Index

Academic institutions, 208–209
Access to information technology. See also Affordability; Content of digital resources; Electronic literacies; Rural areas comprising a broad array of factors, 46–48, 50, 51, 58, 199, 213 contact with other users affecting, 156–157
 cost of computers and operating software, 32, 47, 62–63
 cost of Internet access, 52
 cultural barriers to, 45–46 educational level and literacy affecting, 56, 57–58, 59 lack of linguistic diversity, 92–96
 physical access as only one aspect of, 118–119
 race and ethnicity as a factor, 37, 55, 57–58
 socioeconomic factors, 29, 37, 49–52, 54–58, 59
Access models. See Conduits model of access; Devices model of access; Literacy model of access Affordability
 cost of computers and operating software, 32, 47, 62–63
 cost of Internet access, 52
 plans to develop low-cost systems, 65–69
African Americans
 Internet access rates for, 7, 55, 56, 57–58
 television diffusion rates for, 37
Africa, sub-Saharan, 19
Agency of International Development (USIA), 5
Agre, P. E., 187–188, 211, 212
Amazon.com, 64–65
American Standard Code for Information Exchange (ASCII), 203
Antiglobalism movement, 192, 193–195
Apprenticeship and mentoring, 121
Arabic language computing, 59, 101–102
ARPANET, 24
ASCII, 203
Asian Americans
 Internet access rates, 56
 school computer use by, 130–131
Associational technologies. See Information and communication technology (ICT); Networks
Audiovisual media, 27, 87
Automobile industry
 information-based capitalism influencing, 15–16

Bangladore, India, 60, 85
Bateson, Gregory, 110
Behavioral change, 211–212
Beijing, China, 61

Beijing Normal University, 143
Bilingual programs, 135
BITNET, 24
Blind persons
 access to information technologies, 28, 90, 169
Bolter, Jay David, 115
Bonding social capital, 155
Bourdieu, Pierre, 153
Bourguignon, Francis, and C. Morrison, 20
Brazil, 9, 164
 Committee for Democratization of Information, 125–127
 low-cost computer development project in, 65–66
 Sampa.org project in São Paulo, 87, 165–166
Bresee Foundation, 166–167
Bridging social capital, 155
Broadband access, 58, 69
Brown, J. S., A. Collins, and P. Duguid, 124
Bulletin boards, 105–107, 117, 187
Bush, George W. (administration), 12, 217n.1
Bush, Vannevar, 26, 113

Cable television, 33–34, 73
California, 9. See also Los Angeles; Oxnard; Riverside
 the 2001 energy crisis, 35
Capitalism. See also Market mechanisms global capitalism, 12–13, 15–18
 information stage of, 12–13, 38–39
Castells, Manuel, 9, 13, 21–22, 34, 93, 218n.3
Catalytic effects of information technologies, 212
Censorship of Internet content, 183, 184
Children's Partnership study, 88, 89
Chile, pilot program in, 142
China, 9, 23
 Beijing Normal University, 143
 educational technology projects in, 142–144
 Internet access in, 61–62
 Internet surveillance by, 197
 restrictions on Internet use in, 182–183, 185
Chinese language, 61
Christensen, C. M., 64–65
Citizen feedback interactive programs, 172–173, 177, 179–181
Civil society, 185–187
Class analysis, 209–210
Class stratification and classroom computer access, 129–137 income inequalities, 18, 20–24
 and Internet diffusion, 54–55, 56
 role of the English language in, 100–101, 102
Clinton, William (Bill), 1
Coding biases, 203–204
Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency, 117–118
Collective identity, 93–95, 104–105
Comítê para Democtratização Informática (CDI), 125–127
Committee for Democratization of Information, Brazil, 125–127 Communication. See also Computer-mediated communication (CMC); Language; Multimedia; Online communication; Print media symbolic, 22
 technology-mediated vs. face-to-face, 146, 148–149, 159
Communication technologies. See Information and communication technology (ICT) Communities, 153, 186–187
 assessing the information needs of, 90–91
 data base development for, 91 Internet content production by, 91–92 involvement of important to technology access, 4, 5, 163, 199–202 learning communities, 120–121, 124

virtual communities, 146, 159, 160–162, 187
Community Digital Initiative, 164–165
Community informatics, 162–163, 169
Community involvement in technology access, 4, 5, 163, 199–202
Community news services, 87
Sampa.org project, 87, 165–166
Community Radio Internet project, Sri Lanka, 170–171
Community technology centers, 75, 76, 127, 169
Community Technology Centers Network (CTCNet), New York, 127 Community technology projects
community technology centers, 75, 76, 127, 169
complementing community centers, 166–167
computer kiosks, 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
mapping and connecting community resources, 162–163, 165–166, 169 social capital promoted through, 163
telecentros, 75, 76, 77–79, 199–201
Computador popular (people's computer) development project, Brazil, 65–66
Computer education, 9, 125–129, 137–138, 179. See also Skill-levels in information technologies
Computer-enhanced education, 129–135
Computer kiosks, 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
Computer literacy, 111–113, 134–135
Computer-mediated communication (CMC), 24, 25, 27–28, 172 literacy in, 117–119
Computer technology. See Internet; Personal computer Conduits model of access. See also Teledensity broadband connectivity, 58, 69
diffusion of conduit services, 33–34, 57–58
electrification, 13, 34–35
Internet diffusion, 50–51, 59, 60
teledensity, 33, 34–35, 35–37, 50–51
Connectivity. See Conduits model of access; Internet access Content of digital resources. See also Economic development information; Internet; Language content of digital resources assessing needs community-level needs for, 90–91 censorship of or restrictions on, 182–184, 185 digital content, 47, 81
need for diversity in, 83–84
Corea, S., 210–211
Costa Rica, technology access program in, 142–143
Cost of information technology. See Affordability Critical pedagogy, 123–124
Critical theory of technology, 209–210
Crossnational comparisons
computers per capita, 63 costs of Internet access, 52
economic stratification and inequalities, 18–21, 22, 23–24
electrification, 34–35, 49–52
Internet access and diffusion, 49–52, 82–84, 181–185 native language Web pages, 97 telecommunications infrastructure, 70–71
television diffusion rates, 37

Cuban, L., 41, 123
Cultural barriers to access, 45–46
Cummins, J., 117
Cyber cafés, 59, 75, 76, 77
Cyberhood, 166–167
Cyberpessimism, 159, 160
Cyberspace, 161. See also Internet

de Castell, Suzanne, and A. Luke, 40–41 Dell Computer
 as a model information-based technology company, 16–18
Democratization, 172. See also Political association online
 Internet diffusion and, 181–185
Design issues in information technology, 203–204
 to ensure greater access, 211 (see also Social inclusion) Desktop interface
 office-based design of, 203
de Soto, Hernando, 174–175, 177
Developed countries. See also Europe; United States; and by country high GDP in, 19
 income stratification within, 21–22
 Internet access in, 52–58
 OECD countries, 50–52, 98–99
Developing countries. See also Brazil; China; India; Sri Lanka access to public documents and data a need of, 173–174 computers per capita in, 63 income stratification in, 22–24
 information needs of, 84–85 (see also Economic development information)
 low GDP in, 18–20
 uneven development effects in, 59 Devices model of access, 11–12, 31–32. See also Personal computer radio diffusion, 31, 33–34
 telephone diffusion, 33, 34–35, 35–37, 50–51 television diffusion, 31, 33–34, 37
Dhar, India
 rural technology project in, 85, 91, 171–172, 179–181
Diamond, L., 185–186
Digital content. See Content of digital resources Digital divide, 1, 11, 199, 210, 222–223n.15. See also Access to information technology in classroom computer access, 129–135 comprising an array of inequality variables, 6, 199, 213
 as a concept bipolar or too simplified, 6–8, 46, 209 devices conception of, 12, 217n.1 (see also Devices model of access) at the international level, 82–84, 138 (see also Crossnational comparisons; Language content of digital resources) in Internet access, 51, 52, 53–58
 in personal computer ownership, 63
Digital resources. See Information and communication technology (ICT)
Dikhanov, Yuri, and M. P. Ward, 20–21
Dimmagio, P. J., 199, 207, 208, 214 Disabled persons. See also Health-related information and networking access issues of, 57, 89–90 blind persons' access, 90, 169
 use of the Internet, 28–29
Disadvantaged. See Developing countries; Low-income populations; Minorities Disease prevention software, 85
Distance education. See Internet-based education
Districtwide intranets, 179–181
Domains on the Internet global statistics on, 81–84
 shared accounts, 59
Dot-com businesses, 11

Dystopian view of information technology, 159, 169

E-commerce Web sites, 168, 179
Economic development information, 84–85
 diverse language access important to, 102–103 Economic stratification across nations, 18–20
 within nations, 18, 20–24
Education. See also Learning; Literacy bilingual, 93–94, 135
 democratization of the classroom, 184
 as a factor in information technology access, 59
 involving communities of practice, 120–122, 146
 mass education, 109–110
 social context of, 119–120
 social reproduction in, 123 Educational level
 and Internet access, 56, 57–58, 59
Educational systems, 141–142, 181
Educational technology, 88, 124–125, 152, 221n.8. See also Internet-based education computer access in classrooms, 123, 129–135 computer education, 125–129, 137–138, 179
 computer-enhanced education, 129–135
 in developing countries, 86–87, 138–144, 169 (see also by country)
 examples of, in the U.S., 135–138
 Internet access, 136–137, 140
Egypt, 9, 47, 59–61
 educational technology programs in, 139, 144, 169
 English dominating the Internet in, 99–102
 Internet access in, 58–59
 Ministry of Education, 139, 141–142, 184
 Technology Development Center (TDC), 139–140
 21st Century Clubs in, 142, 169
Electrification, 13
 crossnational comparisons of, 34–35
Electronic archives, 218n.8
Electronic elections, 177–178
 online voting, 222–223n.15 Electronic literacies, 111, 118, 214. See also Literacy
 computer literacy, 111–113
 computer-mediated communication (CMC) literacy, 117–119
 information literacy, 113–115
 multimedia literacy, 115–116
 skill-levels in, 38, 39, 44–46, 220
Electronic meeting halls, 187
Electronic news media, 26, 187
Elite groups, 55
 school computer use of, 131–134
Elite universities, 147
E-mail, 117. See also Computer-mediated communication (CMC)
Enculturation, 120–122
English language
 class stratification role of, 100–101, 102 dominance of the Internet, 96–99
 as the global language, 94–96
Enlaces program, Chile, 142
Ethnographic research, 9–10, 47
Europe
 Internet portals for the disabled in, 90
 European Computer Driving License, 169
European Union, 218n.2

Face-to-face vs. technology-mediated contact, 146, 148–149, 159
"Falling Through the Net" reports, 54
Falun Gong religion, 197
Family-related online information, 88

Feenberg, A., 209–210
Female-headed households
 Internet access rates for, 57–58
Financial information online, 88
Finland, broad Internet access in, 52, 53
Foshay Learning Center, Los Angeles, 137–138
France
 low Internet connectivity in, 52, 53
 Minitel system in, 53, 62
Frankfurt school, 209
Fresa Project, 135–137

Gee, J. P., 39, 45
Gender
 Internet access and, 55, 61
 literacy and, 46
George Foundation, 85
Germany
 electrification in, 34
Global capitalism, 12–13, 15–18
Global English, 94–96
GNP. See Gross National Product (GNP)
Government
 citizen access to public documents and data, 88, 173–177, 183–184
 citizen access to resources of, 88, 172, 173–174 interactive citizen feedback programs, 172–173, 177, 179–181 providing electrification and infrastructure, 34, 35, 53 supporting access programs, 2–3, 5, 9, 53, 65–66, 75, 76, 78–79
Granovetter, M., 155
Graphics. See Visual media on the Internet
Greece, low Internet connectivity in, 52, 53
Gross National Product (GNP), 219n.4
 crossnational comparisons, 18–20, 23
 and Internet diffusion, 59
Guandong, China, 61
Gurstein, M., 162, 163
Gutenberg revolution, 39–40, 204–205
Gyandoot rural technology project, 85, 91, 171–172, 179–181

Hampton, Keith N., 158
Handheld computing devices, 66–69
Hard vs. soft media determinism, 204–205
Hargittai, Ezster, 50–51, 53
Harlem
 HarlemLive Internet-based youth publication, 92
 Playing2Win, 127–129
Harnad, Stephen, 25, 26, 27
Hawai'i
 ethnographic research in, 47
 native language content development in, 103–107
Health-related information and networking, 28–29, 188–191
 in India's village knowledge centers, 85–86
He, K., and J. Wu, 144
High-income groups. See Elite groups
Hindi language, 102–103
Hirsch, E. D., 119
Hispanics
 Internet access rates of, 55, 56, 57–58
 school computer use by, 130–131
 television diffusion rates for, 37
Hole-in-the-Wall computer kiosks, 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
Holland, 34
Hornberger, Nancy, 107
Host domains. See Domains on the Internet
Human resources, 47, 109
Hypertext, 26

ICT. See Information and communication technology (ICT)
Identity formation, 93–95, 122

Images. See Visual media on the Internet Income level
 as a factor in Internet access, 54–55, 56–58
Independent Media Center, 195
India, 172–173
 development issues of, 23, 209–210
 educational technology in, 86–87, 181
 Gyandoot rural technology project, 85, 91, 171–172, 179–181
 Hole-in-the-Wall computer kiosks project, 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
 Institute of Technology (TeNet), 71–73
 Internet access in, 60–61
 land issues and the land record system in, 175–177, 179, 210 local and regional language software in, 102–103
 the Simputer project, 66–69
 street children's project, 164
 telecommunications infrastructure, 71–72, 74
 village knowledge centers project, 85–86, 91, 171
Industrial revolutions, 12–13
 informationalism as the third revolution, 12–13, 38–39
Infertility-related networking, 188–191
Information Age Town contest, Ireland, 2–4
Information-based technology companies, 16–18
Information and communication technology (ICT). See also Internet; Personal computer catalytic effects of, 212
 design issues in, 203–204, 211 effects on productivity of, 183–184 enhancing transparency in government and business, 183–184 importance of access to, 29–30 institutional embeddedness of, 208–209 sociotechnical models of, 206–207
 supplementing other forms of interaction, 160, 162, 191
 technosocial interaction of, 4, 7, 12, 183, 214–215
Information and Decision Support Center, Egypt, 58
Information economy, 11, 14–18, 18, 29–30
 information-related employment, 22
Information literacy, 113–115
Information revolution, 11–12, 14–15, 93
 global dimensions of, 15–18
Information, Service, Integration, and Schooling (ISIS), 169 Innovation
 and behavioral change, 211–212
 innovation diffusion, 219n.3
 the innovator's dilemma, 63–65, 74
Institute of Technology, India (TeNet), 71–73
Institutional embeddedness of technology, 208–209
Institutions, 153, 208
Instruction online. See Internet-based education
Intellectual colonialism, 96
Interactive broadcasting technologies, 25–26 citizen feedback programs, 172–173, 177, 179–181 Internet. See also Online networks; Online services; Virtual communities dot-com businesses, 11 (see also Information economy) evaluating information on, 113–115
 growth, 81–83
 information overload on, 26
 supplementing other forms of interaction, 160, 162

Internet access connectivity rates, 49–52
 costs of, 52
 crossnational comparisons of, 49–53, 58–62, 81–84
 digital divide in, 51, 52, 53–54 involving community structures in access projects, 4, 5, 163, 199–202
 physical access as only one aspect of, 118–119
 public access centers, 75–79
 shared Internet accounts, 59
 teledensity and Internet diffusion rates, 50–51, 59, 60
 in the U.S., 53–54
Internet-based education, 144–145
 advanced placement instruction, 146–148 economics of, 150–152
 evaluation of, 148–150
 for rural areas, 86–87
 teacher training, 148
 university courses, 150–152
Internet content. See Content of digital resources
Intranets
 serving regions, 179–181
Ireland, "information town" contest in, 2–4
ISIS, 169
Italy, low Internet connectivity in, 52, 53

Jarboe, K. P., 8
Jenkins, Henry, 7
Jjunjhunwala, Ashkok, 71, 72–73

Karnataka, India, 176–177
Kawai'ae'a, Keiki, 105
Kiosks (computer), 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
Kling, Robert, 7–8, 206, 207
Kothmale Community Radio Internet project, Sri Lanka, 170–171
Kraemer, K., L. J. Dedrick, and S. Yamashiro, 16
Kranzberg, M., 183

Laboratory of Universal Access, Brazil, 66
Language. See also Languages bilingual education, 93–94, 135 collective identity and, 93–95, 104–105 and identity, 93–95
 oral vs. written, 25
 threat to linguistic diversity, 94
Language content of digital resources, 81, 213–214 affect diverse access, 92–93
 built-in biases of, 98, 203
 domination of English, 96–99, 100–102 machine translation techniques, 99
 native languages online, 61, 97, 103–107, 144, 179
Languages
 Chinese language online, 61, 144
 Egyptian Arabic, 99–100
 English as the global language, 94–96
 Hawai'ian language online, 103–107, 179
 Hindi, 102–103
 Tamil, 103
 Vai script, 42–43
Lapin, Howard, 137
Learning. See also Education; Educational technology constructivist approaches to, 119–120, 145 identity formation a part of, 122
 learning communities, 120–121, 124
 situated, 123–124
Leokī bulletin board, Hawai'i, 105–107
Levine, P., 196–197
Levinson, P., 205
Liberia, 42
Lievrouw, L. A., 38

Lin, N., 158
Linux operating system
 free software solutions on, 170
 plans to bundle with low-cost systems, 66, 68
Literacy. See also Electronic literacies; Language; Print media defined and characterized, 39–40, 110–111
 as a factor in information technology access, 38–39, 59
 the literacy divide, 41–43
 literacy pedagogy, 40–41, 220n.3
 as a set of social practices, 41, 43–44, 45–46
 social context of, 42, 44–46, 108, 218n.2
 textual literacy, 115–116 (see also Print media) Literacy model of access, 38–39, 43–44, 46–48 skills acquisition, 43–45
 social contextuality, 42, 44, 45–46
Longitudinal ethnographic studies, 214–215
Los Angeles
 Foshay Learning Center, 137–138
 public utilities in, 34, 35
Low-cost computers
 efforts to develop, 65–69
Low-income populations. See also Class stratification; Developing countries; Minorities; Rural areas computer education for, 125–127, 134–135 information needs of, unmet, 83, 88–89 marginalization of, 173, 209
 providing greater Internet access to, 1–2, 56, 57, 79, 169–170 school computer use among, 130–131 socioeconomic factors in access, 29, 37, 49–52, 54–58, 59
 television diffusion rates for, 37
 the urban poor, 2

Malinformation, 114
Mandarin Chinese language, 144
Market mechanisms, 34–35, 213 encouraging high-end development, 64–65, 74
 as incentives for public access centers, 78
Márquez, Gabriel García, 112
Mar Vista Elementary School, California, 135–137
McLuhan, Marshall, 204
Media determinism, 204–205
Meeting halls, 186
Melbourne WTO protest, 194
Mentoring, 121
Meta-language comprehension, 43
Milanovic, Branko, 20–21
Minitel system, 53
Minorities
 disadvantaged groups, 214
 Latino community access program, 169–170
 marginalized groups, 186
Minorities. See also Disabled persons; Low-income populations
Misinformation, 114
Mobile telephones, 60. See also Teledensity
Model Computer Lab project, 5
M. S. Swaminathan Foundation, 168
 village knowledge centers project, 85–86, 91, 171
Multilateral Agreement on Investment (MAI), 193–194
Multimedia, 27–30, 169, 170–172
 potential equalizing effect of, 116
Multimedia literacy, 115–116
Music on the Internet, 27, 87

NanTou primary school, ShenZhen, China, 143–144
Narrowcasting, 159
National information strategy, 53
National Telecommunications and Information Administration, U.S., 1

Native language bulletin boards, 105–107
Neo-Nazis, 196
Netville, Toronto, 158–159
Networks, 24, 187–191. See also Online networks function of broad networks of weak social ties, 155, 157–158, 190, 196
 health-related information and networking, 28–29, 188–191
 of learning, 121
 value of informal, 149–150
New Delhi, computer kiosks in, 1, 85, 91, 163, 179
New institutionalism, 207–209
News media. See also Community news services electronic, 26, 187
 newspapers, 186–187
New York
 Community Technology Centers Network (CTCNet), 127
 HarlemLive Internet-based youth publication, 92
 Playing2Win, 127–129
Nongovernmental Organizations (NGOs), 191–192, 193
Norm social capital, 155–156

Oddanchatrammarket.com, 168
OECD countries, 50–52, 98–99
Office-based desktop interface, 203
Ong, Walter, 215
Online communication, 27–28. See also Online networks
 bulletin boards, 105–107, 117, 187
 chat rooms, 28
 e-mail, 117
 virtual communities, 146, 160–162, 187
Online education. See Internet-based education Online networks, 187–191. See also Networks political or activist, 88, 191, 191–197
 in science and research, 144–146, 218n.8
 of the socially alienated, 29, 196, 197
 virtual communities, 146, 160–162, 187
 workplace-related, 13, 14–15
Online-offline interactions, 160, 162, 191
Online services, 28, 88–90 community news services, 87 (see also Sampa.org) complaint services, 179–181
 e-commerce Web sites, 168, 179
Online voting, 222–223n.15
Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 98–99 connectivity of member countries, 50–52
Oxnard, California, 135–137

Package model of computing, 206–207
Participatory Rural Appraisal (PRA), 90–91 Personal computer, 66–69
 costs of computers and software, 32, 47, 62–63
 efforts to develop lower-cost systems, 65–69 emergence of in the U.S., 203
 learn-to-earn programs to obtain, 63
 multimedia computers, 116
 social biases in technology of, 203–204
Personal enrichment, 88
Physical access. See Internet access; Personal computer
Piaget, Jean, 119
Playing2Win, Harlem, 127–129
Political association online, 88, 191, 197 of Nongovernmental Organizations (NGOs), 191–192, 193

political space for persecuted groups, 197 of popular movements, 192–196
surveillance of, 197
Popular movements using the Internet, 191–196
Post-Fordist management techniques, 14–15
Postindustrial era, 38–39, 93
Poverty. See Low-income populations
Prayas (Brazilian organization), 164
Print media
the Gutenberg revolution, 39–40, 204–205
newspapers, 186–187
Proenza, E., J. Bastides-Buch, and G. Montero, 77–78
Programming biases, 203–204
Project Fresa, 135–137
Proxy servers, 182
Public utilities, 34, 35
Putnam, Robert, 154, 155, 159

Radio diffusion, 31, 33–34
Radio Internet project, Sri Lanka, 170–171
Rapid Rural Appraisal (RRA), 90–91
Regional Information Technology and Software Support Center, Egypt, 58 Relationships, 154, 159. See also Social interaction broad networks of weak social ties, 155–156, 157–158, 190, 196 weak vs. strong ties, 155–156
Research
ethnographic studies, 9–10, 47
online communication of data, 144–146, 218n.8
Resnick, P., 172
Restrictions on Internet use, 182–183
Rheingold, Howard, 160–162
Riverside, California
Community Digital Initiative, 164–165
the Riverside Cybrary, 169–170
Robison, K. K., and E. M. Crenshaw, 49–50, 109, 182
Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 35
Rural areas
information needs in, 90–91, 102–103
Rural technology projects
e-commerce Web sites, 168
Gyandoot rural technology project, 85, 91, 171–172, 179–181
Internet-based education, 86–87
village knowledge centers project, 85–86, 91, 171

Sampa.org project, 87, 165–166
São Paulo, Brazil
Sampa.org project, 87, 165–166
Scandinavia, 34
School computer and Internet access. See Educational technology
Scribner, Sylvia, and M. Cole, 42
Seattle WTO protest, 194
Selective exposure to information, 159
Shandong, China, 61
Shanghai, China, 61
ShenZhen, China, 143–144
Singapore
restrictions on Internet use in, 182–183, 184
Situated learning, 123–124
Skill-levels in information technologies, 38, 39, 220. See also Computer education; Electronic literacies acquisition of similar to attaining literacy, 44–46 Social capital, 155–156, 221n.4
and Internet technology, 156–160, 172
macrolevel, 181–185
mesolevel, 185–187
microlevel, 155, 157, 160–163
promoting through community technology projects, 163
theory of, 153–156

Social embeddedness of technology, 202, 203
 social biases in technology, 203–205 social informatics, 205–207
Social exclusion or isolation, 29, 159–160, 221n.3
Social inclusion. See also Digital divide as the aim of information technology access, 1, 28, 210–213 defined, 8–9
 language and, 94–95
 policy challenges to ensure, 4, 5, 211, 213 research agenda regarding, 213–215
Social interaction. See also Online communication; Relationships face-to-face vs. technology mediated, 146, 148–149, 159 over Internet supplementing other forms of interaction, 160, 162, 191
 virtual communities, 146, 160–162, 187
Social networks. See also Online networks
 theory of, 161–162
 weak-tie networks, 155, 157–158, 190, 196
Social reproduction, 123
Social resources, 47. See also Social capital
Social transformation, 8
Sociotechnical models of information technology, 206–207. See also Social embeddedness of technology; Technological determinism; Technological neutrality
Soft vs. hard media determinism, 204–205
Soviet Union (former), 12–13
Spain, low Internet connectivity in, 52, 53
Sri Lanka, 170
Stewart, A., 8
Stratification. See Class stratification; Economic stratification
Subjectivity, 93
Surveillance tools, 197
Swaminathan, M. S. See M. S. Swaminathan Foundation Symbolic analysts, 22

Technocratic paradigm of literacy, 41
Technological determinism, 202, 204, 208
Technological diffusion. See also Internet access; Personal computer
 "disruptive technologies" and the innovator's dilemma, 64–65, 74
 rise of science and technology, 13–14
Technological neutrality, 202–203, 205, 208
Technology Academy, Los Angeles, 137–138
Technology access programs, 2–3, 5, 9, 53, 65–66, 75, 76, 78–79
Technology-based education. See Educational technology; Internet-based education Technology costs. See Affordability Technology Development Center (TDC), Egypt, 139–140
Technosocial interaction, 4, 7, 12, 183, 214–215. See also Social embeddedness of technology
 institutional embeddedness of technology, 208–209
Telecentros (telecenters), 75, 76, 77–79, 199–201
Telecom Eirann, 3
Telecommunications and Computer Networks Group (TeNet), 71–73
Telecommunications infrastructure, 69, 71–72, 74, 77
 broadband access, 58, 69
 DSL providers, 69–70
 leapfrogging, 71–72
 wireless local loop systems, 72–74

Teledensity
 diffusion of telephones, 33, 34–35, 35–37, 50–51
 Internet diffusion and, 50–51, 59, 60
Telephones, diffusion of, 33, 34–35, 35–37, 50–51
Television, diffusion of, 31, 33–34, 37
TeNet, India, (TeNet), 71–73
Tocqueville, Alexis de, 186
Tool model of computing, 206–207
Touraine, Alain, 93
Training programs
 computer training, 9, 125–129, 137–138, 179
 teacher training, 148
 vocational training, 88, 135
Transistor, 12
Transparency of government, 88, 173–177, 183–184
Turner, J., J. Grube, and J. Meyers, 189–190
Typographic era, 39–40, 204–205

Unicode, 203
United Nations Development Program, 18–19
United States
 Agency of International Development, 5 emergence of the personal computer in, 203 examples of educational technology programs in, 135–138 number of web pages in, 82
 online content in, 88–90
 unequal Internet access within, 53–54, 56
United States government Agency of International Development (USAID), 5
 Department of Commerce, 54
 National Telecommunications and Information Administration, 1
University courses online, 150–152
Usenet, 24

VCRs, diffusion of, 33–34
Venture capital, 65
Videocassette recorders diffusion of, 33–34
Village knowledge centers project, 85–86, 91, 171
Virtual communities, 160–162, 187
 vs. face-to-face interaction, 146, 159
Visual media on the Internet, 27, 115–116, 128
 textual equivalence needed for blind access to, 90
Vocational training, 88, 135
Voluntary associations, 185. See also Civil society
Voronov, Anatoly, 96
Vygotsky, Lev S., 121

Wade, Robert, 20–21
Weak-tie relationships, 155, 157–158, 190, 196
Web Accessibility Initiative, 89–90
Web-based bulletin boards. See Bulletin boards Web pages. See also Domains on the Internet; Internet authoring software for, 98
 education to design, 128 number of, 81–83
WELL (Whole Earth Lectronic Link), 161
Wireless local loop systems, 72–74
Woolcock, M., 153–154, 172
World Bank, 18
 Education and Technology Team, 142
World Trade Organization (WTO) opposition movement, 192, 193–195
World Wide Web. See Internet; Online networks
WTO. See World Trade Organization (WTO)

Zapatista rebels, Internet based campaign of, 192–193, 196
Zone of proximal development (ZPD), 121
Zook, Matthew, 82
Zuboff, Shoshana, 183–184, 214–215