

---

Index

- ABET (Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology), 235–236, 246
- Advocacy biomonitoring, 102–106
- Alternative design, 234
- American Indian Nations, 179.
See also Tribal nations
- Audience, 39, 66, 80–82, 116
- Authority
decision-making, 127–128
exclusion and, 139
exercise of, 132
expertise and, 4–5, 121, 138–139
professional, 22
regulatory agency, 214 relative, of knowledge domains, 121 of science, 8, 255
structures of, 50
- Bhopal, 67, 69, 77–78
- Biomonitoring, 93–95, 97, 98, 106, 206, 252–253. See also Advocacy biomonitoring
- Body-burden studies, 103–104
- Boundary practices, 211, 216, 219, 221
- Bucket brigades, 114, 216
- California Department of Pesticide Regulation, 206–207, 209–216, 222–223 peer review in, 213 responses to neoliberalism, 225 science-based character, 210, 212
- California Environmental Protection Agency, 209–216, 222
- Californians for Pesticide Reform, 217–219
- Citizen science, 6, 232
alliances, 203–216
as approach to ethics, 96, 99, 102–106
- Clean Air Act, 43, 224
- Clean Water Act, 44
- Clinical
action level, 99–100
communications, 100
effects, uncertainty in, 95, 99, 118 efficacy of body-burden information, 252 ethics framework, 96, 99–100
- Collaboration, academic community, 24–25, 96, 113–116, 231–232, 239, 254. See also Community-based participatory research best practices, 98
Institutional Review Boards and, 108
new forms, 120, 132, 134
scientists' reflections on, 220–221 stigma for scientists, 213 strategic, 93
transformative nature, 16
- Commonweal, 217–219, 223
- Communication gaps, 149
- Communities for a Better Environment, 114–116

- Community-based participatory research, 93, 96, 162–163, 189, 206, 216, 219. See also Collaboration, academic community in classroom, 230
 as ethical approach, 99, 101–102, 108
- Community capacity building, 206, 209, 221, 225
- Community knowledge, 120, 149, 170. See also Local knowledge
- Community organizing, 40, 43–44, 47–48, 55–57, 124
- Cumulative impact assessment, 206, 209, 211–212, 221
- Data gaps, 97, 161, 169, 253
- Data judo, 96, 99, 102–106
- Decision making, 16, 24, 119, 121, 127–129, 132
- Deficit model, 64, 67, 87, 89. See also Information poverty
- Deliberation, 132–134, 136–137, 139–140 expertise as contributor to, 140 multistakeholder, 211
- Democracy, 46, 198
 expertise and, 121–122
 policymaking, 135–136
 science and, 15, 202
 technocracy and, 24
- Digital activism, 84
- Digital divide, 79–80
- Dose-response assessment, 181, 182
- Double bind, 55–56
- Dynamic character of science, 2, 4, 8–10
- Elitism, 42
- El Quinto Sol de América*, 217–219
- Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act, 69, 78
- Emissions inventories, 251
- Empowerment, 13, 45, 89, 127–129 through audience construction, 66–67
 as boundary norm, 219, 223 collaboration and, 221 digital, 63, 70, 84–87
 grassroots, 117–118
 information and, 84–85, 101
 strategies for, 136–140
- Engineering education reform, 230, 235–240, 246
- Engineering Projects in Community Service, 236–237
- Environmental Defense, 75–76
- Environmental health disparities, 149–150
- Environmental health literacy, 112
- Environmental health sciences, 24
- Environmental justice
 critiques of environmental movement, 44–45 defining, 250
 indices, 212–213
 structural aspects, 4–8, 233 technology and, 233, 241
- Environmental policy, 124
- Environmental Protection Agency, 43, 69–70, 151–153, 179, 183 challenge of pluralism to, 183–184, 192–193 shift in risk assessment approach, 196 tribal participation in, 186
- Environmental sampling, 94
- Environmental Working Group, 103–104, 112
- Epidemiology, 6, 216–217, 219
- Ethics, 95, 97–99, 106, 113, 118 standards for, 216, 219, 221
- Exclusion, 120, 138–139
- Executive Order 12898, 151
- Expert activism, 34, 36–39
- Expert activists, 7, 22–23, 25, 119–120, 254
- Expert class, rise of, 5–6
- Expertise
 acquisition, 51, 57
 authority and, 138–139, 140
 conceptualizing, 138–140 construction of, 9

- demands for, 52
 in democratic decision making, 119, 136, 138 effects of challenges by lay public, 183–184 hierarchies of, 246 internet and, 82
 kinds of, 120, 130–131, 137, 138, 140 models of, 131–132, 239, 240 politicization of, 33–34, 36
 refiguring, 257
 relations of, 49, 121–122, 137, 140–142, 239
 as requirement for participation, 55 sharing with communities, 47–48, 56 social power of, 139
- Expert knowledge, 6, 93, 121, 171
 Expert models, 171–172
 Expert roles, 229–230, 232, 234–235, 238–240, 245–247
 Exposure assessment, 93–95, 97, 106, 181–182, 251–252
- Fairness, 250
 Faultlines, 249, 257–258, 258n2
 Fish consumption
 advisories for, 151, 153, 160, 165–168, 170, 174 disparities in, 152–153, 159, 165, 175–176, 187 risks of, 161
 subsistence, 149–153
- Food Quality Protection Act, 214–215
- Green Media Toolshed, 76
- Hazard identification, 181–182
 Health, definitions of, 189–190
 Hierarchy
 expertise, 246
 knowledge, 57–58, 138–140, 257 political, 119–122, 124–125, 138 social, and technological, 233
 Historical understandings, 64, 65–66
- Human subjects protection, 98, 105, 112–113. See also Ethics; Institutional Review Board
- Identity
 engineering, 238, 240 expert, 14, 238, 240, 247
 professional, 13, 229, 230, 245
- Identity politics, 203
 Industrialization, 4–5
 Information
 access to, 64
 paradoxes of, 252–253
 poverty, 63–64, 67–69, 87–89, 251–253
- Innovation in technical practice, 15
 Institutional approach, 23, 26, 36–37
 Institutional change, 17, 26, 119
 Institutionalization of environmental justice, 14, 201
 Institutional Review Board, 105, 108, 112–113. See also Ethics; Human subjects protection
 Institutional structures, 17, 121, 165, 170
 Institutions, 11, 14, 22
 Intervention strategies, 119
 Invisibility, 165–168, 170, 174
- Knowledge. See also Local knowledge; Expert knowledge deficits, 68 (see also Deficit model) disparities in access to, 102–103 diverse forms, 180, 192, 256 domains of, 121, 137, 139, 141 gaps, 88, 149, 165, 169, 182 (see also Data gaps) limitations in scientific, 232, 243 of marginalized groups, 136, 169 politics (see Politics of knowledge) in regulatory context, 181
- Learning, 51
 Legal system, 23–24
 Legator, Marvin, 21–22, 28, 30, 34, 37
 Lifeways, 182, 186, 194

- Local knowledge community needs and, 129
 discounting of, 138, 166, 171 mechanisms for channeling, 38 need for, 6, 241, 243–244 regulatory processes and, 213 about risk, 149
 use in science, 8, 232 street science and, 203
 Love Canal, 67–69, 77
- Madison Department of Public Health, 159
- Madison Environmental Justice Organization, 154
- Market-based approaches, 202, 221–224
- Meaningful involvement, 250
- Mercury, 158–159
- Multicultural organizing, 173–174
- Mutual learning, 128–129, 132, 139
- National Ambient Air Quality Standards, 224
- National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey, 95
- National Research Council, 181
- National Toxicology Program, 251
- Neoliberalism, 6, 221–224, 225
- Networks, 13, 22, 37, 120, 124–125, 133, 202 boundary-spanning, 27, 31 expert activists and, 23, 27, 31, 36–37, 38–39
- Obstacles to change, 4, 14, 15, 47, 49, 52
- Office of Management and Budget Watch, 72
- Opportunities for change, 12, 38
 for participation, creating, 54
- Participation
 community, as ideal, 126
 in decision making, 16, 40, 44, 137, 180, 186, 189, 231 expanding, 136, 206, 209, 221 forms of, 64, 84
 grassroots, 121
 in knowledge production, 102, 169, 171, 232 in problem solving, 245, 247
 in risk assessment, 171, 183 spaces of, 50, 69, 84, 88, 122 state control over processes, 184, 197–198 in technological design, 234 tribal, 180, 190, 192
- Participatory approach to science, 114–116
- Participatory design, 234
- Participatory processes, 127, 231
- Participatory research, 170, 203, 225
- PCBs, 158–159
- Performance, websites as, 64
- Pesticide Action Network of North America, 217–219, 220, 223
- Pesticide drift, 201, 206, 217, 220
- Pluralism, 142, 183, 192–193, 256
- Political engagement, 64, 66
- Political sociology of science, 22, 202
- Politics of knowledge, 24, 39
- Power
 administrative, 193, 196, 197–198
 decision-making, 16, 198
 disparities, 14, 103, 132, 135, 231, 258
 expertise and, 139
 knowledge and, 181
 redistribution of, 198 relations, 11, 16–17, 101, 150 technological design and, 233
- Precautionary approaches, 100, 202, 206, 209, 217, 211, 221, 225
- Professional capital, 36
- Racial disparities, 149
- Racism, 42
- Recognition, politics of, 196–199
- Regulation
 adequacy of, 53, 103 pollution control, 40, 43
 precautionary, 206

- role of studies in promoting, 94, 102
- by shaming, 63
- as source of data, 81
- undone, 44, 51
- Regulatory agencies. See also
  - California Department of Pesticide Regulation; Environmental Protection Agency; Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources
- accountability, 212
- change within, 3, 12, 114
- decisions, shifting, 180
- formation of, 40, 43
- policing, 56
- Regulatory arena, 13–14
- Regulatory benchmarks, 95, 100
- Regulatory regimes, 24
- Regulatory science, 154–155, 201–202, 203–205, 211, 214–215, 222–225
- Regulatory scientists, 31, 256
- Regulatory structures, 14, 222
- Relevance of scientific studies, 116
- Report-back, 96, 97, 102
  - guidelines for, 106–113
  - models, 163
  - protocols, 101, 105
  - strategies for, 99
- Research science, 203–205, 222, 225
- Resource constraints, 42, 54, 57–58, 254
- Right-to-know, 108–109, 111–112
- Risk. See also Risk assessment
  - analysis in TRI websites, 83
  - characterization, 181, 182–183
  - communication, 81, 107, 111–112, 149, 160, 167–168, 174, 252
  - disparities, 149
  - information, 79, 253
  - management, 180
- Risk assessment
  - critiques of, 181, 189–190
  - cultural aspects, 148–151, 164, 179–180
  - fish consumption and, 148–151, 187
  - Health and Well-Being Model, 180, 189–192, 194–195, 197
  - invisibility and, 166–168, 174
  - process, 181–183
  - reforming, 172, 180, 187–189
  - shifting regulatory decisions about, 180
  - tribes and, 186–187
  - trust in, 169
  - validity, 170
  - values and, 183
- Risk society, 6
- Ruptures in technical practice, 3, 8–14, 34, 42
- Rural electrification, 123
- Science, 7–9, 15, 183, 192, 202.
  - See also* Regulatory science; Research science; Sound science; Street science
- Science-based legal advocacy, 40, 44, 45, 55
- Scientific controversy, 66, 93
- Scientific disagreements, 201
- Scientific legitimacy, 83–84
- Scientific rigor, 116, 255
- Scientific uncertainty, 93, 97, 182–183
- Scientific validity, 170, 220
- Service learning, 230, 235–240, 246
- Shadow mobilizations, 27, 37, 38, 39
- Silent Spring Institute, 114–116
- Sound science, 253, 255, 260n11
- Spaces between, 10–11
- Street science, 154–155, 201–205, 219–221, 224–225, 232–234, 256
- Structural inequality, 46
- Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, 69
- Synergistic effects of chemicals, 182
- Toxics Release Inventory, 63, 69, 71, 78, 79
- Toxic Substances Control Act, 152, 257, 261n16
- Transformation, 3, 10–11, 14–18, 63–65

- Tribal Nations, 180, 184, 192
- Tribal Science Council, 181, 183, 184–187, 189, 193–194
- University-industry relations, 202
- US EPA. See Environmental Protection Agency
- Wisconsin Department of Health Services, 160–161
- Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, 154, 160–161
- Woburn, 69, 77, 90n2
- World Bank, 129–133