 174 Capitalism contradictions of, 57–58 Communicative context, 40–43 and democracy, 106 Communicative ethics, 41 ecological sustainability impossible Communicative ideal, 119, 154–55, for, 59 171, 173, 282n.42 and state, 54–60, 64 Communicative justice, 10 as "treadmill of production," 63 Communicative reason or rationality, Capitalistic welfare state. See Welfare 116, 160 state Communicative republicanism, 186 Carr, E. H., 45 Communitarianism (communitarian Cartagena Biosafety protocol, 233 democracy), 179-86, 248 Carter, Alan, 89 on autonomous self, 104 Cerny, Philip, 65, 68 and belongingness, 173, 174 Christoff, Peter, 70, 74, 75, 76 and citizenship, 177 Citizenship, ecological, 184, 245 and discourse ethic, 192 Civic nationalism, 204 and Habermas, 172 Civic republicanism, 12–13, 16, 50, objection to, 190 179, 186 Community, Taylor on, 105 and affectedness, 187 Competition state, 65–69 and general will problem, 141 Competitive strategy(ies), 69 and Habermas, 156, 182 ecological modernization as, 70 Civil society, 254 Compromises, Habermas on, 149, and associative democracy, 283n.61 281n.33 and democratization of state, 60 Conca, Ken, 29, 238–39 Constitutional design, 155, 245 vs. downward pressures on environmental standards, 69 green examples of, 243-44 and Habermas, 144, 147, 149, Constitutional patriotism 153–54, 169 (Habermas), 147, 168, 172, 175, and liberalism, 106 177, 182, 189

Constitutional structure of international society, 203 Constructivism, 9, 36, 43–48, 124-25. See also Critical constructivism Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision Making and Access to Justice in Environmental matters, 193-94 Convention on Biological Diversity, Convention on Environmental Impact Assessment in a Transboundary Context, 194, 263n.76 Convention against Landmines, 43 Cosmopolitan democracy (cosmopolitanism), 16-17, 180-89, 191, 199, 248, 275n.4 and affectedness, 174 and discourse ethic, 192 and Habermas, 172 institutionalizing of, 174 objection to, 190 opposition to, 191-92, 200 Cost-benefit analysis, 100 Counterfactual ideal, 41 Counterhegemonic tendencies, 24 Cox, Robert, 30, 34, 65 Critical constructivism, 9, 20, 33–40, and political logic of social orders, and state sovereignty, 203 and structure-agent relationship, Critical ecological conception of freedom, 141 Critical political ecology, 9-10, 48, 141, 156, 171, 186, 250 and critical theory, 8-9 and emancipatory openings, 50 and exclusive territorial rule, 234 and Habermas, 150 and inside-out-inside approach, 190 - 91 and liberal democracies, 96, 107 on liberalism, 104 and norms of ecologically responsible statehood, 227 and self, 97 and shared understandings, 27 and social construction of nature, and territorial rule, 49 and transnational state, 192 Critical theory, xi, 4, 8–9, 257n.18 and capitalism, 71 and current historical practices, 91 Linklater on, 24 and possibility of green state, 20 vs. problem-solving (Cox), 30 "Critical vantage point" argument, 127 - 28Cronin, Bruce, 38, 204 Cultures of anarchy, 43-48, 250-51 Dalby, Simon, 225 Deliberative democracy criticisms and problems of, 127, 131, 278n.35 intuitive green appeal of, 115-19 and moral or epistemological challenges in representing excluded others, 119-27 and political or institutional challenges in representing excluded others, 127-37 Democracy. See also Ecological democracy; Liberal democracy and affectedness, 173-74 associative, 283n.61 and basic rights (Habermas), 144

others, 127–37
Democracy. See also Ecological democracy; Liberal democracy and affectedness, 173–74 associative, 283n.61 and basic rights (Habermas), 14and belongingness/membership, 173–74 discursive, 146, 152, 172–73, 174–75 and green movement, 109–10 in green state, 2
and liberalism, 106
need for deepening of, 253 and norms, 138

Democracy (cont.) Earth Summit, 228 state limits to, 88 Eco-anarchists, 86, 89 Eco-authoritarian state, xii transnationalizing of, 192–93 Democratic accountability, 14–15 Eco-efficiency, 73, 74–76 Democratic state, green. See Green Ecofeminism, 10 democratic state Ecological citizenship, 95, 184, 245 Democratic state, Habermasian, Ecological crisis, 292n.54 150–52, 156 rethinking invited by, 198 Demonstration effect, 201 and state, 90 Deudney, Daniel, 196, 225, 226, 227 Ecological critique of administrative Developing countries state, 88–93 and environmental protection Ecological critique of liberal norms, 233 democracy, 1, 2, 93-104 as globalization victims, 252 Ecological critique of liberal dogmas, and right to development, 221-24, immanent, 104-109 Ecological democracy, 2, 110, 139, and sovereignty vs. environmental 242-43, 251 encroachment, 230-31 affectedness principle in, 186 ambit claim for, 15-16, 111-15, and sustainable development, 206 128–29, 135, 137, 164–65, 171, Devetak, Richard, 8 Dialogue, 40 in deliberative democracy, 116 and deliberative democracy, 118 Dialogue of enlightenment, 78 and discursive democracy, 152 Disciplinary neoliberalism, 53, 65-66 liberal democracy as giving way to, Disciplined imagination, 4 Discourse ethic, 115, 172, 192 moral rather than pragmatic institutionalizing of, 172 reasoning in, 164 as postliberal, 107 Discourse principle or theory, 16, 42-43, 62, 112, 144, 146, 148, representative element in, 132 149, 150 and state sovereignty, 248 transboundary dimensions of, 16 Discursive democracy, 146, 172–73, 174 - 75Ecological discourses, 48 and ecological democracy, 152 Ecological embeddedness, 190 Displacement of ecological costs, 105, Ecologically responsible statehood, 2, 227, 236–38 120, 126, 133, 242, 249 Dobson, Andrew, 75, 134 Ecological modernization, 15, 64, Dogmas of liberalism. See Liberal 69–79, 202, 208, 241, 252–53 dogmas and levels of state reflexivity, 80-83 Draft Declaration of Principles on and privileged states as good Human Rights and the international citizens, 84 Environment, 232 weak, 109, 229 Dryzek, John, 59-60, 62, 64, 128, Ecological security, 224–28, 292n.54 130, 153, 159, 160, 161–64, 169 Ecological socialism, 58 Dual politics, of Habermas, 147 Ecological state, 103 Due diligence test, 218 Economic freedoms, macro-limits on needed, 95, 273n.27 Dworkin, Ronald, 145

Economic growth, and environmental protection, 56-57, 72, 76 Ecosocialist analysis of state, 61 Ecosocialist state, 59 Emancipatory paradox, and Habermas, 156 Empirical turn in deliberative democracy, 130-31 Enlightenment dialectic, 78 ecologically informed dialectic of, and liberalism, 108 Environmental advocacy, 15 Environmental capacity building, 83, 245-46, 254 Environmental harm, state responsibility for, 17, 217-21, 233–34, 249 in green constitution examples, 243-44 Environmental impact assessment, 126 Environmentalism and economic growth, 76 free market, 94, 95 Environmental justice vs. economic development, 221-24 institutionalizing of, 137 and privileged states, 253 Environmental justice movement, 10, 78 Environmental legislation, 100–101 Environmental modernization, 73. See also Ecological modernization Environmental Modernization: The New Labour Agenda (Jacobs), 73 Environmental movement, 255n.1. See also Green movement(s) and preexisting institutions, 230 Environmental multilateralism, 15, 26, 31, 202, 211–17, 241, 251 academic work on, 28 and economic multilateral arrangements, 52 and sovereignty, 48, 233 and territorial rule, 30 Environmental NGOs. See NGOs Environmental patriotism, 196, 231 Environmental pragmatism, 130, 167 Environmental problems, as threats to security or economic interests, 22 - 23Environmental protection and economic growth, 56-57, 72 and generalizable vs. particular interests, 98 realist view on, 21-22 as task of welfare state, 79-80 Environmental Protection Agency, 215 Environmental regimes, 28, 32 Environmental rights, 136-37, 214 Environmental treaties, multilateral, Epistemological challenges, in representing excluded others, 119 - 27Ethical ideal of the state, 64 European Union (EU), 45, 47–48, 175-76, 201, 251, 279n.45, 2.94n.5 Excluded others representation of (moral and epistemological challenges), 119-27 representation of (political and institutional challenges), 127-37 representation of (precautionary principle), 196 Factor Four (Club of Rome report), Finger, Mathias, 225

Factor Four (Club of Rome report), 73
Finger, Mathias, 225
Fishkin, James, 194
Framework Convention/Protocol model, 213–14
France, atmospheric nuclear testing in Pacific by, 219, 234, 237
Frankfurt School of Social Research, 8, 9, 257n.18
Freedom, republican understanding of, 50

Free market environmentalism, 94, 95
Free trade zones, 68
Friendship, and Wendt on culture of anarchy, 44–45
Functionalist analysis and theories, 59, 60–61, 62, 64, 81

Game theory, 28 Garrett, Geoffrey, 68 Geneva Red Cross Conventions, "green protocol" to, 228 Germany, 67, 69, 215 Giddens, Anthony, 70 Gill, Stephen, 53, 65 Gleeson, Brendan, 239 Global capitalism. See Globalization and global capitalism Global cosmopolitan democracy, 175 Global cosmopolitan law, 199-200 Global discourses, 17 Global environmental protection authority, 239 Global Environment Facility, 212 Globalization and global capitalism, 2, 13, 14, 15, 53–54, 64, 241, 264n.1 and "global domestic law," 182 and green state, 51-52, 65, 67 and Habermas, 177 and national communities, 185 sovereignty as resistance to, 232-33 and state, 65-69, 177 and state sovereignty, 30 transnational public sphere from, 150 - 51Global political ecology, and "statist frame," 4 Global warming, 91, 219 and low-lying island states, 23 Golub, Jonathan, 83 Goodin, Robert, 120, 121 Gramsci, Antonio, 257n.18 Gramscians, 38

Green consumerism, 95

Green critique of liberal democratic state, 86-88 Green critique and reconstruction of Habermasian democratic state, 150 - 52Green democratic standard of membership for states, 205-206 Green democratic state, 139-41, 169, 238, 243–45, 248, 248–49, 254 and avoidance of security state, 25 as capitalist or postcapitalist, 83-84 challenges to, 14-15 and current developments, 53 democratic will in, 178 and demonstration effect, 201 and ecological democracy, 243 and green public spheres, 171, 245, 246 - 47legitimacy of, 16 multilateral influence of, 252 Green discourses, counterhegemonic, Greener growth, 72–73 Green evolutions in sovereignty, 17, Greening of sovereignty, 27, 203, 2.09 - 10Green Liberalism: The Free and the Green Society (Wissenburg), 94 Green military, 226 Green morality, 169 Green movement(s), 109-10, 246-47, 254, 255n.1. See also Environmental movement vs. green public sphere, 156–57 and state, 11-12, 91 and reform vs. cultural change, 251 Green parties, xi, 134 Green political theory, and nation-state, 4–5 Green public sphere, 16, 86, 140, 156-58, 171, 245, 246-247 and avoidance of security state, 25 and green democratic state, 171,

245, 246, 253

Green sovereignty discourse, 235 Green state, xi–xii, 1, 2, 13 and analysis of social life, 63–64 constitutional structures of, 2–3 and global capitalism, 51–52, 65 and globalization, 67 Gulf War (1990–1991), 228 Guttman, Amy, 130

Haacke, Jürgen, 158 Haas, Peter, 30–31 Habermas, Jürgen, 16, 141–42, 164 and antagonistic social forces, 158 and communicative action, 46 communicative ethics of, 41 communicative ideal of, 119, 154–55, 171, 173, 282n.42 communicative republicanism of, on compromises, 149, 281n.33 and constitutional patriotism, 147, 168, 172, 175, 177, 182, 189 and deliberative democracy, 115, 116 and democracy, 174, 197 on democratic law, 13 discourse ethic of, 115, 172, 192 discourse theory of, 16, 42, 146 and discursive democracy, 172–73 on formal democracy, 172 on global democratic public law, 188 and "global domestic law," 182 and green normative framework, 178 on legal norms, 153, 248, 281n.31 and moral validity, 120 and national communities, 182–84, and nation-state, 172, 175-78 on normative validity, 112 and pragmatic reasoning, 164–68, and public sphere, 142–50, 153–56, pure proceduralism of, 161 and representation, 113 and republicanism, 144, 145–46, 280n.16 and social democracy, 198 systems-theoretic approach of, 56, and state role, 142 on value, 124 Habermasian democratic state, 150–52, 156 Hajer, Maarten, 69, 72, 78, 83 Hall, P. A., 80 Hardin, Garret, 23 Hard power, 38-39, 253 Hay, Colin, 60 Hayward, Tim, 107, 136 Hegel, G. W. F., 8, 39 Hegemonic power, 38, 40 and counterhegemonic tendencies, 24 Held, David, 112, 175, 175, 180-81, 186, 187–88, 189, 191, 193, 195, 198, 199, 199–200, 201, 248 Hirst, Paul, 90, 199 Hobbesian culture, 21, 28, 29, 43, 44, 46, 47, 51, 201, 225, 249 Horkheimer, Max, 8, 107 Human right(s) breach of as crime against humanity, to environmental protection, 136 - 37intervention in defense of, 226 right to develop as, 222 and Stockholm Declaration, 232 Hurd, Ian, 37 Hurrell, Andrew, 252 Hyperconstructivism, 123-24

Ideal communication community, 171 Ignacio-Pinto, Judge, 219 Ikenberry, G. John, 38 Imagination, disciplined, 4 Imber, Mark, 225 Immanent ecological critique of liberal dogmas, 104-109 Imperialism and cosmopolitanism, 191 environmental encroachments seen as, 230, 233 green, 201 multilateral financial institutions' conditions seen as, 222 Inclusiveness, in deliberative democracy, 116-17 Individuation, paradox of, 49 Innovative discursive procedures, and Habermas, 178 Inside-out-inside approach, 190-91 Institutional challenges, in representing excluded others, 127 - 37Interest group bargaining, 98 International anarchy. See Anarchy, international International Court of Justice, 219 International Criminal Court, 26, 43, 211 International Monetary Fund, 66-67 Intersubjective understandings, 123 Intersubjectivity, and pragmatic reasoning, 165 IOs (international organizations), Iraq, question of intervention in, 39, 45

Jackson, Robert, 205 Jacobs, Michael, 73, 76 Jänicke, Martin, 60, 82, 87, 90 Johnson, James, 129 Jones, R. J. Barry, 200

Kant, Immanuel, 8, 112, 173 Kantian culture, 44, 45, 46, 201, 250–51, 251 Kantian security team, 45 Keohane, Robert, 30–31 Klipsch, Ronald, 137 Krasner, Stephen, 210 Ksentini, Fatma Zobra, 136–37 Kupchan, Charles A., 38 Kymlicka, Will, 179, 180, 183 Kyoto climate change negotiations, 216 Kyoto Protocol, 43, 263n.64

Laclau, Ernesto, 159 Law of the Sea Convention, 213 Legal norms, 148-49, 172 Habermas on, 148, 153, 248, 281n.31 Legitimacy of green democratic state, 16 Habermas on, 151 and international community, 39, 40, 41 as reason for behavior, 37 of rule or norm, 36 and self-interest, 36 social basis of, 27 of state, 1, 60 of state coercion, 12, 13 of treaties, 217 Weber on, 7 Legitimate power, 38 Levy, Mark, 30-31 Liberal democracy (liberal democratic state), 1-2, 62-63, 241-42 democratic deficits of, 14, 15 democratic will in, 178 ecological critique of, 1, 2, 93-104 and ecological democracy, 2, 137, and ecological state, 103 green critique of, 86-88 vs. green democratic state, 16, 139-41 and Habermas, 144-45, 151 legislatures in, 154 nexus of elements in, 247 as non-neutral, 244 and reflexive learning, 85-86 social structure for, 105-106 Liberal dogmas, 108, 242 and green democratic states, 238

immanent ecological critique of, 104-109 Liberal environmentalism, compromise of, 229 Liberalism and democracy, 106 and Enlightenment, 108 Liberal pluralism, 99 Liberal political culture, as Habermas presupposition, 149, 166 Libertarians, 94 Liftin, Karen, 209 Lindblom, Charles, 98 Linklater, Andrew, 8, 24, 45-46, 47, 191, 192, 197 Locke, John, 108–109 Lockean culture, 43, 44, 46, 47, 51, 250 and Habermas, 144, 145 and neoliberal approaches, 29 Lockean defense of private property, "Long march through the institutions," 143, 153 Low, Nicholas, 239 Lundqvist, Lennart, 6, 245 Macyntyre, Alasdair, 96 Majority rule, and moral pluralism, 93 - 94Marietta, Don, 123 Markets, 12 Marx, Karl, 8 Marxist-inspired critical social theory, 3 - 4Meadowcroft, James, 103, 254 Mellor, Mary, 10 Membership principle, 173–74, 186, Military intervention, 226–27 Miller, David, 179, 182, 183, 186, Modernity, radical ecological critique of, 79

Modernization

reactions against, 79

reflexive, 15, 64, 69, 70–71, 73, 77, 79, 80, 82 Modernization, ecological. See Ecological modernization Modernization, environmental, 73 Mol, Arthur A., 72 Moral challenges, in representing excluded others, 119-27 Moral context, of self-interested negotiation, 32 Morality, green, 169 Moral norms, Habermas on, 148 Moral pluralism, 94 Moral reasoning, 164–67 Moral validity, Habermas's procedural account of, 120 Morgenthau, Hans, 21 Mouffe, Chantal, 159 Multilateral environmental treaties, Multilateralism, 49, 51, 195 and Nye on soft power, 39 and state sovereignty, 30 and US vs. EU, 45 Multilateralism, environmental. See Environmental multilateralism Multilateral negotiations, communicative context for, 40–43 Multilateral treaties, 28, 176, 194 NAFTA, 68 Najam, Adil, 222-23

NAFTA, 68
Najam, Adil, 222–23
Narrative explanation, 63
Narrative explanatory protocols, 37
National communities, 179, 182–83, 184–85, 248, 285n.18
"thrown character" of, 180
National Environmental Policy Act, US (1969), 215
National sovereignty, 204
Nation-state, 255n.6
and ambit claim for ecological democracy, 114–15
as ecological trustee, 51 and green political theory, 4–5 and Habermas, 172, 175–78

Nature, representation of, 120-26, Nonintervention (noninterference) as ecological resistance, 224, Negative sovereignty discourse, 17, 232-34 205, 223, 224, 230, 232–33, 234 responsibilities correlative to, 234 Neo-Gramscians, 34, 38, 41 right to, 234, 238 Neoliberal economic policy, 2 Non-state actors, 82, 216, 217. See Neoliberal institutionalism, 27, also "Excluded others;" NGOs 28-33, 33, 46-47, 48, 50, 250 Normative theory(ies) of the state, 1, and critical constructivism, 34, 51 3-4, 7, 12, 13, 16 and culture of international anarchy, concern of, 20 43 Normative validity, Habermas's Neoliberalism, 28 procedural account of, 112 and "compromise of liberal Norms. See also Legal norms environmentalism" (Bernstein), and democracy, 138 229 of ecological interventions, 226–27, disciplinary, 53, 65–66 and international competitiveness, Habermas on, 148, 153, 248, 65 - 66281n.31 and self-interest, 32 on sovereignty, 205, 207, 210-11 Neoliberal state, 8 North Atlantic Treaty Organization Neo-Marxist theorists, 54, 71 (NATO), 45 Neorealism, 21, 22, 24, 25, 28 Nuclear fallout, and nuclear-testing and critical constructivism, 34, 51 case, 219 and culture of international anarchy, Nye, Joseph, 38–40, 253 and environmental exploitation, O'Connor, James, 56, 57-59, 60, 61, 62, 64, 159 249-50 "power-based" framework of, 28 O'Connor, Martin, 10 Netherlands, 69 OECD, 67, 77, 81, 82, 229 New International Economic Order Offe, Claus, 56, 61 (NIEO), 222, 223 Ohmae, Kenichi, 67 New Zealand, in nuclear-testing case, Olsen, Mancur, 99 Ontological critique of liberalism, NGOs, 216, 251, 278n.43 104-105 and developing countries, 230 Ophuls, William, 72 and discourse on environmental Organizational realism, 88–89 rights, 206 Our Common Future (WCED), 72, in green constitution example, 243 239. See also Brundtland Report and multilateral treaties, 28, 176 and national communities, 185 Paehlke, Robert, 79, 253 Pakistan, and precautionary principle, and political action, 35 and state, 33-34, 82 and state-civil society relation, 161 Palan, Ronan, 69 Paradox, emancipatory (Habermas), in treaty texts, 217 Nonhuman others, 120–22, 168

Paradox of American power, 253 Paradox of individuation, 49	Power disparities in, 99–100
Parasitical transcendence, 10	hard vs. soft, 38–39, 253
Parekh, Bhikhu, 106	hegemonic, 38, 40
Passive exclusive states, Dryzek on,	illegitimate, 93
163, 164	legitimate, 38
Paterson, Matthew, 11	Pragmatic reasoning, 164–68, 169
Patriotism, environmental, 196, 231	Pragmatism, environmental, 130,
Peace of Westphalia, 204. See also	167
Westphalian system of sovereign	Praxeology, 8
states	Precautionary principle, 135–36, 139
Penz, Peter, 238, 239	214, 237
Perot, Ross, 68	constitutional entrenchment of, 135,
Persson, Göran, 73, 253	168, 196, 244
Petitt, Philip, 145	and European Community, 279n.45
Phillips, Anne, 133	and moral norms, 229
Philpott, Daniel, 37, 204, 205, 207	origination of, 215
Plumwood, Val, 10, 96	and rights of environmental victims,
Pluralism	234–35
liberal, 99	vs. traditional assumptions, 249
moral, 94, 141	Preservationist or protective political, 96	perspective, 32
Pluralistic communities, 46	Price, Richard, 9
Pogge, Thomas, 184	Principles on Human Rights and the
Poggi, Gianfranco, 6, 8, 92	Environment, 136
Policy diffusion, 251–52	Private property, 102–103. See also
Policy failure, 56	Property rights
Political action, repertoire of, 35–36	absolute and exclusive, 49
Political challenges, in representing	Problem-solving, 30
excluded others, 127–37	Property rights, 100–101, 104, 114,
Political and discursive struggles, 62	236. See also Private property
Political pluralism, radicalization of,	Locke on, 108–109
96	Public accountability, and green
Politics	critique of administrative state, 88
of difference, 127, 157	Public interest, 99
of ideas vs. presence, 133	Public sphere, 140, 142–50
of recognition, 168	green, 86, 140, 156–58, 245,
Polkinghorne, Donald, 63	246–47 (see also Green public
Polluter pays principle, 214, 237	sphere)
Pollution, and inverse restraint	realizing potential of, 153-64
principle, 102	and state, 86
Postliberal state, 2	transnational, 150
Poststructuralists, 86, 89, 197–98
Post-Westphalian community, 201,	Race to the bottom, 66, 68, 69
250–51, 251	Radical ecology movement, 75

Radical environmentalists, and Restraint principle, 101–102, 103, capitalism, 71 Rational actor model, 35 Reus-Smit, Christian, 9, 206, 207, Rational choice theory or 209 assumption, 28, 36, 97, 99, 146 Right(s), 100. See also Human rights; Property rights Rationality bureaucratic, 90 to develop, 221-24, 230, 235 of states in anarchic system, 23 and discourse principle, 144 Rawls, John, 101, 144, 144–45 environmental, 136-37, 214 Realism, 19–26. See also Neorealism of environmental noninterference, critique of, 26-27 234, 238 vs. neoliberal institutionalists, 29 in green democratic constitution, and paradox of individuation, 49 243 "power-based" framework of, 28 Rio conference, 212 Rio Declaration on Environment and and state cooperation, 28 "Reasonable use" test, 218 Development, 212–13, 214, 221, Reflexive learning, and liberal 228, 229 democratic state, 85-86 precautionary principle of, 135 Reflexive modernization, 15, 64, 69, and right to develop, 235 70–71, 73, 77, 79, 80, 82 Risk, and free informed consent, 111 Regime(s), 28, 29, 31 Risk generating activity, and Regime formation, 34–35 justification to victims, 114 Regulative ideal, 130 Risk generation and displacement, Remoteness, 10 109 Reporting, state of the environment, Risse, Thomas, 41 126, 194 Rosewarne, Stuart, 61, 63 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 141, Representation in democratic process, 112-13 280n.16 of "excluded others" (moral and Ruggie, John, 37, 49, 63, 65 Rutherford, Paul, 78 epistemological challenges), 119–27 of "excluded others" (political and institutional challenges), 127-37 Said, Edward, 129 Saward, Michael, 19, 191, 192, 195 of "excluded others" (precautionary principle), 196 Schnaiberg, Alan, 63 and general will, 141, 280.16 Scientific uncertainty "unrepresentative," 164 and democratic deliberation, 134–35 Republicanism, 282n.42 and precautionary principle, 135 civic, 12-13, 16, 50, 141, 179, 186 (see also Precautionary principle) (see also Civic republicanism) Security, ecological vs. traditional, 224-28, 292n.54 and Habermas, 144, 145-46, 280n.16 Security dilemma, 23 Security threats, 184 Resolution on Permanent Sovereignty over Natural Resources (1962), Self critical political ontology on, 97 Responsibility-displacement strategies, liberal ontology of, 104 60 Self-determination principle, 179

Self-interest and UN on right to development, and culture of anarchy, 44 221 - 22as explanation for action, 37-38 neoliberal notion of, 32 green, 235 overly broad defining of, 36 Shared understandings, 26-27, 35, 232-33, 234 37, 44, 63, 211 and culture of anarchy, 45 about legitimate authority to rule, 205 shifts in, 209 and sovereignty, 207 Short termism, 100 Shue, Henry, 223, 236, 237 Skocpol, Theda, 88–89 Social constructionism, 124–25 Social (societal) learning, 35–37, 80 decline of, 53 and communitarian understanding of democracy, 180 61 - 62in deliberative democracy, 117, Social structures, and agents, 24 Soft power, 38–39, 253 Solidarist communities, 46 Sovereignty, 51, 203-206, 228 absolute and exclusive, 49 2.49 vs. condemnation for human rights abuses, 226 235 - 37constitutive and regulative rules of, 287-88n.3 as good, 12-13 and democratic legitimacy, 248 as environmental defense, 248-49 and environmental governance, 231 - 39and environmental responsibility of states, 206-10 268n.55 evolutions in, 239 green evolutions in, 17, 207 7 - 8greening of, 27, 203, 209–10 and multilateral arrangements, 30 new role for, 3 over natural resources, 230–31 and norms, 205, 207, 210-11 state vs. national, 204 territorial dimension of, 30, 232-33 three faces of, 204, 207 transformation of, 48

Sovereignty discourse negative, 17, 205, 223, 224, 230, State(s), xi, 203, 204, 255n.6. See also Administrative state; Nation-state; Welfare state Bull on positive role for, 5 and capitalism, 54-60, 64 and civil society, 154, 161, 162-64 and critical constructivists, 34–35, critical theories of, 33 on critique of realism, 26 deductive vs. contingent theories of, and demands for environmental regulation and justice, 11-12 democratization of, 241 and ecological crisis, 59-60 ecological modernizers on, 72 as ecological stewards or trustees, environmental responsibilities of, and globalization, 65-69, 177 and green movement, 11-12 and Habermas, 142, 144–45, 149–50, 154, 169 important functions of, 160 internationalized and pan-Western, need to come to terms with, 5–6, neoliberal view of, 31 and new social movements, 11 as owner vs. caretaker, 235 and public sphere, 154, 169 realist view on, 19-21 and right to develop, 222 selection of policies in, 62

State(s) (cont.) as strong or effective, 12 transnational, 192, 197, 204-205, 231 understanding of role of, 64 Weber's understanding of, 6-7 State capitalist system, 56 State of the environment reporting, 126, 194 State responsibility for environmental harm, 17, 217-21, 233-34, 249 in green constitution examples, 243 - 44and responsibility-displacement strategies, 60 State sovereignty, 4, 27 for realist vs. neoliberal, 29 Stockholm conference, 212 Stockholm Declaration on the Human Environment, 212, 220-21, 232, 235 Strategic environmental policy, 72 Structural Transformation of the Public Sphere, The (Habermas), 142, 143, 153 Sunstein, Cass, 130 Sustainability, Barry on, 119 Sustainability, ecological and market processes, 64 and state, 59, 64, 88 Sustainability parameters, 95 Sustainable development, 15, 214, and developing countries, 206 international discourse of, 206 and state "interests," 27 Swedish Social Democrats, 73–74, 253

Taylor, Charles, 105
Terrapolitan conception of sovereignty, 196
Thatcher, Margaret, 21
"Think globally, act locally," 11
Thompson, Dennis, 130, 134

Torgerson, Douglas, 78, 86, 156–57, Tragedy of the commons, 14 avoiding of, 36 and interests of state, 22 and privatization of the commons, 95 and realist frame, 24-25 reasons for, 25-26 Trail Smelter principle, 220 Transboundary democracy, 171–72 Transboundary democratic willformation, 183–86 Transboundary environmental harm, and state responsibility, 217-18 Transnational green state, 16, 190, 192 - 98strategies for facilitating, 198-202 Transnational networks of communication, 176 Transnational states, 48, 189 Treaties, multilateral, 28, 176, 194 Tribunes for noncitizens, 134, 195

Unconstrained dialogue, in deliberative democracy, 116 UN Declaration on the Right to Development, 222 Unilateralism, 39, 43 Unit-driven transformation, toward transnational green democratic states, 201 United Nations and Aarhus Convention, 193 environmental bodies for, 239 environmental governance as social program for, 212 and green military, 226 program of reform of, 182 on right to development, 221 United Nations Charter and ecological security, 227 environmental concerns absent from, principle of non-intervention in, 232

United Nations Commission on Human Rights, 232 United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED), 212, 224, 225 United Nations Conference on the Human Environment (UNCHE), Stockholm (1972), 30, 212 United Nations Ecological Security Council, need for, 227 United Nations Environment Program (UNEP), 212 United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (1992), 32, 229United States, 253 and climate-change negotiations, 32 - 33and economic order, 67 environmental cooperation resisted by, 231 and EU, 45 and globalization, 67

Varner, Gary, 101, 102 Vietnam War, Agent Orange in, 228 Vig, Norman, 80, 81 Vincent, Andrew, 3, 4 Vogel, Steven, 122, 124, 131

Waltz, Kenneth, 21, 22 Walzer, Michael, 173, 179, 183, 192 Water resources, scarce, 25 Weak ecological modernization, 109, 229 Weber, Max, 6-7 Weidner, Helmut, 82 Weiss, Edith Brown, 213 Welfare state, 254. See also State(s) as capitalist state, 56 and dialectic of legal equality and factual inequality (Habermas), 177 and ecological state, 103 environmental protection as task of, 79 - 80 and state's contradictory tasks, 54 "fiscal crisis" of, 54 functionalist theories of, 64 and political autonomy, 68 Wendt, Alexander, 31, 43-45, 47, Westphalian system of sovereign states, 49, 203, 204 Wise-use perspective, 32 Wissenburg, Marcel, 94-95, 96, 96-97, 101-102, 103, 105, 236 World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED), 72, 232. See also Brundtland Report World Environment Council, 239 World Environment Court, 239 World Summit on Sustainable Development, 212

Young, Iris Marion, 133, 160, 161, 162, 169