Index

Absorption parameter, 100 Academic article citations and patent citations, 161 Aerojet Nuclear, 302 Aerospace firms and NASA patents, 283 Age, vs. importance, of patents, 33, 33 n., 45 - 46Aggregation system, 415 Air Products, 272 Albany, in localization study, 167 Ames laboratory, 325 Antecedent, of research, 201 Appropriability, 51 measures of, 52, 63, 83-84 and larger corporations, 78 patent data for, 53-56 research design and data characteristics of, 66-70 simple patent counts and, 84 statistical analysis of, and results, 71, 72.76 statistical test of, 63-66 and self-citation, 215, 215 n. Argonne Chicago Development Corporation (ARCH), 281 n. Argonne laboratories, 308 Arrow, Kenneth, 5 Articles in academic journals, 161 Asian Tigers and Israeli patents, 14, 347-357, 360 Assignees, 355 of Israeli patents, 355-365 types of, 413-414 Association of University Technology Administrators (AUTM), surveys of, 244 AT&T, 316

Attorneys and information about citations, 106 n., 380, 392 Backward-looking measures of basicness, 56, 62-63, 70-73, 75 and forward measures, 81-83 Basicness, 51, 246. See also Generality; Importance of patents continuum of, 54, 55 measures of, 52, 56-57, 83-84 backward-looking, 56, 62-63, 70, 71, 72-73, 75, 81-83 forward-looking, 56, 57-62, 70, 72, 73, 75, 81-83 patent data for, 53-56 research design for, and data characteristics of, 66-70 simple patent counts and, 84 statistical analysis of, and results, 70-83 statistical test of, 63-66 Basic research, 162. See also Unpatentable research/innovation Bayh-Dole Act (1980), 13, 243-244, 293 and university incentives, 256 and university licensing of technology, 298, 303 n., 315 and university patenting, 313 and university title to patents from federally funded R&D, 292, 293, 301, 303 n. Bell Report, 294 n. Benchmarking of citation data, 434–437 fixed-effects approach to, 436, 437-441 quasi-structural approach to, 437, 441-451 Bettis Atomic Power laboratory, 308

Bias from examination of patents within U.S. system, 228 in Herfindahl-type measures, 454-458 from selectivity, 65-66 from truncation, 33, 46-48, 204 (see also Truncation bias/problem) and university patents, 249, 252 Boston, in localization study, 167 Boyer, H. W., 79, 80 Britain. See Great Britain Brookhaven laboratory, 308, 325 BRS (computerized search technique), 28 Caballero, Ricardo, 11 Calibration. See also Benchmarking of citation data of parameters in economic growth model, 136, 139-140 of patent citations, 10 California Institute of Technology, patents of, 241 Canada Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 359, 360, 373 in knowledge-flow model, 182, 184, 189, 194, 195 Capital goods, international technology flow from sale of, 200 Cardiac pacemakers, patent for, 79-81 Career concerns of researchers, 329 Cells of data, in international-citationpattern model, 209 derivation of expected citation frequency for, 229-230 expected citation count for, 211-213 Chicago, in localization study, 167 Citation counts all-inclusive vs. same-field, 30 and bias in Herfindahl-type measures, 454 - 458and value of innovations, 28, 38-39 Citation data, 3-4, 54. See also Patent citations; Patent data benchmarking of, 434-437 fixed-effects approach to, 436, 437-441 quasi-structural approach to, 437, 441-451 on CT scanners (Trajtenberg thesis), 8-9 forward- vs. backward-looking, 56 (see also Backward-looking measures of basicness; Forward-looking measures of basicness)

and knowledge spillovers, 12 limitations of, 54 as proxy for knowledge flows and technological impact, 14 and value of innovation, 43 Citation frequency, 183, 210, 211 and localization of spillovers, 157 Citation function, 11, 92-93, 100, 147, 149, 184, 195 Citation intensity, 187, 211, 214 and market valuation of stock, 16 reference, 313 and university patents, 254 Citation lags between cited and citing patent, 47, 146, 165, 166, 166 n., 183, 202-203, 204, 421-424. See also Lags difficulty in estimating effects from, 186, 213 for yearly patent cohorts, 106, 108 Citation patterns, cross-country, 149 in international-knowledge-flow model, 202-232 Citation practices, changes in, 200 Citation rates, 11 Citations function, 11, 92-93, 100, 147, 149, 184, 195 Citations, patent. See Patent citations Citation-weighted patent stocks, 16 Cities, industries located in, 156 Claims in patents, 431-432 Classification system for patents, 54, 158-159, 351-352 Cohen, S. N., 79, 80 Commercialization of nationallaboratory technology, 13-14, 288, 289, 291, 327, 328 (see also National laboratories) Competition and value of innovation to firms, 34 n. Compustat, 6, 403, 432-434 Computed Tomography (CT), 29–30 patent for, 79, 80, 81 Computed Tomography patent counts, 29 - 33and innovation, 33-43, 44 and measures of social gains, 25 and social returns, 60-61 Computerization of patents, 4, 405 of USPTO, 6, 113, 418 Computerized search techniques, 28 Concentration, Herfindahl index of, 60,

253, 270, 318, 318 n., 330

Conference on R&D, Patents, and Productivity (1981), 6 Consumer surplus in innovation model, 34 Consumption growth rate, in economic growth model, 126-128 Control samples, in localization study, 159-161 Cooperative R&D arrangements (CRADAs), 292, 295, 310 formation of, 302, 324-327 in statistical analysis, 306 Corning Glass Works, 79, 80 Corporate patents international citing of, 206 Israeli, 357-359, 363 in knowledge-flow model, 181, 182, 190, 193-194, 195 and localization study, 172, 176 self-citations in, 164 in research on measures of basicness/ appropriability, 67–69 and self-citation, 208 n. vs. university patents, 10, 65 and measures of basicness, 75-78 Corporate research and distribution of basicness, 55 and university research, 52, 64 Court of appeals for patent cases, 253 CRADAs (Cooperative R&D arrangements), 292, 295, 310 formation of, 302, 324-327 in statistical analysis, 306 Cramer, Robert "Bud," 289 n. Creative destruction, 89 in growth model, 91, 129-136 and increase in substitutability, 138 and obsolescence, 92 rate of, 91, 98, 148 and present vs. past creators, 97 rate of, 105 Cross-country citation patterns, 149 Crystalline silicoaluminophosphates, patent on (abstract), 20-21 Database from DOE's Office of Scientific and from DOE's Office of Scientific and Technical Information, 307 for knowledge-flow model, 181–182 NBER/Case Western Reserve, 307, 381– 382 PATDATA, 30 of U.S. patent office, ix, 307

Data base on U.S. patents (NBER), 1–2, 3, 6, 19, 180, 205, 403-407, 451 benchmarking of citation data in, 434-437 fixed-effects approach to, 436, 437-441 quasi-structural approach to, 437, 441-451 and citation lags, 421-424 citations made and received in, 417-421 and dating of patents, 409-410 description of data in, 407-409 and match to Compustat, 432-434 and measures of generality or originality, 428-431 and number of claims, 431-432 number of patents in, 410-413 and self-citations, 424-428 and technological fields, 414-417 and types of assignees, 413-414 Data gathering and measures of basicness, 66-69 Defense Conversion, Reinvestment, and Transition Assistance Act (1992), 262Department of Energy, U.S. (DOE), 289 Federally Funded Research and Development Centers of, 293–297, 329 (see also Federally Funded Research and Development Centers) laboratories of, 261, 290 and licensing arrangements, 316 Office of Procurement and Assistance Management of, 307 patent awards from research at, 306-307 Depreciation vs. obsolescence, 99 Descendant, of research, 201 Detroit/Ann Arbor, in localization study, 167 DIALOG (computerized search technique), 28 Diamonex (corporation), 272 Diffusion of knowledge/information/ ideas, 99, 199. See also Knowledgeflow model; Knowledge/research spillovers in growth model, 92-93, 99-103, 105-120 frictions in, 139 speed of, 126, 137, 142, 146, 149 and localization, 201-202 rate of, 179, 183 Disclosure, 278, 404

Distance between innovation and antecedents or descendants, 61–62, 78, 83 technological, 150
DNA, recombinant, patent for, 79
DOE. See Department of Energy, U.S.
Domestic patent, defined, 158 n.
Dual-use technology, 281

Econometric model for international knowledge flows and patent citations, 200, 205, 225, 227-229 data for, 205-209 derivation of expected cell citation frequency in, 229-230 economic issues regarding, and interpretation of, 213-216 expected citation count for cells in, 211-213patent pair-citation frequencies modeled in, 209-211 results of, 203-204, 216-225, 226-227, 230 - 232and time lag, 202-203, 204 Economic data, importance of, 19, 451 Economic growth empirical data lacking on, ix industrial research as engine of, 89 and knowledge diffusion, 199 knowledge as key to, 1 Economic-growth model, 90-95, 145-150and consumption growth, 126-128 and creative destruction, 129-136 (see also Creative destruction) empirical analysis in, 103-105 general equilibrium, calibration, and implications of empirical results in, 136 - 145goods markets in, 95-97 innovation production function in, 120-126of knowledge diffusion, technological obsolescence, and patent citations, 105 - 120spillovers, knowledge diffusion, and knowledge obsolescence in, 99-103 valuation, innovation, and labor market in, 97–99 Economic research and patent citations, 28 and simple patent counts, 26, 406

Economics, empirical counterparts lacking in, 51 Economics of technological change, unobservable concepts in, 400 EG&G (corporation), 302, 316 Electro-Physics Branch (EPB) of NASA-Lewis Research Center, Cleveland, 272 - 281EMI (UK corporation), 79 Endogenous economic growth, models of. 199 Endogenous obsolescence, 19 Energy Technology Engineering Center, 308 England. See Great Britain Equilibrium in economic-growth model, 136 - 145Europe. See also France; Germany; Italy; Spain in knowledge-flow model, 182, 184, 189, 194, 195 patent renewal fees in, 7 Evenson, Bob, 4 n. Examiners. See Patent examiners Examining process for patents, 113 Executive Order 10096, 293 Executive Order 10930, 293 Externalities, localization of knowledge, 156 External validation, 9 Familiarity of citing inventor with cited invention, 389 Federal laboratories, 181, 261, 279. See also Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs); Government patents; NASA; National laboratories Federal-laboratory patents, 13-14, 262. See also Government patents study of, 264-271, 282-283 Federal law, 262. See also Bayh-Dole Act; Defense Conversion, Reinvestment, and Transition Assistance Act; Federal Technology Transfer Act;

National Competitiveness Technology Transfer Act; Public Law

Trademark Clarification Act

256

96-517; Public Law 98-620; Stevenson-

Wydler Technology Innovation Act;

affecting university patenting, 243-244,

466

on public-private transfer of technology, 262, 292-293, 299 Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), DOE, 261, 268, 289-290, 293-297. See also Federal laboratories; National laboratories statistical analysis of, 306-311 corroboratory analyses (CRADAs), 324 - 327cross-sectional analyses using patent data, 315-324 overall technology commercialization patterns found in, 311-315 Federal Technology Transfer Act (1986), 262, 292, 293, 311 Fermi Accelerator (laboratory), 308 FFRDCs. See Federally Funded Research and Development Centers Fiber optics, patent for, 79, 81, 85 Finland Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347-351, 359, 360, 373 patent data on, 341 Firm(s), 129 n. aerospace, 283 in growth model, 129 stock-market valuation of, 16 value of. 104 Firm self-citation, 204 Fixed-effects approach to benchmarking, 436, 437-441 Fogarty, Mike, xii Foreign patent, defined, 158 n. Foreign patenting in U.S., 125 Forward-looking measures of basicness, 56, 57-62, 70, 72, 73, 75 and backward measures, 81-83 France citation frequencies in, 207 citations of U.S. patents, 203, 221 and fading of geographic localization over time, 224 international citation patterns of, 206, 218, 221-223, 226, 227, 230-232 Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 Galvin Report, 328 General equilibrium in economic-growth model, 136-145 Generality (GENERAL), 11, 247, 338

in localization study, 171

as measure of basicness, 60-61, 61 n., 66, 70-72, 74, 75, 78, 80-84 measures of, 428-431 and patent citations, 406, 418 of university patents, 247-252, 256, 270 nature of decline in, 252-256 Generality index, 457-458 General-purpose technologies, 19 Geographic assignment of patents, 162-163. 163 n. Geographic concentration of industries, 156 Geographic localization, 201-203 fading of, over time, 223, 224 in international study, 217, 219, 227, 228 in knowledge-flow model, 194-195 of knowledge spillovers, 155, 156-157, 316 as captured by patent citations, 12 experimental design for, 158-163 extent of, 163-170 factors affecting, 170-174 as fading over time, 175 vs. technological specialization, 157, 160 and self-citation, 225 by firm, 204 and spillovers from university research, 239 vs. technological localization, 204-205 Geographic proximity and NASA study, 280 and spillovers, 282 Germany citation frequencies in, 207 citations of U.S. patents, 203, 221 and fading of geographic localization over time, 224 international citation patterns of, 206, 218, 221–223, 226, 227, 230–232 Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 349 n., 350, 360, 373 Goods markets in growth model, 95–97 Government-owned contractor-operated facilities (GOCOs), 293-294 Government-owned laboratories. See National laboratories Government patents, 13-14. See also Federal-laboratory patents in Israel, 357-359, 363 in knowledge-flow model, 181, 182-183, 190, 193-194, 195

Great Britain citation frequencies in, 207 citations of U.S. patents, 203, 221 and fading of geographic localization over time, 224 international citation patterns of, 206, 218, 220-223, 226, 227, 230-232 Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 Great Lakes Industrial Technology Center (GLITeC), 281 Griliches, Zvi, ix, xii-xiii, 6-8, 17, 379, 405, 433 GTE Laboratories, 85 Hall, Bronwyn, 6, 15–16 Hanford Engineering Development, 308 Henderson, Rebecca, 10 Herfindahl index of concentration, 60, 253, 270, 318, 318 n., 330 Herfindahl-type measures, bias in, 454-458Heterogeneity of research, 51. See also Basicness; Appropriability Hong Kong, Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347-350, 360, 361, 373 Hughes Aircraft Co., 79 IBM, 361 Idaho Engineer and Environment, 308 Idaho National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory (INEEL), 298, 301-305, 327 Immediacy factor, 33 n. Importance of patents (IMPORT), 57-60, 70-73, 80, 82-83, 247, 338 vs. age, 33, 33 n., 45-46 and citation counts, 27-28 and citation intensity, 214 corporate patents, 75-77, 77 n. examples of, 84-85 federal patents, 270 in growth model, 114 of Israeli inventors, 366-370 by technological category, 369-370, 374 nature of decline in, 252-256 and suggested research, 84 in survey of inventors/patentees, 397-399 university patents, 247-252, 256, 270

Indicator (proxy variable), 25, 52 as problem, 64, 64 n. Industrial Partnerships and Commercialization (IPAC) office, 300, 301 Industrial Research Institute, 283 n. Industries, geographic concentration of, 156 Industry funding of university research, 244-246, 256 Influences on development of invention, in survey of inventors/patentees, 387-389 Inhalation Toxicology (laboratory), 308 Innovation(s). See also R&D; Research appropriability of, 51 (see also Appropriability) basicness of, 51, 57, 246 (see also Basicness) and CT patent counts, 33-35, 44, 60-61 statistical evidence on, 35-43 constructed measures of technological character and significance of, 11 as continuous time process, 43-44, 44 n. and creative destruction, 89 critical mass in, 371 difficulties in study of, 1 discrimination between more and less, 52 economic gains from, 372 generality of, 11, 66, 338 (see also Generality) in growth model, 97-99 indicators of, 25, 52 as problem, 64, 64 n. Israeli, 14, 337-338, 372 (see also Israeli patenting in U.S.) patentable range of, 339, 341 and patent citations, 28, 406, 417 and patent data, 43-44, 180, 180 n. patents as source of data on, 3 research on. 2 and research institutions, 13 Schumpeter on, 89-90 and simple patent counts, 26 study of, 338 and technology flow from universities, 246 value of, 16, 25, 26 n., 34, 34 n., 44 in growth model, 98 lack of indicators of, 51 patent counts as indicating, 36, 43

Innovation function, 99, 105, 120-126, 147 Institutional effect, 83 Institutional localization, 201 Institutional type, in knowledge-flow model, 193-194 Intel, 300, 361 Internalized spillovers, 162 Internal validation, 9 International comparisons of Israeli patenting in U.S., 346-351 International knowledge flow(s), 199-200vs. technology flows from capital-goods sales, 200 International-knowledge-flow model, 225, 227-229 data for, 205-209 derivation of expected cell citation frequency in, 229-230 economic issues regarding, and interpretation of, 213–216 expected citation count for cells, 211-213patent pair-citation frequencies, 209-211 results of, 203-204, 216-225, 226-227, 230-232 and time lag, 202-203, 204 Intramural laboratories, 261, 262 n. Invention and Economic Growth (Schmookler), 5 Inventions basicness of, 57, 246 (see also Basicness) Kuznets on problems in researching, 5 as packages of component ideas, 147 patentability of, 3-4 patents as representations of, 405 rate of, 51 Inventors, 355 as building on previous achievements, 90, 92 extent, timing, and nature of communication among, 387-397 in interpretation of citations, 277, 283-284 Israeli, 14 and perceived importance of patents, 397-399 survey of, xii, 14, 379-380, 400 design of, 380-384 and technological relationship between inventions, 384-387

Inversion problem, 4, 406-407 Iowa, rural, in localization study, 167 Iowa State University Research Foundation, patents of, 241 Ireland Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 348, 350, 360, 373 patent data on, 341 Israel, 337 Israeli patenting in U.S., 14, 338, 371-372 assignees of, 355-365 by technological category, 365 basic facts about, 342-346 data on, 341-342, 355-356, 371 distribution of, by technological categories, 374 international comparisons of, 346-351, 373 by assignee types, 360 relative importance of, 366-370 by technological category, 369–370 technological composition of, 351-355 Italy, Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 Japan citation frequencies in, 208 citations of U.S. patents, 203, 221 and fading of geographic localization over time, 194, 224 international citation patterns of, 206, 218, 220-223, 226, 230-232 Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 inventors of, 13 in knowledge-flow model, 182, 184, 189, 194, 195 local assignees in, 372 Jet Propulsion Laboratory, 261, 267 n. Johns Hopkins University, patents of, 241 J.P. Technologies, 272 Justice Department, U.S., investigation by, 291, 293 Keck, D. B., 79, 80 Knolls Atomic Power (laboratory), 308 Knowledge difficulties in study of, 1 as economic asset, 1, 19, 451 private obsolescence of, 19

tacit, 282-283

Knowledge capital, 346 Knowledge diffusion. See Diffusion of knowledge/information/ideas Knowledge externalities, localization of, 156 Knowledge flow(s) by institutional type, 190, 193-194 international, 225, 227-229 by location, 184, 194-195 microlevel attention needed on, 283 and patent citations, 200, 201-205, 228, 278, 279 by technological fields, 189, 191–193 time lag of, 202-203, 204 and time effects, 190-191 Knowledge-flow model, 179-180, 183-186. See also Diffusion of knowledge/ information/ideas; Knowledge/ research spillovers data for, 180-183, 205-209 derivation of expected cell citation frequency in, 229-230 economic issues regarding, and interpretation of, 213-216 expected citation count for cells in, 211-213 and patent pair-citation frequencies, 209 - 211results of, 188-190, 203-204, 216-225, 226-227, 230-232 specification and interpretation issues in, 186–188 Knowledge-production function, 7 Knowledge/research spillovers, 11, 379 as beneficial to receiving unit, 18-19 changes in potency/quantity of, 112 decline in potency/quantity of, 93 and citing-cited relationship, 14 and corporate vs. university patents, 77 difficulty of measuring, 12 from foreign knowledge creation, 146 and geographic proximity, 282 in growth model, 91-92, 99-103, 105 impact of, 15 in-house vs. external, 75 across institutional boundaries, 262 internalized, 162 localization of, 155, 156-157, 316 as captured by patent citations, 12 experimental design for, 158–163 extent of, 163-170 factors affecting, 170-174 as fading over time, 175 vs. technological specialization, 157, 160 in NASA citation study, 273-274, 275, 276 - 277and patent citations, 3, 12, 106-107, 112, 156, 161-162, 174-176, 282, 406, 417 regional, 351 research on, 155 and research agenda, 17 and research performance, 7 and self-citations, 215-216, 424 in study of Israeli innovation, 338 in survey of inventors / patentees, 390, 392-396, 397, 400 across technologies, 19 vs. technology transfer, 200 from university research, 237, 239 Knowledge/technological obsolescence, 92, 93, 99-103, 105-120, 146. See also Obsolescence endogenous, 19, 99 as function of accumulated patents, 196 in knowledge-flow model, 188, 192 Krugman, Paul, 12 Kuznets, Simon, ix, 5, 8, 17 Laboratory effect, 319 Labor market, in growth model, 97-99, 138 n. Lags between application and grant dates, 239 n., 409-410, 411 between cited and citing patent, 47, 146, 165, 166, 166 n., 183, 202-204, 421-424 difficulty in estimating effects from, 186, 213 for yearly patent cohorts, 106, 108 in conversion of ideas into patent applications, 121 in diffusion of knowledge, 99, 117 modal, 184-185, 210, 216, 219 between observables and unobservables, 148 vs. obsolescence, 103 n. between patents and gains, 36 between true and observed N, 128 Laser, ruby, patent for, 79, 80-81 Law, federal. See Federal law Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory, 308, 310 n.

Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, 289, 289 n., 298-301, 299-301, 306, 308, 325 and University of California, 299, 300-301, 306, 310 n., 322 Legislation. See Federal law Licensing revenues, 295 n. Linking, of patents with external data, 15 - 16Localization, 201-203. See also Geographic localization Lockheed Corporation, 303-305 Los Alamos Laboratory, 261, 289, 309, 327 Los Angeles/Anaheim, in localization study, 167 Madison, Wisconsin, in localization study, 167 Maiman, T., 79, 80 Manhattan Project, 293, 294 n. Mansfield, Edwin, 4 n. Market value, in patent study, 16 Marshall-Arrow-Romer models, 156 n. Massachusetts Institute of Technology patents of, 241 technology-licensing revenues of, 295 n. Matched sample approach, 10 Maurer, R., 79, 80 Measures and growth model, 104 Measures of basicness/appropriability, 52, 56-57, 63, 83-84 backward-looking, 62-63 forward-looking, 57-62 patent data for, 53-56 research design and data characteristics of, 66–70 statistical analysis of, and results, 70-83 statistical test of, 63-66 Medtronics (corporation), 79 Micro Devices, 300 Microeconomics of creative destruction and knowledge spillovers, 90 Minneapolis/St. Paul, in localization study, 167 Modal lag, 184-185, 210, 216 in international studies, 219 Model for international knowledge flows. See Econometric model for international knowledge flows and patent citations Model of economic growth. See Economic-growth model

Model of knowledge flow. See Knowledge-flow model Models of endogenous economic growth, 199 Motorola, 300, 356, 361 Mound (laboratory), 309 Multinational firms and international technology diffusion, 199 in Israel, 337, 356 patents assigned to, 361 NASA (National Aeronautics and Space Administration), 261, 262 n. NASA-Lewis Research Center, Electro-Physics Branch of, 272–281 NASA patents, 13, 262 and patenting by NASA contractors, 265, 267 qualitative evidence on, 271-281 study of, 205, 264-271, 282-283 National Bureau of Economic Research. See NBER National Competitiveness Technology Transfer Act (Public Law 101-189) (1989), 262, 292, 293, 299 National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), 261 National Institutes of Health, 261, 262 n. National laboratories, 13, 261, 288-290, 327-328. See also Federal laboratories; Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs); Government patents Idaho National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory, 298, 301-305 Lawrence Livermore, 298-301 and patent policies, 291-297 research suggestions on, 328-329 sources of information on, 329-332 National Patent Planning Commission, 291, 293 National Reactor Testing Station, 301 National Semiconductors, 361 National Technology Transfer Center (NTTC), 281 n. NBER (National Bureau of Economic Research), 19 generation of data as theme of, 19, 451 R&D panel of, 130 NBER/Case Western Reserve database, 307, 381-382

19, 180, 205, 403–407, 451 benchmarking of citation data in, 434– 437

fixed-effects approach to, 436, 437–441 quasi-structural approach to, 437, 441– 451

citation lags in, 421–424

citations made and received in, 417-421

dating of patents in, 409-410

description of data in, 407–409 match between Compustat and, 432–

434 and measures of generality or originality, 428–431

number of claims in, 431–432

number of patents in, 410-413

self-citations in, 424-428

technological fields in, 414-417

types of assignees in, 413-414

NBER R&D, patents, and productivity project, 433

Nelson, Richard, 5, 6

New goods, measurement of consumption increase from, 127 n.

Newton, Isaac, aphorism of, 90 n., 92 New York City area, in localization study, 167

New Zealand

79, 81, 85

Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with, 347, 348, 350, 360, 361, 373 patent data on, 341

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education, 309 Oak Ridge National Laboratory, 261, 309, 325, 327 Obsolescence knowledge/technological, 92, 93, 99– 103, 105–120, 146 endogenous, 19, 99 as function of accumulated patents, 196 in knowledge-flow model, 188, 192 vs. lags, 103 n. rate of, 98 value, 92 Optical fibers (fiber optics), patent for, Optimal subsidy issue, 143–145 Originality of patents, 338 and citations, 11, 418 measures of, 428-431 and patent citations, 406 Ownership structure of descendants of innovation, 62 Pacemakers, patent for, 79, 80, 81 Pacific Northwest (laboratory), 309 Pacific Rim and U.S. West Coast, 227 Packard Report, 294 n. PATDATA database, 30 Patent(s), 3, 53, 158, 263, 339 age vs. importance of, 33, 33 n., 45-46 as cited by other U.S. patents, 184, 194 as data, ix database on, xii, 1-2, 3, 180, 205, 403-407 (see also Data base on U.S. Patents) dating of, 30, 409-410 and federal patents, 264, 265, 267 to foreign inventors, 125, 158 n., 160, 180 n., 205 n. in different sectors, 91 n. in economic research, 25 examining process for, 113 (see also Patent examiners) example of, 20-21 front page of, 339, 340 geographic assignment of, 162-163, 163 n. in growth model, 91 importance of, 57-60 (see also Importance of patents) institutional holders of (see Corporate patents; Federal-laboratory patents; Government patents; University patents and patenting) Israeli-held, 338, 371–372 assignees of, 355-365 basic facts about, 342-346 data on, 341-342, 355-356, 371 distribution of, by technological categories, 374 international comparisons of, 346-351 and knowledge production, 7 Kuznets on research on, 5 nonobviousness required for, 274 patent/R&D ratio, 253 players related to, 355 and R&D, 6-7, 18, 36, 41-42, 43, 44 renewal fees for (Europe), 7 and research inputs, 94 vs. secrecy, 54, 91 n. size of, 93, 94, 111, 147 by technological categories, 354 unassigned, 413-414 U.S., defined, 107 n. Patent, U.S., defined, 107 n., 158 n., 180 n., 205 n., 239 n. See also Patent(s) Patent and Trademark Amendments of 1980 (Public Law 96-517). See Bayh-Dole Act Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. (USPTO) classification system of, 158-159, 351-352 computerization of, 6, 113, 418 databases of, ix, 307 differences in practices of, 434 on nationality of patents, 355 patentability criteria of, 3-4, 405 Patent attorneys and information about citations, 106 n., 380, 392 Patent citations, 1, 3, 8, 27-29, 53, 106, 158, 180-181, 205-206, 246 n., 263-264, 366, 379 n., 417. See also s.v. Patent citations and academic article citations, 161 calibration of, 10 for computed tomography, 30-33 innovation and, 33-43, 44 and disclosure process, 278 statistical analysis of, 317-324 and economic research, 28 and economic value of innovations, 25-26 for Electro-Physics Branch (EPB) of NASA-Lewis Research Center, 272-283 for Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 313-315 in growth model, 104, 105-120, 146 and importance of patent, 14, 366 incentives for, 106 n. inflation in, 435 interpreting of, 277-281, 282 of Israeli patents, 366-370 and knowledge flow, 200, 201-205, 228 in knowledge-flow model, 181-196 and knowledge spillovers, 12, 156, 161-162, 174-176, 282 Lanjouw-Schankerman study on, 17-18 in localization study, 159-161, 163-176, 179, 180 and measures of basicness/appropriability, 52 (see also Appropriability; Basicness) for NASA, 271-272 as paper trail, 379, 417 and patent examiners, 27, 53-54, 106 n., 158, 166 n., 175, 181, 205, 366, 384, 392, 417, 418 research value of, 404 and science-based innovation, 418 to scientific papers, 274 n. and spillovers, 3, 106-107, 112, 406, 417 and survey of inventors/patentees, 380, 381-387, 397-399, 400 (see also Survey of inventors/patentees) and tacit knowledge transfer, 283 usefulness of, 257 and value of innovations, 43 weighting scheme for, 29 Patent-citations database. See NBER Patent Citations Data File Patent claims, 383 n. Patent classification system, 54, 158-159, 351-352 Patent counts, 26-27 and bias in Herfindahl-type measures, 454 - 458Patent data. See also Citation data advantages in use of, 404 in growth model, 91 and innovations, 38-39 limitations on use of, 339, 341, 405 in measures of basicness and appropriability, 53-56 systematic use of, 228-229 usefulness and meaning of, 43-45 Patent examiners and citations, 27, 53-54, 106 n., 158, 166 n., 175, 181, 205, 366, 384, 392, 417, 418money for, exhausted (1979), 268 n. Patent numbers, 107 n. Patent Office. See Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. Patent policy and national laboratories, 291 - 297Idaho National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory, 298, 301-305 Lawrence Livermore, 298-301 Patent protection, value of, 104 n.

Patent quality, 17–18 Patent/R&D ratio, 253 Patent rates, 11 Patent records, 1 Patent "size," 18 Patent values distribution of, 27 and stock prices, 142 n. Philadelphia/Wilmington, in localization study, 167 Placebo patents, 381, 385 Princeton Plasma Physics (laboratory), 309 Prior (maintained hypothesis), 65 Private firms, development in, 51 Productivity and R&D spending, 155 of research, 94, 99, 101-103, 118-119, 121-122, 136, 139 n., 141, 148-149 Productivity growth, unexplained portion of, 5 Productivity slowdown, of 1960s and 1970s, 94, 148 Propensity to cite, 183, 187-188, 194, 202, 313 in economic-growth model, 113 in quasi-structural approach to benchmarking, 446, 447 Propensity to patent, 147–148, 202 determining variations in, 113 in economic-growth model, 106 of federal laboratories, 268, 269-270 of Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 311 stability of assumed, 268 and trends in patents, 341 of universities, 238, 240-241 of U.S. inventors, 220 variations in, over time, 15 Property rights and patent citations, 27, 106 n., 158, 417 secrecy as protection for, 341 Proportionality, assumption of, 441, 442, 449 Proximity and knowledge spillovers, 12 Proxy variable (indicator), 52 question of, 64, 64 n. Public knowledge, stock of, 119 Public Law 96-517. See Bayh-Dole Act Public Law 98-620, 243

Quality-ladder model, 91, 95 n. Quasi-structural approach to benchmarking, 437, 441-451 R&D (research and development). See also Innovation(s); Research and appropriability, 51 average patent payoff of, 268-269 and citations by Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 323 and commercial interactions, 328 (see also Commercialization of nationallaboratory technology) diffusion of, 199 federally funded, 261-262, 287-288, 291 - 297at federal laboratories, 283 and globalization, 362 n. Israeli, 337, 344-345, 371 and patents, 6-7, 18, 36, 41-42, 43, 44 patents per dollar of, 253 patents per dollar of, at Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 311, 312 and simple patent counts, 26 spending on, 296-297 university, 69 U.S. government sponsored, 287–289 R&D directors, survey interviews with, 380 R&D spillovers, 7, 155. See also Knowledge / research spillovers; Research spillovers Rate and Direction of Inventive Activity (Nelson), 5 Recombinant DNA, patent for, 79 Reference citation intensity, 313 References, 105, 379 n. See also Patent citations Regional economic growth from universities and other research centers, 155 Regional Technology Transfer Centers (RTTCs), 281 Reissue numbers of patents, 107 n. Relationship, technological. See Technological relationship, patent citation as signal of Renewable Energy Research (laboratory), 309 Renewal fees for patents, 7

Research. See also Innovation(s); R&D as basic, 56 basicness of, 52, 62-63 (see also Basicness) corporate vs. university, 52, 55, 64 and commercial innovation, 262, 283 economic benefits as motivation for support of, 179 federally funded, 237, 341 (see also Federal laboratories; Federally Funded Research and Development Centers; Government patents) and NASA, 279-280 (see also NASA patents) optimal subsidy for, 143-145 and patentable innovations, 339 and patents, 7 productivity of, 94, 99, 101-103, 118-119, 121-122, 136, 139 n., 141, 148-149 public support for, 199 and simple patent counts, 26, 406 university, 244-245, 256-257 vs. corporate, 52, 55, 64 federally funded, 237 unpatentable, 162, 181, 339 Research, economic and patent citations, 28 and simple patent counts, 26, 406 Research, future possible, 17-20 on federal-laboratory patents, 283-284 on important patents, 176 on industrial innovation and aggregate growth, 149 on international knowledge flows, 227-229 on inventions not patented, 405 in knowledge-flow model, 196 and measures of basicness/ appropriability, 52, 84 on technology-field effects, 448 on technology transfer from national laboratories, 328 Research and development. See R&D Research design in test for basicness, 66-70 Researchers in universities, career concerns of, 329 Research institutions, innovative performance of, 13 Research outcomes and more vs. less basic innovations, 52 and patentable innovations, 54 Research spillovers, 17, 91-92. See also Knowledge/research spillovers; R&D spillovers decline in potency of, 93 in growth model, 99-103, 105 Research university, 287-288. See also University patents and patenting Roosevelt, Franklin D., 291 Rosenberg, Nathan, 4 n. RTTCs (Regional Technology Transfer Centers), 281 Ruby laser, patent for, 79, 80-81 Salt Lake City, in localization study, 167 Sample design and measures of basicness, 66-69 Sandia laboratory, 289, 309, 325 San Francisco/Oakland, in localization study, 167 San Jose, in localization study, 167 Savannah River laboratory, 309, 327 Scherer, Mike (F.M.), 4 n., 405 Schmookler, Jacob, 5-6, 8, 17, 90, 91, 405 Schumpeter, Joseph, 89-90 Science-based innovation and citations, 418 Scientific research. See Research Scientific sources (SCIENCE) as measure of basicness, 63, 71, 72, 76 and more vs. less basic innovations, 52 reliance on, 11 n. Scope effect, 97, 138 Secrecy vs. patents, 54, 91 n. Sectors in growth model, 129 Selectivity biases, 65-66 Self-citations, 11, 16, 149 n., 206, 208, 424 - 428and appropriation, 215, 215 n. by firms, 204 identifying, 208 n. and localization study, 162 n., 164, 169, 171-173 need to take into account, 200 and spillovers, 215-216 suggested research on, 149 Semiconductor films, patent on, 84-85 Shocks and diffusion of ideas, 139 and Israeli patents, 346, 371 Silicon valley, in spillover-localization example, 157

Simple patent counts (SPC), 26 and innovation, 36 and measures of basicness/ appropriability, 84 vs. number of citations, 8 reliance on, as drawback, 406 Singapore, Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 Small Business Innovation Research program, 317 n. Solow, Robert, ix Sources of invention in survey of inventors/patentees, 387-389 South Korea, Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347-351, 360, 373 Spain Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 348, 350, 360, 361, 373 patent data on, 341 Spillovers. See Knowledge/research spillovers Stanford Linear Accelerator, 309, 327 Stanford University, 79, 157, 241 Stationarity, assumption of, 441, 442 Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act (Public Law 96-480) (1980), 262, 292, 293, 299 Stock-market boom of 1980s, 94 Stock-market valuation, 16, 17 Stock prices and value of patents, 142 n. Strategic inventions and patent statistics, 39 n. Subsidies for research, 143-145 Substitutability among goods, 138 Survey of inventors/patentees, xii, 14, 379-380, 400 design of, 380-384 and perceived importance of patents, 397-399 results of (extent, timing, and nature of communication among inventors/ patentees), 387-397 and technological relationship between inventions, 384-387 Tacit-knowledge transfer, 282-283 Taiwan, Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347-349, 349 n., 350, 360, 373

Technical change. See Technological/ technical change Technological categories. See Technological fields / categories Technological distance, 150 Technological fields/categories, 352, 403, 414-417, 452-454 and citations in NBER file, 419-421 and fixed-effects correction, 438-440 and generality, 430, 431 in international-knowledge-flow model, 231-232 Israeli patents analyzed by, 351-355, 365, 369-370, 374 in knowledge-flow model, 189, 191-193 and number of citations per patent, 420, 435 and originality, 431 and quasi-structural approach, 444, 445, 448-449, 450 and self-citations, 425, 426 in spillover index, 394 and university patents, 241-243, 246 and use of patent data, 200, 228-229 Technological importance. See Importance of patents Technological localization, 201 vs. geographic localization, 204-205 Technological obsolescence. See Knowledge/technological obsolescence; Obsolescence Technological opportunity, 7, 122, 123 Technological proximity effect, 225 Technological relationship, patent citation as signal of, 8, 14 in NASA citation study, 273-276 in survey of inventors/patentees, 384-387 Technological revolution, 417 Technological/technical change basicness in, 51 (see also Basicness) as cumulative process, 52 difficulty of study of, 1 and introduction of new goods, 127 n. microeconomics of, 90 patents as source of data on, 3 quantitative analysis of, 4 research on, 2 scarcity of appropriate data on, 25 unobservable concepts in economics of, 400

Technology(ies) dual-use, 281 external sources of, 283, 283 n. vs. science, 11 n. spillovers across, 19 Technology commercialization. See Commercialization of nationallaboratory technology; National laboratories Technology diffusion, 199-200 Technology transfer. See also Diffusion of knowledge/information/ideas; Knowledge-flow model; Knowledge / research spillovers and Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 296-297, 299, 300-301, 302-305, 315, 316, 324 and geographic location, 316 mechanisms for, 281 and national laboratories, 262, 289, 290, 295, 327-328 statutory encouragement of, 264 by Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act, 292 and university patents, 238, 256 Technology Transfer Initiative, 300 Thermo Electron Corporation, 303 Thomas Jefferson Accelerator laboratory, 309 Time effects in knowledge-flow model, 190 - 191Trademark Clarification Act (1984), 293 Truncation bias/problem, 9, 15, 46–48, 200, 204, 410 and calibration, 10 and Computed Tomography citation counts, 33 and distribution of citation lags, 419 and patents of different ages, 434 and patents from different cohorts, 429 and technological field, 438, 449 and university patents, 249, 252 United States citation frequencies in, 207 and fading of geographic localization over time, 224 and geographic affinities of East vs. West Coast, 227 international citing patterns of, 206, 218, 220-223, 226, 227, 230-232 international cited patterns of, 203, 221 Israeli patenting in U.S. compared with that of, 347, 349, 350, 360, 373 in knowledge-flow model, 184, 194 local assignees in, 372 patent, defined, 107 n., 158 n., 180 n., 205 n., 239 n (see also Patent(s)) United States government, R&D expenditures of, 287. See also Federal laboratories; Government patents; NASA: National laboratories United States Patent and Trademark Office. See Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. Universities basic research in, 51 research in, 287-288 research and career concerns in, 329 University of California, 310 n. and Lawrence Livermore, 299, 300-301, 306, 310 n., 322 patents of, 241 University of Florida, patents of, 241 University of Minnesota, patents of, 241 University of Texas, patents of, 241 University patents and patenting, 10, 13, 69-70, 237-238 and corporate patents, 10, 65 decline in impact of, 264 and federally funded research, 341 Israeli, 357-359, 363 and patents per R&D dollar of Federally Funded Research and Development Centers (FFRDCs), 311-313 growth of, 239-243 broader context of, 243-246 importance and generality of, 246-252, 256, 270 nature of decline in, 252-256, 313 in knowledge-flow model, 181, 182-183, 190, 193-194, 196 and localization study, 172, 176 and measures of basicness, 75-78 reduction in standards for, 269 n. research pressures on, 237 self-citations in, 164 and technology-licensing offices, 315-316 University research/R&D, 69 and corporate research, 52, 64 and distribution of basicness, 55 incentives for, 69 n.

University spillovers, 237, 239 Unobservable concepts in economics of technological change, 400 Unpatentable research/innovation, 162, 181, 339 U.S. See United States U.S. government. See United States government USPTO. See Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. Utility patents, 407, 407 n. Validation, external vs. internal, 9 Valuation, in growth model, 97-99 Value of firm, 104 of idea, 104 n. of innovations, 16, 25, 26 n., 34, 34 n., 44 and citation counts, 28-29 in growth model, 98 indicators of lack of, 51 patent citations as indicating, 43 patent counts as indicating, 36 of patents distribution of, 27 and stock prices, 142 n. of patent protection, 104 n. of research on patent citations, 404 Value obsolescence, 92 Venture capital, geographical concentration of, 317

Westinghouse Electric, 302
Wingrove, G. Hounsfield, 79
Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation, patents of, 241
Working papers, patents as, 43
World War II, patents developed during, 291