

Index

- Accountability
 - in centralized systems, 22, 31–32
 - and politically fragmented ethnic groups, 33
- Africa, sub-Saharan. See also Angola; Equatorial Guinea; Kenyan school finance system; Lesotho; Liberia; Nigeria; Republic of Congo; Senegal; Uganda
 - corruption in, 23
 - decentralization in, 9, 22 (see also Decentralization)
 - growth performance of, 3, 5
 - historical background of, 24
 - precolonial political institutions in, 21, 24 (see also Precolonial centralization)
- Aid (as windfall), and corruption, 135n.5
- AIDS and AIDS education, in Kenya, 99, 103
- Aliev, Heidar, 125
- Aliev, Ilham, 125
- Altruism, in SIE model, 205
- Angola
 - civil war in, 142
 - and precolonial institutions, 24
 - resource-boom consequences in, 113, 126
- Appropriation conflict, 11–12
- Argentina, effect of central-state party affiliation in, 55, 63
- Armed Peace, 144, 150–51, 155–56
 - condition for, 146
 - equilibrium strategies under, 149
 - and future costs of arming, 147
 - in multi-stage conflict, 153, 154–56
 - payoffs under, 149
 - and subsidy, 148
- Arming, endogenous, 147–52
- Asymmetric information
 - failure of conflict settlement from, 141–42
 - in investor-entrepreneur relationship, 165, 166, 168, 171
- Asymmetries in power, as warfare inducer, 143
- Auction theory, winner's curse in, 170
- Australia
 - Commonwealth Grants Commission in, 78
 - resource-boom consequences in, 124
- Azerbaijan, resource-boom consequences in, 113, 124–25
- Belarus, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Bolivia
 - resource-boom consequences in, 128
 - transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Botswana, and precolonial institutions, 24
- Brazil, and decentralization, 8
- Budget constraints
 - hard, 47, 49
 - soft, 78n.1
- Catalonia, and redistribution support, 218
- “Central capture” view, 31, 32–34. See also State capture
- Centralization, and federalism, 50
- Centralization (sub-Saharan Africa). See also Precolonial centralization
 - and accountability of local elites, 31–32, 39
 - and economic advancement of traditional societies, 36–38
 - and quality of government, 22

- Centralization Index, 28, 34, 35
- Child Sponsorship Program (CSP), Kenya, 99, 100, 105
- China
 decentralization in, 8, 49–50 growth rate in, 3
- Civil wars, prevalence of, 141
- Class identity, and income redistribution, 207–208, 210, 211, 220–21n.17. See also Social identity
- Clientelistic institutions, and resource misallocation, 112
- Clientelistic political competition, 75, 160n.2
- Colombia, civil war in, 142
- “Common-pool” problem, 47–48, 49, 52, 73, 77
 and need for strong national party, 50
- Communal violence, 182. See also Islamic religious intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- Conflict, violent. See Violence
- Constraints on the Executive index, 38
- Contest success function, 167, 175n.3
- Contracts
 incomplete (and conflict), 156, 160n.2 (see also Long-term contracts) incomplete (stockholders-managers), 164, 174 long-term (and conflict), 142, 155, 156 short-term (and conflict), 142, 155, 156
- Control of Corruption index, 23, 34, 35
- “Core supporters,” 51, 56, 66–67
- Corruption, 10, 22–23, 111, 112 and Control of Corruption index, 23, 34, 35 “good” and “bad” equilibrium patterns for, 113 and inefficiency, 123, 132 optimal level of, 42n.1
 and precolonial centralization, 23 and resource boom, 131–32 and resource boom (model), 113–24, 131–34 and resource boom (political outcomes in different countries), 113, 124–31 and Rule of Law index, 23, 34, 35
- Corruption technology, 113, 115 shock in, 123–24, 131
- Counterproductive institutions, and Kenya’s school finance system, 105
- Coups and asymmetric information, 141–42 from incomplete contracting, 160n.2
- CSP (Child Sponsorship Program), Kenya, 99, 100, 105
- Culture, 13
- Database on Social Violence in Indonesia, UNSFIR, 180–83, 185, 195
- Decentralization, 7–9. See also Fiscal federalism (fiscal decentralization) and “central capture” view, 31 costs of, 33 debate on, 39
 fiscal, 47 (see also Fiscal federalism) and Kenya’s educational system, 85, 86 (see also Harambee system in Kenya) market-preserving federalism as, 49–50, 54
 and quality of government, 22
 vertical, 8
- Delegation of fiscal authority to independent fiscal agency, 51, 52–53, 75–78 to national executive, 47, 49, 50–51, 52, 54, 72
- Denmark, resource-boom consequences in, 124
- Developing countries corruption from aid to, 135n.5
 and decentralization, 8, 47 education and other social services in, 85 and enforcement of corporate governance regimes, 166 institutional environment of, 106 investments gone wrong in, 163
 and investor protection, 167 local and ethnic identities predominant in, 207 and national identity, 217–19
 and windfalls, 132 (see also Natural resource booms)
- Development causes of, 4 corruption as impediment to, 111 (see also Corruption) determinants of, 7
 economic advancement of traditional societies (and centralization), 36–38 group conflict as impediment to, 179

- and investor protection, 165
- and national identity, 219
- Dictators, revenue extracted by, 11
- Difference-in-differences approach, 53
- Disarmament
 - absence of need for within countries, 141
 - difficulty in enforcement of, 142
- Dos Santos, Jose Eduardo, 126
- East Asia, growth rate in, 3
- Economic advancement of traditional societies, and centralization, 36–38
- Economic development. See Development; Income growth
- Ecuador, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Education, and economic progress, 4
- Elchibey, Albufaz, 125
- Endogenous arming, 147–52
- Endogenous growth theories, 4
- Equatorial Guinea, resource-boom consequences in, 113, 127
- Ethnic diversity, and income redistribution, 210
- Ethnographic Atlas*, 28
- Ethnolinguistic Fractionalization index, 38
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI), 127
- Extremism (ideological), social insurance as alleviation for, 195–96
- FARC, 142
- Federalism
 - and accountability, 7
 - in India, 57, 60 (see also India)
 - and Kenya, 88–89 (see also Kenyan school finance system)
 - and local tyranny, 33
 - market-preserving, 49–50, 54
 - and relations between government levels, 8
- Federal Reserve, US, 77
- Fiduciary duty, 164
 - enforcement of, 166, 168, 173
- Finance Commission (India), 52–53, 57–58, 59, 75–76, 79n.7
- Fiscal federalism (fiscal decentralization) and “common-pool” problems, 47–48, 49, 52
 - in developing countries, 47
 - and need for strong national party, 50
- Fiscal performance
 - and common-pool problem, 47–48, 52
 - and delegation to independent fiscal agency, 51, 52–53, 75–78 (see also Finance Commission)
 - and delegation to national executives, 47, 49, 50–51, 52, 54, 72
 - and fiscal rules, 76
 - in India (study), 60–72
 - methodological approach toward, 53–56
 - and need for strong national agency, 49, 50
 - and partisan affiliation between national and state governments, 51–52, 55–56, 63, 65–67, 74
 - and political partisanship, 51
 - and political-party composition of government, 48
 - and “swing” states (India), 62–64 (see also “Swing” voters or states)
 - and transfer dependence, 69–72
- Foreign direct investment
 - with expropriation risk, 175n.2
 - and holdup problem, 12
- Free-rider problem, and Kenyan school building, 94
- Fürstenberg, Carl, 164
- Game theory
 - and Indian political competition, 75
 - and Kenya’s harambee system, 86, 94
 - and resource-boom/corruption model, 113, 114–24, 132–34, 135–36n.15
- Gandhi, Indira, 74
- Gandhi, Rajiv, 74
- Governance structure, 7–9
- Governing bodies, quality of, 7
- Greece, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Group conflict, development impeded by, 179
- Group conflict during Indonesian financial crisis. See Islamic religious intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- Group identity, 203–204. See also Social identity
 - and heterogeneity, 210
 - and religious intensity, 180
 - and social violence, 179

- Haiti, Duvaliers in, 11
- Harambee system in Kenya, 85, 86, 86–87, 89–90 change in focus of, 102 elite support for, 104 incentives under, 91, 93, 94 and patronage, 89
 reasons for adoption of, 87
- Hard budget constraints, 47
 in China, 49
 through competition among subnational governments, 49
- Hierarchies. See Centralization
- Honduras, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Human capital investment, 4
- Hundred Villages Survey (Indonesia), 180, 181, 183, 185, 190, 192, 195, 196
- Hungary, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- ICS (International Christelijk Steunfonds), 100
- Identity (identification), 219n.1. See also Class identity; Group identity; National identity; Social identity
- Ideological extremism, social insurance as alleviation for, 195–96
- Immigration, and class identity (Western Europe), 210–11
- Income distribution, 5
- Income growth (worldwide), 3. See also Development unequal rates of, 3–4
- Income level
 and national identity, 208
 and redistribution attitudes, 202, 213
- Income redistribution. See Redistribution of income
- Incomplete contract and conflict, 156 (see also Long-term contracts) and coups, 160n.2
 between stockholders and managers, 164, 174
- Incumbency advantage, 11
- India, 50, 77–78
 and decentralization, 8
 delegation of fiscal authority in, 47, 77–78 Finance Commission in, 52–53, 57–58, 59, 75–76, 79n.7 fiscal performance in (study), 60–72 growth rate of, 3 interest-group politics in, 73, 74 intergovernmental relationship in, 9 party affiliation between national and state governments in, 51–52, 55–56, 63, 65–67, 74 party competition in, 52, 72–75 political and fiscal institutions in, 56–60, 62–63 states of, 79n.8
- Indonesian financial crisis, 179–80. See also Islamic intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- Industrial violence, 182
- Information asymmetry
 failure of conflict settlement from, 141–42
 in investor-entrepreneur relationship, 165, 166, 168, 171
- Inkcombank (Russian bank), 163, 167
- Innovation, and economic performance, 5
- Institutional quality, 10 and economic performance, 5, 10
 and precolonial centralization, 22, 24, 34–39
- Insurrection, 116, 135n.10
 in corruption model, 113, 116, 131, 135n.10
- Interest groups and government spending, 48
 in India, 73, 74
- International Social Survey Program (ISSP), 212, 214
- Investment in economic growth, 4 and expropriation, 12 market in opportunities for, 172–73 and political stability, 11
- Investor protection, 163–64
 and development, 165
 under informational asymmetry, 165, 166, 168, 171
 model of, 166–74
 optimal legal framework for, 165, 174 social costs of, 164
 and stockholder-management relation as incomplete contract, 164, 174
- Islamic intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis), 13, 180–81, 195–196
 vs. alternative explanations, 193, 195 and cross-sectional variation, 186–88

- data on, 181–85, 192–93, 196–98
 vs. other social activities, 190–92 and reverse causality issue, 181, 188–90, 195
 and separatist areas, 185
 ISSP (International Social Survey Program), 212, 214
 Italy
 northern, 218 warfare in, 144

 Kazakhstan, resource-boom consequences in, 113, 125–26
 Kenyan school finance system, 9, 85–87, 104–106
 and change in political climate, 103
 CSP program in, 99, 100, 105
 and harambee system, 85, 86–87, 87
 historical background of, 87–90 incentive effects of, 91–101 transformation of, 101–104
 Kenyatta, Jomo, 87, 88, 103
 Knowledge acquisition, and development, 4
 Koran study (Pengajian), and Indonesian financial crisis, 181, 183–84, 186, 188, 190, 192, 193, 195, 196
 Korea, South, growth rate in, 3

 Latin America. See also Argentina; Bolivia; Brazil; Colombia; Ecuador; Haiti; Honduras; Nicaragua; Trinidad and Tobago independent fiscal agency for, 75 need for centralized fiscal power in, 49
 Lesotho and institutional quality measures, 35
 and precolonial institutions, 24
 Liberia, and institutional quality measures, 35
 Litigation equilibrium, in investor-protecting game, 168–71
 “Local capture,” 8, 9, 22
 Long-term contracts, and conflict (warfare), 142, 155, 156
 Low-income countries benefits from economic crises in, 160n.8 explanation for warfare in, 11–12, 143, 144–47, 155 requirements for lasting peace in, 156
 Luxemburg Income Study (LIS), 212

 Machiavelli, Niccolò, 144
 Maharaj, Ramesh, 127–28
 Malaysia, National Finance Council in, 78
 Maldives, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174 Management liability
 in stockholder-management relationship, 165, 174
 vs. transparency, 174, 174–75
 Market for investment opportunities, 172–73
 Market-preserving federalism, 49–50, 54
 Median voter result or theorem, 207, 209, 211
 Minimal group paradigm (MGP), 205
 “Modern Impact of Precolonial Centralization in Africa, The” (Gennaioli and Rainer), 21–22, 27, 28, 31, 32, 35
 Modernization in sub-Saharan Africa, and precolonial institutions, 24–28
 Mogae, Festus, quoted, 111
 Moi, Daniel arap, 88, 103
 Morgenthau & Latham holding company, 163

 National identity, 13
 and development, 219
 and redistribution, 13, 208–17, 220–21n.17
 National threats, and redistribution claims, 210
 Natural resource booms, 111
 and corruption (model), 10, 113–24, 131–34 and corruption (political outcome in various countries), 113, 124–31 as curse (“natural resource curse”), 10, 113 rent-seeking from, 112
 Nazarbayev, Nursultan, 125
 Neoclassical production function, 5
 Neoclassical view, and economic performance, 4
 Nicaragua, Somoza family in, 11
 Nigeria
 native authorities’ performance in, 26
 and precolonial institutions, 24
 Norms, social, and economic performance, 13
 Norway, resource-boom consequences in, 124, 128

- Obiang Nguema, Teodoro, 127
- Pacific region, growth rate in, 3
- Panday, Basdeo, 127–28
- Party system and fiscal performance, 48, 55 and government effectiveness, 34
in India, 72–73
- Pengajian participation (Koran study), and Indonesian financial crisis, 181, 183–84, 186, 188, 190, 192, 193, 195, 196
- Perverse incentives, in Kenya's school finance system, 86
- Philippines, Ferdinand Marcos in, 11
- Political centralization. See Centralization
- Political factors, 5
- Political parties. See Party system
- Pork barrel considerations, and allocation of new facilities vs. shutting-down of old, 103
- Poverty. See also Income level and economic growth, 3 low-income countries in cycle of, 156
and national identity, 212, 217
and redistribution attitudes, 202
- Precolonial centralization (sub-Saharan Africa), 21–22. See also Centralization in colonial Uganda, 25–26
historical background of, 24–28, 32
and local capture reduction, 32–33 modern impact of, 28–33 and modernization, 26–28 and private sector, 22
and quality of government, 22–24, 34–39
- Precolonial political institutions (sub-Saharan Africa), 24–28, 39
- Project selection, in investor-protection model, 171–73
- Property rights, conflict over, 11
- Property rights protection, 7
and Rule of Law index, 34
- Prospects for the Global Economy* (World Bank), 4–5
- Public goods and “central capture” view, 31 centralization associated with, 30 in fragmented groups, 31 and indigenous institutions in Africa, 32–33 social identity as explaining contributions to, 206 voluntary contributions to through harambee, 86
- Publish What You Pay campaign, 137n.24
- Quality of government and centralization (Bugunda), 32 and centralization vs. decentralization, 22 and precolonial centralization (sub-Saharan Africa), 22–24, 34–39
- Radical right (Western Europe), and immigrants, 210
- R&D race, as multi-state, 153
- Reagan, Ronald, 211
- Rebellion, and advance sale of minerals by rebel groups, 152
- Redistribution of income, 13, 201, 202 and class identity, 207–208, 210, 211, 220–21n.17 and democratic rule, 77 and historical contingencies, 211–212 in less advanced countries, 218 and national identity, 13, 208–17, 220–21n.17 and social identity, 207–12, 220n.13
- Regional identity, and redistribution model, 218
- Relative status, of group, 203
- Religion, and economic institutions, 38
- Religiosity and social violence in Indonesia, 13. See also Islamic religious intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- Rent-seeking, 164
and resource booms, 112
- Repression
in corruption model, 120–21 and natural resource booms, 124
- Republic of Congo, resource-boom consequences in, 113, 126–27
- Reserve Bank of India Bulletin*, 60
- “Resource curse,” 10
and power of population, 113
- Reverse causality and Indonesian social violence-religious intensity study, 181, 188–90, 195 in precolonial centralization study, 36
- Rule of Law index, 23, 34, 35
- Russia business dangers in, 163, 167
and decentralization, 8

- need for centralized fiscal power in, 49
waning central power in, 50
- Safeguarding expenditures, 166
- School system, and redistributive regime, 210
- Senegal, native authorities' performance in, 26
- Shick, Michael, 163
- Short-term contracts, and conflict, 142, 155, 156
- SIE. See Social identity equilibrium
- Social class identity. See Class identity
- Social groups, 203
- Social identity, 201, 203–204, 207
in developing countries, 217–19
and income redistribution, 207–12, 220n.13 measurement of, 212–13 stability of, 220n.11
- Social identity equilibrium (SIE), 201 definition of, 204
model of, 202–207, 208–209
- Social insurance, ideological extremism mitigated by, 13, 195–96
- Social norms, 7
- Social stratification, and centralization benefit to local communities, 33
- Social unrest, in corruption model, 113
- Social violence, and group identity, 179
- Social violence in Indonesia. See Islamic intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- Soft budget constraint, 78n.1
- Solow, Robert, 4, 5
- South Korea, growth rate in, 3
- State capture, 8
- State-community violence, 182
- Sweden, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- “Swing ” voters or states, 51, 56, 62–64, 66–67
- Switzerland, transparency and management-liability indexes in, 174
- Taiwan, growth rate in, 3
- Technology, and economic performance, 4, 5
- Tokayev, Kasymzhomart, 125
- Transfer dependence, 69–72
- Transition economies. See also Developing countries and enforcement of corporate governance regimes, 166
investments gone wrong in, 163
and redistribution support, 218–19
- Transparency
vs. manager liability, 174, 174–75
in stockholder-management relationship, 165, 166, 174
- Trinidad and Tobago, resource-boom consequences in, 127–28
- Trust, and economic performance, 13
- “Tug-of-war” competition, 153
- Uganda
accountability of local chiefs in, 31 precolonial institutions in, 24–26
- UNITA, 142
- UN Support Facility for Indonesian Recovery, 180
- Violence (violent conflict), 10–12. See also War communal, 182 (see also Islamic religious intensity link to social violence) explanations for, 11–12, 142–43, 155–56
and group identity, 179 industrial, 182
as negative externality, 179 puzzlement over failures to avert, 141 state-community, 182
- Violence in Indonesia. See Islamic intensity link to social violence (Indonesian financial crisis)
- War. See also Conflict, violent civil, 141
explanation(s) for, 144–47
explanation(s) for (endogenous arming), 147–52 explanation(s) for (multi-stage conflict), 152–55, 156–59
net benefit of, 143 prevalence of, 143–44
- Weber, Eugen, 217–18
- Welfare state, and national pride (Europe), 215
- West Africa, and precolonial institutions, 24. See also Africa, sub-Saharan
- Windfalls, public-sector and corruption, 111–12, 123 (see also Corruption) efficiency outcomes from, 112

- Winner's curse, 170
- World Bank
 - decentralization promoted by, 8
 - and Kenyan schools, 103
 - Prospects for the Global Economy* of, 4–5
- World Values Survey (WVS), 212

- Zaire, Mobutu in, 11